Colonel Smith (London) and the Misses Hendrie (Hamilton). Dancing was carried on in the drawing rooms, gay with flowers from the hot houses, and supperwas served at small tables in the diaring room, billiard room and conservation; the Misses Creighton (Brantford) were other guests from out of town, who found this dance no exception to the rule that those given in private houses are by far the most enjoyable.

A new triumph has been scored over the conservative instincts of scientific men by the admission of women to the fellowship of the Linnaean Society, and it was quickly followed by the request to Queen Alexandra to become an honocary member, to which she most graciously consented. Thursday as a day of many teas, Mrs. Maun received a large number of her friends in a very pretty gown of white net with beautiful satin embroidery. Frocks and frills seem to be of a most ornate character for this spring, most skirts being built in tiers. These with shirrings and broken lines are besides and broken lines are besides and broken lines are besides. The decorations of roses, palms and ferns in the drawing room were beautiful and violet and pink tulips made a very pretty teat table.

Mrs. E. F. B. Johnston had a tea for Miss Hope Morgan, only a few people being asked. The house was scented by the hyacinths and violets which were everywhere about-

Mrs. W. Percival Eby and Mrs. Bou cher Clarke were joint hostesses in Beverley-street, also on Thursday af-ternoon. Daffodils and violets were the predominating flowers used in de-coration of the rooms.

Mrs. Patrick Hughes with her two daughters, the Misses Ethelfrida and Lois, left Toronto during the week for a trip in the Southern States. They are going direct to New Orleans to witare going direct to New Orleans to Witare for the state of the state ness the mardi-gras festivities. A pretty tea was given Tuesday by Mrs. John Waldie Milne, Robert-street. The hostess was ably assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. F. N. Nudel, and Mrs. A. Milne. The tea room was in charge of Miss Milne. Miss Coulter and Miss Paton, the table being daintily decorated with a beautiful basket of pink carnations on a centre of pale pink satin draped with talle. Glionna's orchestra added much to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur Jackson, 2 Elgin-avenue gave a delightful "at home" between 4.30 and 6 on Saturday afternoon, the rush of fashionably attired guests between those hours abundantly testifying to the popularity of the charming roung hostess.

Mrs. Michie, 42 Wellington-place, had a large number of her friends to tea on Friday afternoon, when her pleasant rooms were well filled; the table was placed in the second drawing room, where the very popular daughters of the house waited upon their guests. The decoration was very charming. An oblong plateau of mirror, surrounded with a wreath of asparagus fern and bouquets of tiolets; in the centre of the mirror was a quantity of pale pink tulips in a cut-glass stand, and the candles shaded with pink, gave a rosy glow, becoming alike to people and flowers. Miss Mortimer Chark and Miss Elsie Mortimer Clark, with their guest, Miss Leslie Smith, were present, and among many others were: Mrs. Herbert Cowan, Miss Falcoubridge, Mrs. Colville Jones (Buenos Ayres), Mrs. Geo. Dickson, Mrs. George Evans, Mrs. Burritt, Mrs. Allen Macdougall Jones, Mrs. Acton Burrows.

Mrs. Fraser Macdonald had a lunchron partly lately in honor of the three young gentlewomen who are at present staying in town—Miss Evelyn Mackenzie (Montreal). Miss White (Ottawa), and Miss May Worsley (Halifax). Asked to meet them were: Miss Bertha Mackenzie, Mrs. Crowdy, Miss Athol Boulton, Miss Yvonne Nordheimer, Mrs. Gwyn Francis, Mrs. V. Duncan Macdonald.
