ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1906.

SAILORS DODGED 13000 THIRTEEN Barque Low Wood Formerly of St. John Had Trouble to Get Crew When Thirteen Men Were Wanted--Superstitious Sailor-Women Would Not Take a Chance.

Boston, June 30--"Thirteen? Not for this sailor boy." "Thirteen sailors on a dead man's chest, and you'd be a bottle of rum, may be all right in leather-bound novels, but it don't go for a filly-topical ballad for this child of old Neptune."

Capt. Rodenheiser bought her and rebuilt her into one of the smartest of the bark class around Boston Harbor. The new owner then had her loaded with 916.741 feet of lumber at Mystic wharf, and got out his clearing papers for the port of Buenos Ayres.

HOW CANADIAN PRESS WOMEN SAY THE GREAT WEST OF PRESENT DAY Another Graphic Story of a Wonderful Country --- Stories of Successful Settlers Who Soon Progressed From Penury to Opulence in the New Land.

ON BOARD THE C. P. R. GAR "WAKRETHILD," NEAR CALGARY. Without warning of their intended invasion, fifteen members of the Canadian Women's Press Club dropped in at the farm home of Mrs. W. M. Douglas near the Experimental Farm at Indian Head, Sask., one morning last week and were greeted with western hospitality.

For 70 miles out from Hanley in the Goose Lake District they are strung all along the trail prospecting and buying land. A peep at the maps in the Calgary Colonization Company's office, where a little capital and some small experience, for being "green Englishmen" who know absolutely nothing of farming, they needed the experience quite as much as the money.

Northwest. Here they took up two adjoining homesteads. After paying the required $30 from their greatly diminished principal they worked out for neighboring farmers and ranchmen until they earned a little capital and some small experience, for being "green Englishmen" who know absolutely nothing of farming, they needed the experience quite as much as the money.

CANADIAN GIRL WILL MARRY AT SEA One of Windsor, Ontario's, Society Belles to Marry Man of Her Choice in Mid-ocean--The Story Reads Like one of Clark Russell's Tales--Plan is to Evade Legal Technicality.

NEW YORK, June 30--The World today says: On the British steamship Marival, of the Trinidad Trading and Shipment Company, sailing Monday from Brooklyn, will be performed on July 10, a marriage at sea. The bride, who is thus to enact in real life the role of Clark Russell's heroine in his novel of "A Marriage at Sea," is Miss Alice Whyte, of Windsor, Ont., a guest of friends in Mount Vernon.

Miss Whyte is to be married on the high seas to a man of her choice in mid-ocean. She is one of the young society belles of Windsor. Her father was a schoolmaster, Hall Cowan, who went to Port of Spain, Trinidad, where he became secretary of an oil company. When he had prospered and wished to marry his sweetheart he found he

HE THREATENED TO CARVE HIM Member of U. S. House of Representatives Expresses His Intention of Slicing Any Who Impedes His Word.

FOUGHT WITH A BEAR A letter from Cole's Island says: "While R. J. Phillips, of the Rapids, was hunting his cows he had an encounter with a bear. He did not see Brinn till within arm's length. He made a dash for him with his hunting axe, and after a fierce battle got off with his life."

CITY PEOPLE FLOCK TO SUMMER COTTAGES ON THE NOBLE ST. JOHN

Summer resorts along the river will soon be thronged with pleasure seekers, and now that the schools have closed, those who have been awaiting the beginning of the vacation season are making preparations to spend a few weeks in the country. As usual, though some have sought rural haunts very early in the season, but there are comparatively few in number. It is quite probable that those who intend to spend the summer along the river will leave the city on or shortly after the holiday.

has just been opened there by Wilmet Wilson. Belleisle will also enjoy liberal patronage this year. The number of St. John people seeking summer homes on the St. John river is this season in excess of former years. The river boats are generally patronized and every day large numbers leave Indian town and seek the enjoyment of the "simple life" on the banks of the St. John. During the past few years pretty cottages have been erected all along the great waterway, and the city people are learning every year to appreciate more and more the natural beauties of the river. A very large number go to Westfield and other points on the river bank via the C. P. R. train, but those of the Times has already given a list. A great many go up the river farther, where the trains do not reach, for instance, Brown's Falls, Glenwood, the Cedars, the Willows, etc.
