The Man In The Street

Don't forget your war stamps!

Which are you going to use more—the ones on letters or those on checks?

Prohibition is making steady converts. Today's announcement from city hall says "residents of Metcalf street extension are to have water!"

Apparently, this implies that they will have it whether they want it or not.

"Canadian improve on gasoline" headline. "Still we wouldn't care to have it substituted even for the spring tonic of sulphur," says a classmate.

In order to be on the safe side small shopkeepers should employ a clerk who is an expert analyst, or else close the doors when the special cops come round.

Cannot accuse Commissioner Potts of not liking work; he is willing to run the department of public works with one hand and the whole school system with the other.

Will the Tory looters be prosecuted? morning paper asks. There are several in New Brunswick who do not seem to be worrying.

Another victory for the Russians may be expected in the east—it is reported that the Kaiser is in charge of the German operations.

While far from the scene of real warfare the difference of opinion over "sock day" helps to give an idea of what fighting is like.

The Standard seems to want to have the Liberals shot at sunrise for treason some time before another election comes around.

"Berlin writer tells of 'iron rule on bread'" says news note, but, personally we much prefer the ordinary paper wrapper.

The kids who got a stock of "free rum" when that rum shot in Union street was broken open probably felt they were entitled to it because of the "cents that stuck."

Newport News may soon lay claim to the title "The American Kiel."

Dramatic notes speaking of Carson's departure from New York, say he was in tears when bidding good-bye to American friends. Possibly he may also have been thinking of having to be abandoned a night he abandoned.

Lecturer on the "girl problem" says that "the average girl does not study herself." No, but the average man will attend to that.

And some men are particularly bright at figures.

What They Think of the "Man in the Street."

"What's new today?"

"You ought to have all the news that's going."

"Well, don't you see everything before it goes in the paper?"

"Do you write the stuff yourself, or do you just get the news and give it to someone else to write?"

Johnson's trainers are now saying that the big fighter was fixed. In other words they are proving the old adage about "the Ethiopian in the wood-pile," but this time the pile was not confined to wood.

"Billy" Sunday cleaned up $846,662.91 in ten years in evangelizing, and the ring it's hardly likely he'd be in line for that.

And his bedding average today seems to be hanging close to $7.

The real battle of U.S.-Soc. Pass is being fought in St. John. Hey.

Will the Revue Merchants' Association investigate the quality and prices of foodstuffs being supplied to the soldiers, or is that a matter for wholesalers?

The Red Cross is not a symbol of war. Sometimes, however, the Red Cross is fired on, and sometimes volleys are fired from under the shelter of the Red Cross. Of course this happens in Europe, and not in St. John.

"Sock" it to 'em.

It is understood that each man who joins the Retail Merchants' Association, if he sells goods by weight, must answer the question, "How often are your scales inspected?"

Early hour physical drill by groups of soldiers has been a feature in some South End streets this week. Citizens have been awakened from slumber deep by the sharp words of the command and the measured tread in unison in response.

"Well," says one, "this is a time of sacrifices for the empire, so our household is sacrificing some of the 'balmy,' as Dick Swiveller would say."

We have the Red Cross; also the Red Sox are not unknown to fame. Now there is a matter of Red Cross socks and the skin becomes itchy.

ST. JOHN HAS OPPORTUNITY TO LEAD ALL CANADA

Town Planning Expert Writes of Visit Here—Proposed Nova Scotia Act Most Advanced Probably in World

Thomas Adams, town planning advisor to the Commission of Conservation at Ottawa, has a three page article in the April number of The American City, on Housing and Town Planning in Canada. Referring to the city of St. John he says—

"A town planning act was passed in New Brunswick in 1912. The absence of any definite action on the part of any of the cities in New Brunswick is probably due to the difficulties created by the somewhat novel procedure involved in preparing a town planning scheme. The New Brunswick act is a good one, and there is no reason why a satisfactory scheme should not be prepared under it. It is satisfactory to learn that St. John, the largest city in New Brunswick, has decided to take steps to prepare a scheme. The Board of Trade of St. John has approved of the steps taken, and the movement has enthusiastic support from the press and the public.

A large area has been selected, comprising an area taking in all the unoccupied land within the city limits, and considerable portions of the county parishes adjoining both sides of the city. A map of the area is being prepared by the engineer, and early application will be made to the provincial authorities. This will be the first application to prepare a town planning scheme in legal form in Canada, and St. John has the opportunity of giving a lead on this matter to the rest of the Dominion."

Mr. Adams notes that there is no town planning act in Quebec or Ontario, but both have housing acts. Alberta has a town planning act, and throughout Canada more and more attention is being given to town planning and housing.

Mr. Adams passed through St. John yesterday en route to Halifax, to take part in the movement to have the legislature adopt amended amendments to town planning legislation for the province, which, if passed, will, he says, "be the most advanced legislation on the subject of town planning probably in any country."

FAIRVILLE BROTHERHOOD

The Fairville Brotherhood held the closing meeting of the season in open session last evening. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church, as well as other guests were invited.

Stephen H. Shaw, president, was in the chair, and delivered a short speech of welcome. A report of the finances was read by Charles Calabrese and the secretary, Perry Kelly, gave a comprehensive statement of the season's work.

The chief address was made by Rev. Hammond Johnson of Queen Square Methodist church, who advised the brotherhood to lighten their lines and not relax during the summer. He was followed by Rev. W. P. Dunham, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, an honorary member of the brotherhood, who spoke in encouragement for future endeavors.

Rev. P. R. Hayward of the Baptist church made some remarks on Bye Products and Councillor William Golding also was heard. Vocal solos were contributed by Miss Blanche McColgan and William G. MacAulay and choruses were sung.

Refreshments were served. Rev. Gilbert Barle proposed Reverend Messrs. Johnston and Hayward as honorary members. This was enthusiastically carried and the gathering dispersed after singing Auld Lang Syne.

In the Baptist church last evening the Ladies' Society were at home to their friends and a most enjoyable time was spent. Original verse figured as a frequent item on the programme. Refreshments were served and the affair proved a success in every way.

WANT BARRACKS SQUARE ON CERTAIN EVENINGS FOR SOUTH END LEAGUE GAMES

Some young men who are interested in the formation of the South End League met last evening in the school room of St. James church, Broad street and discussed plans. It was decided to form the league if they can secure the barracks square. A committee was appointed to interview the military authorities and they are to report back on Thursday evening. If they are successful in getting the ground for certain evenings the league will be formed under the same plans as last season. The fans in the vicinity are naturally anxious to see the league formed again as they spent many enjoyable evenings watching the games last year.

SOLDIER GETS INTO FIX BY INTERFERING

Fines of $88 or Year in Jail Struck Against Fred Coughlan

An interesting case developed in the police court this morning when Charles O'Dell, his wife and son appeared to answer a charge of wilfully damaging a house in Chapel street owned by John Guilfoyle. Harold Guilfoyle stated that the three defendants after vainly endeavoring to get into the flat in the lower part of his mother's house broke one door, a window sash and eight panes of glass. He said the damage would exceed $80 whereupon the magistrate said that the evidence would be taken as a preliminary hearing.

Cross examined by the defendants the witness said he considered it a family quarrel, and said that they had frequently caused trouble in the neighborhood.

Elizabeth Guilfoyle, a sister of the first witness, corroborated his statements. The case was then set aside until Friday morning at 11.45.

Fred Coughlan, a soldier, arrested on a charge of interfering with the police while they were arresting Mrs. O'Dell, and also for using obscene language, was fined $80 or ten months in jail for the first offence, and $88 or two months in jail for the second. Sergeant Sullivan and Policeman Merrick testified against him.

'POLICE COURT

Three men arrested on drunkenness charges were fined $80 or two months in jail in the police court this morning.

Fred Lupe, a colored young man, arrested last night on charges of using profane language and furious driving in Waterloo street, was fined $8 or two months in jail. The fine was allowed to stand.

Charles Bagnell, and Mary Hickey, arrested early this morning on charges of lying and lurking in a vacant lot off Pittpatrick's testified regarding the arrest. It is understood that other arrests will be made in connection with the case.

MADE TROUBLE AT COLDBROOK

County Policeman Saunders arrested James Brookins last evening on charges of assaulting Stephen Shears at Coldbrook on the 7th, inst. The case was brought before Magistrate Ritchie at Brookville. The evidence showed that Brookins visited Shears home and while Mrs. Shears was getting supper ready that he started to smash things and threatened to kill Mr. Shears. The prisoner had no cause to offer for his conduct except that he was drinking. He was sent to jail for fourteen days.
