USE THE SCHOOL BUILDINGS AS SOCIAL CENTRES

Some Information For St. John People Concerning This Great Movement and Its Results

VIII.

Clarence A. Perry of New York told in one of his addresses on the school-house as a recreation centre the following story:

"One evening, some years ago, a young man of very bad local reputation entered one of the New York recreation centres. He had come with the avowed purpose of cleaning out the place. I don't know whether he had any authority from the health department or not, but he felt that he was on a sanitary mission.

"Shortly after getting in and seeing the clean-lined athletes at their work, his purpose changed. The gymnast, who was in charge of the boys, asked him if he would not like to line up with the other fellows and take part. When his turn came, to his great mortification and chagrin, he was not able to perform as well as the other fellows. After the class was through the gymnast took him aside and gave him some special instructions. He was there again and again, and the gymnast gave him special attention. In a short time he became more proficient than any of the other fellows in that particular group. The principal had noticed and found out that he was a leader of a gang which had terrorized the neighborhood for several years, so the wise principal asked him if he would not like to bring his gang and organize a basketball team, saying he would be glad if he would enter a team and play the "Dreadnoughts," or some of the other teams playing there.

"The invitation was accepted, and in order to form a team and do the business necessary to entering the tournament, the gang was assigned a class room for a meeting place. In order to carry on the ordinary business meeting, they found they could not all speak at the same time, and the club organizer found an opportunity to give them some instructions in Robert's Rules of Order.

"In a short time this gang was carrying on business meetings in the recreation centre. They formed a team and entered the tournament and became very conspicuous basketball players.

"It was finally suggested to them that perhaps their group would like to form a debating club and enter their debates—a new sort of game—and the fellows went into it. In order to play they found it necessary to find out something about the subject they were to talk about, and so the library came into use. To make a long story short, it was but a short time before the erstwhile tough was the leader of a very respectable debating society in a New York centre."

"This illustrates very well the method of moulding character which is carried on in the recreation centre."

SCORES EXPRESS CONVERSION AT VICTORIA STREET REVIVAL

Dr. Burrows gave the first of a series of addresses on the "Art of Soul Winning" yesterday afternoon at 2.30 in the Victoria street Baptist church revival. At the evening service the building was crowded to the doors. The evangelist's text was II Kings 18. 88, "The Fire of the Son of Man." Our God is one of power, he said. Wherever you look His manifestations are mighty. It is splendid to meet men of strength. No man can be strong who is idle. When men give up their idols they are mighty forces for good.

All people are not converted in the same way. Submit to God's method of conversion. God is the author of variety. The first witness of conversion is your own conscience. You know when you have surrendered all. Then you will get the witness of the Spirit.

There are several things which will precede conversion—Restitution, confession. When you have built your altar, the fires of the Lord will come. Altar means separation, death, and then God manifests Himself.

Dr. Burrows is a clear and striking preacher of the Gospel. Crowds of people last night gave themselves to God and the work.

NOMINATIONS FOR THE LEGISLATURE VACANCIES

The Calais correspondent of the Bangor Commercial says:—A Charlotte county, N. B., convention to nominate a candidate for the legislature to fill the vacancy created by the appointment of Surveyor General W. C. H. Grimmer as Judge, will be held in St. Stephen on Thursday. There will be a lively time according to present indications. Milltown has a candidate in the person of Dr. W. H. Leighton, while St. Stephen has three who are talked of as possibilities, including ex-Mayor Watson Grimmer. Just what the count will be, cannot be said, but it is possible that they may have a candidate who will upset the plans of the politicians
