ELECTION CASE GOES OVER UNTIL AFTER SESSION OF HOUSE

Montreal, Nov. 5.—The Three Rivers election contestation case has been thrown over till some date after the opening of the session of the federal parliament, according to an arrangement entered into before the court yesterday afternoon. Owing to an indisposition from which Mr. Justice Cook is suffering, hearing could not be proceeded with yesterday. Counsel explained that on the opening of the session, Hon. Jacques Bureau, the respondent to the suit, would be unavoidably absent at the capital, and thus could not give the attention required to the matter pending before the courts.

PROVINCIAL BOARD OF HEALTH MEETS HERE

The provincial board of health is to hold a meeting here this afternoon. Two new members of the board, J. B. Dugast, secretary of agriculture, and Dr. B. M. Mullin, of Fredericton, appointed secretary in succession to Doctor Fisher, will be present for the first time. They arrived at noon today as did Dr. G. C. Jones of Fredericton and Dr. J. T. Sprague of Woodstock.

It was said this morning that so far as was known at present there were no special matters to be dealt with, but the board would be in session this afternoon and probably this evening. Reorganization was one of the chief matters.

BACK FROM THE WEST

The trains from the west arriving in the city these days are bringing back many maritime province boys who journeyed across the continent to work in the wheat fields during harvest time and who are now coming home pleased at having seen the country west of the Great Lakes of which they had heard so much, but disappointed because of the poor prospects for work immediately offering. As soon as they landed in the vicinity of the wheat field, or rather before they even reached there, they were hired to work for farmers at fairly good wages for that class of labor and they stayed at this work until there was no further need of their services.

In many sections of the west there was a demand for even more farm help than offered and better prices prevailed; but the harvesters from here had to work hard for what they did receive. It was a strenuous toil from early dawn till dark with no extras for overtime and what wages they received were well earned. Most of the men expressed themselves as being glad to get back to their homes in the province, but they said that some of those who had gone intending staying in one of the western townships for a time at least, chiefly men who had trades.

WOODSTOCK WEDDING

Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 5.—Frank Thompson and Miss Nellie Dent were united in marriage this morning in the Gertrude church by Rev. F. J. McMurray. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes Dent, and William Madden was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on the early train for St. John, Halifax and other places. On their return they will reside in Green street.

No Criminal Business For County Court Grand Jury

RECORD ESTABLISHED

In Fact Two, For the Civil List is Light and There Are No Jury Cases—Judge Forbes Makes Comment

The November sitting of the county court opened this morning without any criminal business to present to the grand jury, for the first time in eighteen years. His Honor Judge Forbes said that he had been expecting for that number of years it was the worst time during that term that he had the pleasure of meeting a grand jury without having some criminal business to present to them.

Although some people, he said, would make one believe that St. John was decreasing morally, yet the evidence today showed that these reports were not only unfounded but ungrounded. He thought that the city area had been better from a moral standpoint.

With so much work going on near the city and so many foreigners here, it was a record—the entire absence of a criminal docket—which could not be equalled in any city of the same population on the continent.

The civil docket is as follows:— Non-Jury: Jordan vs. Johnson-Tait, McLean & Sons; Murray vs. Fitzpatrick-J. R. Armstrong, K. C.; Kerr vs. Cunard-J. Joseph Porter.

Appeal: From police magistrate, Harry Little, appellant, vs. Aaron Hastings and Thomas M. Wasted, respondents—J. A. Barry for the appellants.

The petit jurors were as follows:—J. S. Frost, S. Norman, Sention, S. D. Gell, Ellis, Frederick J. Dugay, Albert A. Ellis, Arthur G. Dick, Thomas R. Christy, Frederick R. Patterson, Joseph M. Daisell (absent), Sydney Gibbs, William G. McIntyre, William McCann, James W. Boleby, Wm. E. Matheson (absent), James D. Seelye, LeBaron R. Thompson, George M. Robertson, James Ryan, Elbert E. Charr, (absent), R. Thomas Worden, Thomas Kirkham, Hudson M. Breen, John Flood (absent), Roland H. C. Skinner, Walter E. Basser, Alfred Burley (absent), Peter Clinch (absent), Frank L. Potts, Ira B. Kierstead (absent), Wm. H. Shaw (absent), J. Harvey Brown (absent), Samuel A. Corbett (absent), Wm. E. Baxter, Peris A. Smith, Frederick Kelley, George W. Stacey (absent), W. I. Fenlon, Alex. F. Paterson, Wm. E. Anderson, George McArthur (absent), Harold C. Schofield (absent), Heber G. Vroom.

The grand jurors were—Frederick C. MacNeil (absent), W. I. Fenlon, Alex. F. Paterson, Wm. E. Anderson, George McArthur (absent), Harold C. Schofield (absent), Heber G. Vroom.

The court adjourned until tomorrow morning, when the appeal case will be heard. The other cases will be listed in chambers.

Not only is the absence of a criminal docket notable in this instance, but an unusually small civil docket, with no jury cases at all, establishes another record.

OCONEE WILL BE MADE OVER AND ENLARGED

Captain Flewelling Predicts Early Closing of the River This Year

The river steamer Oconee, Captain Flewelling, which has been running between St. John and Wickham, finished her season last week, and yesterday was taken to Glenwood where she will be overhauled. The boat will be out in two and will be enlarged twenty-five feet. The work of remodeling will be done by D. H. Whelpley of Glenwood, and when completed the steamer will be able to compete with most of the river boats, both in passenger as well as in the freight business. The freight on this route this season has been very heavy, and the owners have had a very successful year.

A Times reporter this morning, Captain Flewelling predicted that the river would close this year considerably earlier than last year. "The water in the river is exceptionally high for the time of year," he said, "and at the first touch of real cold weather the river will probably close up. Most of the low water wharves along the river are entirely submerged and it is impossible to effect a landing. The season appears to have been a very successful one for all of the river boats, the freight during practically the entire season being particularly heavy."

FUNERAL OF FATHER CARSON

The body of Rev. Father John F. Carson, who died in Boston on Friday last, is being brought to this city from St. George, where it lay in state over night, and will reach here this evening about seven o'clock. This morning requiem services were conducted in the church in St. George where he so often officiated as pastor and where his name is held in reverence and esteem. Rev. Father Doyle, of Milltown, officiated. A large congregation attended.

On being brought to the city tonight the body will be taken first to F. Fitzpatrick's undertaking parlors, and thence to St. Peter's church, North End, where it will lie in state all night. In the morning divine service will be conducted at half past eight and a solemn mass of requiem will be sung at nine o'clock, after which interment will be made in the new Catholic cemetery. Quite a large number of parishioners from St. George are expected to come to the city for the funeral, among them Mr. and Mrs. George E. Frauley and Charles Lepetit.

TO REORGANIZE

The members of the Portland Y. M. C. A. are in hopes this year of reviving the interest which was displayed a few years ago in that association, and this evening will hold their annual meeting in the rooms, Portland street. It is expected that the Y. M. C. A. boys will take an active part in outdoor sports this winter, as well as in indoor games, particularly basket ball.
