On Buying or Selling a Second-Hand Musical Instrument

Shakespeare knew human nature. He believed music was one of the most essential things in the make-up of a person.
So he said: "Teach your children to love it.
Have it in your home. Buy a second-hand instrument and save money—for example, a Phonograph. Maybe you have some instrument that you are tired of. Trade or sell it. One of our advertises will do the trick—for but a

FOUR BABIES YOUNG

MOTHER'S XMAS GIFT
Santa Claus and the stork bring fourfold joy to New Jersey Couple

Santa Claus and the stork combined forces on Friday night, bringing not only joy and an abundance of good things to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cor-tright, of Sebring's Mills, near Dundelen, N. J., but a quartet of babies, whose combined weight is twelve pounds. Yet all appear to be strong and healthy. And the mother is said to be "doing well."

Mr. and Mrs. Cortright celebrated their first anniversary of wedded happiness on Thanksgiving Day. Mr. Cortright said:
"I don't know of any joy keener than that of being a father, but to have the happiness come fourfold is what I might call blessing."

The whole neighborhood is interested, and the way the girls have put in and offers of help and nurses, I am inclined to believe that everything will be done for the preservation of the quartette.

The couple live on a farm near Dundelen.
They have made a comfortable living out of it, and have become regular with their neighbors. Neither is yet twenty-five years old.

Among gifts sent to the infants, were two little cribs and a pair of gowns, each capable of holding four infants, besides nat-

BEEF TRUST IN CRIMINAL SUIT

United States Government Drops Civil Proceedings for More Drastic Action.

Chicago, Dec. 27.—Assistant United States District Attorney James H. Wilkerson, today, issued a statement regarding his action in sweeping aside civil proceedings made way for criminal prosecution of the men composing the National Packing Company. Mr. Wilkerson accused is but one reason for the dismissal of the civil case, and that is the desire of the government for immediate and vigorous criminal prosecution of the packers.
Mr. Wilkerson's statement follows:
"The petition against the packers was filed on the 21st of March, 1910. Afterwards there was a grand jury investigation, as a result of which indictments were returned charging some of the defendants in the bill with criminal violations of the anti-trust laws. Since the return of those indictments, the defendants in the equity case have asked a number of extensions of time within which to answer and those extensions have all been granted. It was thought to be fully understood by both the government and the attorneys for the packers, that there were to be no further proceedings in the equity case until the trial of the criminal cases.

"The purpose of the dismissal of the equity case is to make clear the position of the government that the trial of the criminal cases is to be vigorously pushed and as to be interfered with in no way whatever by the pendency of the equity cases in the circuit court. It may be that a resort to a petition in equity to enjoin future violations will be entirely unnecessary if the government's contentions are established in the criminal cases.
The attorney general therefore directed the dismissal of the equity case without prejudice. Further proceedings to enjoin future violations can, of course, be instituted if those proceedings should be found to be necessary to maintain fully the position of the government in this litigation."

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, at a luncheon at the Colony Club in New York, urged on women the necessity for union.
