Social Notes of Interest

Colonel V. P. Hollenbeck, of New York, personal representative of Mr. A. E. Gautech, president of the International Paper Company, has been a guest at the Admiral Beatty Hotel for the last few days collaborating with government officials in planning details of the social side of the many important functions which will be held in the inaugural of the Grand Falls hydro power development on Tuesday of next week. The event promises to be one of much social brilliancy. Several hundred of Maritime province people are receiving invitations to attend the ceremony and the invited guests are to have many special privileges. They will travel by special train from Saint John and will also be entertained for all meals at the scene of the notable event. The catering at Grand Falls will be in charge of the ladies of the United Church and the members of the Catholic Women's Guild.

Mrs. Percy Thomson entertained delightfully on Tuesday evening at a dance at her residence in Robbsey for the pleasure of her young guests. Miss Margaret Skinner and Mr. Errol Skinner. The spacious reception rooms were a scene of wonderful radiance with a profusion of lovely roses everywhere. No other flowers were used in the decorations and the fragrance and beauty of the roses gave an indescribable charm to the dance. To the brilliance of the many electric lights was added the softer glow of many candles, and in this setting the lovely gown of the young ladies with the shimmer of silk and the sparkle of ornament made a scene of dazzling beauty. The orchestra of the Admiral Beatty Hotel furnished a splendid program of music and the guests who were mostly of the sub-debutante set enjoyed every minute of a wonderful evening. Dancing was continued until an early hour. A delicious supper was served on the upper table also there were roses for decoration. The guests included Mrs. Roy O. Skinner, Miss Margaret Skinner, Miss Edith Skinner, Miss Ruth Robinson, Miss Barbara Jack, Miss Violet McAvity, Miss Hortense Maher, Miss Elizabeth Foster, Miss Helen Allison, Miss Margaret Page, Miss Jean Angus, Miss Eleanor Angus, Miss Frances Robinson, Miss Catherine Mullin, Miss Lois Fairweather, Miss Frances Frith, Miss Elizabeth Skinner, Miss Frances Gilbert, Miss Elsie Gilbert, Miss Constance White, Miss Helen Cudlip, Miss Frances Cudlip, Miss Alice Tilly, Miss Margaret Tilly, Miss Daisie McIntyre, of Boston, Miss Florence Puddington, Miss Kathleen Blanchet, Miss Helen Blanchet, Miss Barbara Myles, Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, Miss Rachel Armstrong, Miss Helen Holmes, of Toronto, Miss Catherine Peters, Miss Margaret Peters, Miss Constance Starr, Miss Constance Watson, Miss Margaret Henderson, Miss Phyllis MacGowan, Miss Orla Roach, Miss Millicent Hubbard, Mr. Errol Skinner, Mr. Erle Thomson, Dr. Donald Skinner, Mr. Douglas Skinner, Mr. Murray Vaughan, Mr. Harold

Patronise Your Own Business

As Taxpayers we are all owners of the Saint John Hydro. Through our taxes we have all put money into it.

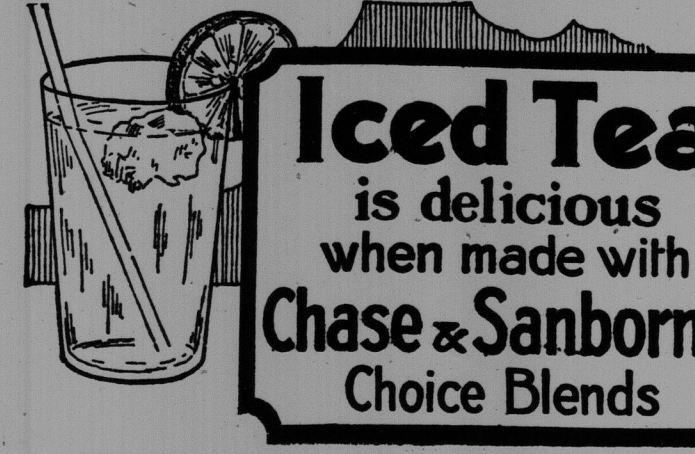

We have all reaped a handsome harvest in the forcing down of electricity rates to a point where the public has been saved to date a total of about $600,000.

We want to make this saving grow faster again. We can do it by giving all our trade to what is actually our own business—Our Own Hydro. Then will Our Hydro be able to bring down current prices another and another notch.

Now that Our Hydro is proving beyond any contradiction that it is making good, and ready to provide still more welcome news when further supported in a practical way by the patronage of the rest of us, there is but one thing left for us to do about it. Give your light, power and range trade to against lost charm, this new way of solving oldest hygienic problem—offers true protection; discards like tissue

CHEER gowns and ill-timed social or business demands hold no terror for the modern woman. The insecurity of the old-time "sanitary pad" has been ended. "KOTEX," a new and remarkable way, is now used by 8 in 10 better

It's five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads! You dine, dance, motor for hours in sheer frocks without a second's doubt or fear. It discolors, too. And thus stops all danger of offending.

Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment. You ask for it at any drug or department store, without hesitation, simply by saying "KOTEX."

Do as millions are doing. End old, insecure ways. Enjoy life every day. Package of twelve costs only a few cents.
