Shaving and Sham

I inlings go by the steamer to get worse all the time. I think may be it has got the mumps, or the consumption or something of that kind. Those are things I do not know anything about. It must be one of those, because I have doctored it for fits and measles, because I have doctored it for fits and measles, and all those things, but still she grows worse. She had better go by the steamer of the 18th, I do not think she will keep for the 30th. To tell the plain truth, I am sorry I agreed to take this baby slong. A baby is too troublesome—altogether too troublesome. I have had a baby at see, and I know. Once I had thing on a sheep and I wayer suffered so I had twins on a ship, and I never suffered so much in my life. Please come and get this one, and ship it per steamer of the 18th. Most of the other articles had better go at e same time, especially the cow and the iot. If I were releived of those, I could e some more women, and maybe another Marriage Maxims. A good wife is the greatest earthly blessing: man is what his wife makes him. It is the other who molds the character and destiny f the child. Make marriage a matter of moral judgment.

Marry in your own religion.
Marry into a family which you have long Never talk at one another, either alone of company. Never both manifest anger at once. Never speak loud to one another, unless the Never reflect on a past action, which was one with a good motive and with the best dgement at the time. Marry into a different blood and temperanent of your own.

Let each one strive to yield oftenest to the ishes of the other

Let self-abnegation be the daily aim and ffort of each. The very nearest approach to domestic icity on earth is in the mutual cultivation f an absolute unselfishness. Never find fault unless it is perfectly certain en prelude it with a kiss and lovingly. Never taunt with a past mistake.

Neglect the whole world beside; rather than Never allow a request to be repeated. "I orgot" is not an acceptable excuse. Never make a remark at the expense of ana ther: it is a meanners. Never part for a day without loving words e think of during absence; besides it may be that you will never meet again in life.

Entertainment. The far-famed Johnny Mokey, announced one of his unique entertainments for Saturday evening next, in Pringlo's Hall. Songs bur-lesques, stump speeches, sketches, and music a e the order of the evening. Johuny thus assures his "invites."

In order to give thrilling effect on this aberal call. Carpenters, the way is plain, and tho' there may be close Shaving, if you'll come and see me, I'll not Gouge you. Foundrymen, set a Pattern, and give me a call: Tailors, it is need'es(s) to say you are required, so don't Back-stitch, but Seam where you are. Grocers, will come, as they are generally rum set, and I like to be Brandied with Gin-you-wine liberality. Booksellers, must not be Stationary,—I'm bound to post a good bitl. Tineers, tiu to 1 I'll plaze yez. Painters, essist me to a Second Coat. Panters, assist me to a Second Coat.

Porter-House Ke pers, if you don't give me a Punch, something will Ale me, and I shall be brought to my Bier.

Shoemakers, without your Awl I cannot Last Long, and may come to a bad End.

Scythe Makers, don't Cut us, nor Hoe us out, until you Fork over, so I can Rake in a few dimes.

Bu chers, you are of the right Kidney, and will give a Quarter so I can get Fat. Engineers, give me a good Packing; don't let us fail for want of e steam. Cabinet-makers, I take the Stand to amuse you, and form our Bureau at 8 precisely.
Don't lay us under the Table.
Harness makers, you can Trace this sheet and Bridle your risibilities so as not to Check the blood. Printers, don't knock my expectations into Pi, but stretch out your figs and help a poor Devil who is out of Sorts.

THE RECENT RAILWAY HORROR IN WALES which destroyed life in such a terrible manner, was one of the most natural things in the world. The engineer of the mail express, coming to a turn of about half a mile across, rushes around it blindly at the rate of forty miles an hour. At the other side is an acclivity on which all trains have a tendency to move downward. Knowing this, and not being able to see far ahead for the curve, and never trubling himself with a thought of the goods-train which had recently gone before, in the regular way, or the possibility that one of his cars might have parted on the sloping line, he still rushed ahead. He had done so so often—and he did it again. That habit of so often—and he did it again. I has man of rushing on railway lines is so strong that railway men laugh at the idea of caution. They should at least remember that the majority of the mest deadly railway accidents come of that wild rushing round curves.

CUCUMBER PICKLES .- Let the cucumbers lie in the strongest brine for two weeks, take them out and wash them in water, soak for five or six days; then drain them and put them in a jar with the following ingredients: To one gallon of vinegar, add three pounds brown sugar, two or three onions, a teacupful of allspice, half a cup of cloves, a pod or two of red pepper; boil and put over the pickles
