Business Times. The run of herring on the Sheddish shore this spring is reported to be away ahead of previous years, and fishermen are reaping a rich harvest in consequence. What can be disposed of are sold on the shore at forty cents a barrel. The fishermen are catching tons upon tons more than they can get rid of in this way, and cart loads of fresh herring can be seen piled along the shore. They are utilized for fertilizing purposes. The cattle along the shore are said to be very fond of fresh herring and feed upon them ravenously. Some Letters have been received in Boston from various parts of Turkey stating that about 50,000 Armenians in Russia province are dependent upon what is known to keep them from starvation. Thus far the relief in this province, as far as it has been given to foreigners, has been limited to the smallest possible amount, but the destination is interesting. At least $50,000 will be required to carry on the work. The surviving people are huddled together in hards in stables and are clothed in rags.

"It's the little things that count." The true philosophy of happiness is to be well fed and warmly clad and not to realize that there is anything else to desire. We may indeed have dined well and be warmly dressed, without being contented, but we certainly can't be contented while we are hungry and cold.

Life is a monotonous grind at best and we can only expect ourselves as comfortably as possible for the inevitable work, taking pleasure out of any new idea, which aids us in outwitting Dame Nature's frosty embraces.

The interlining of winter clothing with Floye Chanon is a new and splendid idea for providing a completely warm and rain proof warmth at a very slight expense.

DEATHS.

LATTIE.—At Pugwash, May 13th, after a brief illness, Joseph Lattie, aged 72 years, leaving a widow and four children to mourn their loss.

ALLEN.—William Allen departed this life May 10th, after a very short illness. He was 50 years of age and leaves a wife and eight children to mourn. His funeral was conducted by Rev. W. D. Lodge, assisted by Rev. F. D. Davidson. Cause of death, diabetes.

COLCOUR.—At Pugwash, May 18th, after a long and tedious illness, aged 74 years, Elizabeth, relict of the late Alexander Colbourne, leaving four sons to mourn the loss of a faithful mother. Our sister was a humble follower of Jesus Christ, and respected member of the Pugwash church.

HARTLING.—At Oyster Pond, East Jeddore, April 11th, Matilda, beloved wife of Geo. Hartling, senr., aged 67 years. Our sister was one of those quiet, peaceful christians, whose lives shed a shining upon those with whom they were associated by all who knew her best to have been a good neighbor, a kind mother, and affectionate wife. May God sustain the bereaved in their loss.

RICHARDS.—At Pugwash, April 14th, in his forty-fifth year, after a long and severe illness, died Mrs. Elizabeth Richards, beloved wife of James Richards, leaving a husband and three children to mourn their irreparable loss. Sister Richards was a member of the Pugwash church and lived a godly life in Christ Jesus. Months before her death message came she could say, "Having a desire to depart and to be with Christ, which is far better."

NOLAN.—Suddenly at Huanogornish bury Co., on the 3rd inst., M. A., beloved wife of John Nolan, aged 74 years. Sister Nolan was married and united with the New Maryland Baptist church many years ago, of which church she remained a consistent member, until the Master called her to go up higher. Our sister leaves a husband, five sons and four daughters, to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. May the Lord comfort the mourning ones with his grace.

MOORE.—At the hospital, Newtonville, Mass., April 30, suddenly of pneumonia and heart trouble, Mrs. W. E. Moore, nee Harbison, was buried on May 3, aged 47 years and nine months. Sister Moore was baptized twenty-two years ago by the late Rev. N. Video, and united with the Baptist church at Colver Square, and had to the day of her death maintained a consistent christian life. She leaves a husband, daughter, sister, (Mrs. Geo. P. Phinney) and many friends to mourn her departure.

COLLETT.—At Lakesport, May 11th, Henry Collett, aged 59 years. Brother Collett has been a member of the Lakesport Baptist church for a number of years, and before was a member of the Jordan Falls church from early life. For years he has been afflicted with painful and incurable sickness. But, through suffering he has maintained his cheerful trust in the mercy and love of the all wise Redeemer. His passing was a triumph of christian faith. He leaves a wife three sons and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn the loss of a faithful christian, whose life was a constant evidence of being hid with Christ in God.

SPOFF.—Parker N. Spurr, died at Aylesford, Saturday, May 2nd. He was the third son of Deacon N. P. and Mrs. Spurr. His illness has been of long duration, and during the latter months of his life was very painful. He passed away peacefully at last, repeating the words of the familiar hymn, "Jesus lover of my soul."

Let me to thy bosom fly." Parker in early life was the subject of religious impressions. Tenderly reared in a christian home he early felt a desire to become a christian. Some nine years ago he took part in religious meetings. He did not, however, come out and confess Christ at that time, yet, through all his subsequent wanderings he never quite lost those early impressions. His funeral was conducted by Rev. D. H. Simpson, of Berwick, was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Coffin, of Lakesport, took part in the service. Service was held in the house Monday, May 4th. Interment was at the Aylesford cemetery.

DOANE.—Sister Sarah Doane was a daughter of Reuben Caboon, deceased, one of the first deacons of the Canoe church, and one whose life was a study. Our sister married Captain Doane, of Barrington, but he was lost at sea, when they had been but a short time married, and since his death Sister Doane has lived in the Canoe. Her health had not been firm for a number of years, and last year she went to Boston to the home of a married sister. Her health continued to fail until the latter part of March, when a stroke of apoplexy with paralysis struck her very low. It was evident she could not recover and she sank gradually for a week and then she died. On Sunday, the 29th of March, she passed away. Our sister's heart interest in all that concerned the church. Her religious experience was genuine and deep.

and her last hours (she was conscious to the last) were soothed and comforted by the promises of God. May we like her be ready when the summons comes.

HATCH.—Mrs. Octavia Hatch, nee Kerby, has been taken away while still young. Our sister, who was born in Canoe 27 years ago, was a daughter of Burton Kerby, and granddaughter of Deacon Harriet Kerby, deceased, and being left motherless at the age of twelve years, took charge of her father's home and the care of a brother and two sisters. At sixteen she was converted and united with the Canoe Baptist church. She went to the United States a few years later, and in October 1894 was married there to the husband she was so soon to leave. Our sister was the picture of health, but recently heart disease developed, and on April 30th, at her home in Boston, she passed away. We have had very few among the members of the church to contain in their fidelity to church duties, and so blameless in their lives as our Sister Hatch. While she was amongst us her life was without reproach, and there is abundant testimony to show that up to the end her pathway was "as the shining light shining more and more unto the perfect day." May God comfort the sorrowing husband and relatives.

In Favor of Arbitration. PRESIDENT CLEVELAND EXPRESSES HIS VIEWS ON THE SUBJECT.

Washington, May 14.—At the recent national conference on international arbitration, a committee was appointed to present to the president a memorial embodying the preamble and resolutions adopted by the conference. The members of the committee were the Hon. Geo. F. Edmunds, of Vermont; the Hon. Mr. J. B. Angell, President of the University of Michigan; Judge Hitchcock, of St. Louis, and Mr. Gardner C. Johnson, of the District of Columbia. The committee discharged its duty today, being received by President Cleveland in his private office. The President told the members of the committee that he was thoroughly and strongly committed to the doctrine of arbitration for the settlement of international disputes, and had so expressed himself in his communications to Congress, prior to the Venezuelan troubles. He said he had read the resolutions now presented to him when they were adopted by the convention, and highly approved their moderation and wisdom. He had noted with pleasure and surprise the high character of the representatives of the twenty-two states, who had assembled here of their own accord to give voice to their convictions on the subject. He promised to be ready officially to utilize all proper occasions for the accomplishment of the purpose that the conference had in view, which, he added, will have to be done through an international treaty.
