

TABAC A CHIQUER COPENHAGEN

L'usage du tabac à chiquer Copenhagen diffère entièrement du tabac à chiquer sous sa forme ordinaire.

Prenez-en une petite pincée pour commencer, placez-la entre la lèvre inférieure et la gencive, au milieu.

Ensuite, vous pouvez augmenter la quantité graduellement jusqu'à ce que le goût soit aussi prononcé que vous le désirez.

Le Tabac à chiquer Copenhagen étant granulé, donne immédiatement toute sa force.

Par conséquent, une pincée vous suffira pour en apprécier la saveur et durera longtemps; ce qui démontre que le tabac à chiquer Copenhagen est économique et de qualité supérieure.

Avis au Public

L'encouragement accordé par le public à notre Gérant du Département Français Monsieur A. P. Labbé, de St-Léonard, N. B. est démontré par le record établi par lui en réglant personnellement durant les premiers trois mois de 1919, 100,000 de nouvelles assurances, ce qui lui a donné droit à la première position dans le Club Centenaire établi par la Compagnie.

L'Union Mutuelle sollicite respectueusement la continuation bienveillante du public en faveur de son Gérant.

Thrilling and dramatic is the great lecture entitled "Climbing the Family Tree," which Albert Edward Wiggen presents on the second night of the Community Chautauqua. It deals with the age old problem of heredity and environment in a brand new way. He gives clear cut, enlightening answers to such perplexing questions as, Why do strong, sane parents have degenerate children? Can cousins safely marry? and others that every thinking person has often pondered over.

Tillemont Thomason, the great English engineer, who appears on the opening night of the Community Chautauqua, was brought to America by this organization especially for this tour, in which he gives his dramatic lecture, "Echoes of the German Revolution." He is head of the British Lecture League, one of England's great institutions, and won fame during the war by his remarkable work in deciphering the German war plans long before they were apparent to the Allied military leaders. While he was at first scoffed at, the very people who doubted him later acknowledged that he was right, for his predictions were borne out by the actual course of events. His lecture on the German Revolution gives the same broad minded view on what we may expect of Germany in future.

Charles T. Grilley, prince of entertainers, who appears on the second day of the Community Chautauqua, is making a triumphant return to the American audiences that have long known and enjoyed his work. His inimitable dialect stories are choicer than ever, for he brings an array of brand new stories as well as the choicest of the old favorites.

Miss Vivian Des Jardins, the talented and vivacious violinist, who appears with the Theresa Sheehan Concert Company on the opening day of the Community Chautauqua. Miss Des Jardins, an American girl of French descent, is the proud possessor of a violin that is centuries old, which has been handed down in her family from generation to generation. While the violin has never been appraised, it is, needless to say, priceless to its owner, who asserts without it she could not give the spirited finished performances that have made her famous.

THE TIME OF THEIR LIVES.

Anyone passing the Chautauqua tent these mornings will wish to be a child once more, so happy are the boys and girls taking part in the Junior Chautauqua. No wonder! They are having five days of fun of the finest kind, including every form of entertainment dear to young hearts.

Games—such games as were never thought of before and enough of them to last a whole year—games for indoors, games for outdoors, games for rainy days and games for sunny days!

COMMUNITY CHAUTAUQUA

Here Young America Greet You!

Radiant with the charm of youth is this offering of

Carolyn Reed and the Juvenile Four

Which presents a remarkable group of artists, with talent as great as it is varied.

First come the Famous Swenson Twins—Ruby and Ruth. Their delightful pantomime dances make the characters of Mother Goose step out of their pages, and little Bo Peep and Little Boy Blue will live before you. Their clever baseball skit, and their jockey and Indian dances will surely thrill.

Ferne Upton

The youthful soprano with the golden voice

Appears on the program accompanied by the charming Carolyn Reed, pianist and reader.
