Special Clearance Sale.
Hundreds attended the great clearance sale of fall and winter millinery which opened yesterday at Mary's, whose advertisement appears on page 4. All day the store was thronged with eager buyers who were quick to take advantage of the extraordinary bargains in ultramodern hats, fashionable head attire. So brisk was the selling that it became necessary to draw on reserve stock, so that fresh offerings await today's bargain seekers. Among the most prominent features of the sale are the magnificent French, English and American patent hats, including the famous Gage creations. Also an exceptionally nice line of children's school and dress hats.

ITALIAN SOLDIERS FIRING FROM TRENCHES IN TRIPOLI

This photograph was taken in the Bumeliana, the Italians' most advanced point in Tripoli. The Italians were entrenched and the Turks attacked them and were repulsed with 12 killed and 100 wounded. Maj. Pisani, with binoculars, is seen watching the effect of the firing.

ORANGEMEN COMMEMORATE EXPOSURE OF GUNPOWDER PLOT

St. John District Lodge Holds Dinner -- Inspiring Address by Provincial Grand Master, Rev. B. H. Thomas, on Principles of Orange Order -- Many Other Interesting Speeches

St. John District Lodge, Loyal Orange Association, commemorated Guy Fawkes Day by holding a dinner last evening at which there was a large attendance of members and their guests. The feature of the prandial proceedings was a splendid address by Provincial Grand Master, Rev. B. H. Thomas, who dwelt on the significance of the day and gave an eloquent exposition of the aims and objects of the Orange Order. Much credit for the success of the affair is due to A. B. Clifford, secretary of the celebration committee.

District Master D. D. McArthur presided, and among those present were—Grand Master B. H. Thomas; Junior Deputy Grand Master, J. W. Clark; Grand Treasurer, N. J. Morrison; Past Deputy Grand Master, A. J. Armstrong; Grand Master of Prentice Boys, H. Sellen; Past Grand Master, Douglas McArthur; Deputy District Master, J. Sullivan, and Deputy County Master, James Spruell.

After the toast to the King, S. C. Matthews gave a recitation which was well received. He felt that the day of Guy Fawkes was a day of celebration, and he felt that the day of Guy Fawkes was a day of celebration, and he felt that the day of Guy Fawkes was a day of celebration.

R. G. Goodrich then proposed "The day we celebrate." Grand Master Thomas responded. He said that with the exception of his church there was no organization to which he was proud to belong than the Orange Order. He felt that the day of Guy Fawkes was a day of celebration, and he felt that the day of Guy Fawkes was a day of celebration.

Continuing he referred to the part played in the development of the Empire by the Orange Order, and declared that a new era was opening for the order. The growth and expansion of the order, he said, was due to the unity of the order, and he felt that the day of Guy Fawkes was a day of celebration, and he felt that the day of Guy Fawkes was a day of celebration.

A New Era.
The City of St. John.
Ex-Ald. Vanwart proposed the city of St. John, coupled with the name of Mayor Frink, Ald. R. W. Wigmore and Ald. G. H. Green.

Mayor Frink in responding said he was not present in his official capacity but as the guest of some of his very strong friends in the order. After referring to the able and eloquent address of the Provincial Grand Master, and congratulating the order upon its distinguished ability, he went on to speak of the City of St. John—its past and its prospects. He said nothing was more important to St. John than to have like the brook, and all citizens
