

THREE BATTALIONS IN 15th UNITS WOULD MAKE TWO GOOD BATTALIONS

Colonel Wedderburn's Battalion Might Yet Get to France If Drafts From Other Units Were Sent Over

Recruiting Authorities Believe it Impossible to Raise 600 Men in Next Three Weeks in Province to Save Identity of 145th and 165th Battalions—Pay for Returned Soldier Recruiting Officers Being Arranged

Friday, Sept. 1.—The question of filling up New Brunswick units now at Valcartier Camp is the main topic of discussion among recruiting authorities at this time.

Although Westmorland and Kent counties have made gallant efforts to fill up the 145th Battalion, the task has apparently proved, not beyond their strength but beyond their resources.

The 145th and 165th battalions have at the present time about 700 men and the 165th French-Canadian Battalion has about the same number.

A Big Task.—Several recruiting men, representative of different parts of the province, admit with regret that they do not think it possible to fill up these two units to the 1,000 mark within the next three weeks.

War Souvenirs.—There is an exhibition in the window of T. McAvity & Sons, King street, one of the finest collections of war souvenirs that has yet been seen in St. John.

Not only does the collection contain war souvenirs of the Allies, but also pieces of ammunition and novelties from the country that is today the bitterest hold a chance of getting there with its present strength.

Soldiers who have been through the mill on the other side of the water say that a unit reaching England under strength immediately gets a black eye in the estimation of the British authorities.

On the arrival in the city yesterday of Lieutenant-Colonel P. A. Guthrie, the chief recruiting officer for the province interviewed him with reference to the pay for returned soldiers who have recently been appointed recruiting clerks and whose pay has been held up for some unexplained reason.

The matter is being taken up with the headquarters for Military Division No. 6, and it is found that this office desires further information. The O. C. New Brunswick troops yesterday sent telegrams to all these men, asking them to state the information required and requesting recruiting officers to make such advances in money to these men as they required.

These boys are doing good work now and many of them have since the beginning of the war given their blood for their country, and come back bearing scars upon their bodies, and in their weak condition, working long hours and in some instances canvassing from house to house in the country districts, seeking recruits to fill the waiting battalions now at Valcartier.
