

always, that in making such search no unnecessary damage or injury shall be done to the property of the person or persons supposed to have possession of the same; And provided also, that it shall not be lawful for any Magistrate or other Justice of the Peace to grant any such warrant upon the mere supposition of any individual, but the affidavit shall in all cases set forth the grounds for believing the property to be in the party's possession, and shall be from facts within the knowledge of the party making the affidavit, and not from hearsay or common report. Proviso.

VII. In estimating the value of any property under the provisions of this Act, it shall be the value of the article in its condition as found upon the premises of the party, whether saw-logs, timber or sawed lumber, and not what would be the value if manufactured or taken to another place or market. How the value of any article shall be estimated.

VIII. All fines to be recovered under the provisions of this Act shall be sued for and levied, collected and applied in the same manner as provided for the suing, levying, collecting and application of fines, under the summary conviction Acts. Proceedings to be under summary conviction Acts.

IX. All Acts or parts of Acts contrary to the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed. Inconsistent enactments repealed.