B-ball boys win first

BY SATISH PUNNA

The Dalhousie Tigers men's basketball team beat the University of Prince Edward Island Panthers by a score of 96 to 86 on Friday. The win, at UPEI, was the Tiger's first in regular AUAA competition this season, giving them a 1 and 4 win/lost record so far. High scorer for the game was Dalhousie's Dean Thibodeau with 32 points and 12 rebounds. Keith Donovan scored 25 points, Paul Riley, 22 points, and Shawn Mantley, 13 points, for the victory.

Thibodeau and Mantley were named to the All-Star team in the January 4th Rod Shovellor Tournament here at Dalhousie, which saw the Tigers play "very, very well" according to coach Bev Greenlaw. In the tournament, Dalhousie made it past very tough competition, only to lose a closely contested final to Saint Mary's University.

The new year may have revitalized the Tigers as their hard work is finally paying off. Expect an exciting game against UNB on Saturday, January 18, here at home.
