Ottawa, September 14, 1906.

Dear Dr. Coulter:

You kindly offered to bring the papers in regard to the street railway postal service between Berlin and other points to Mr. Lemieux's attention on Wednesday. This note is just to remind you, so that in the rush of things at the present time, it may not escape your notice.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. R. M. Coulter, C.M.G.,

Deputy Postmaster General,

Ottawa.
