Ottawa, 20th April, 1915.

Sir:-

With reference to your letter of the 18th instant, I beg to say that the Department does not consider it necessary to furnish relief supplies at the present time to Ben Plotou. If he is in need at any future time, you should lay the facts before the Department.

Your obedient servant,

 Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

G. S. Hoyt Esq.,
 Indian Agent,
 Lequille, N.S.
