

"Resurrection" was not actually delivered as part of the series, but it was written by the Rev. C. A. Row, at the request of the Committee, and has been embodied in the volume as a supplemental Lecture.

A considerable number of the single Lectures have already been circulated: the Committee hope that additional interest will be taken in them now that they are collected into one volume.

A tolerably full "Table of Contents" has been drawn up and prefixed to the volume. The outline of the argument in each lecture may thus be readily seen; and it is hoped that the usefulness of the volume will be hereby increased.

The Committee perhaps ought to add that no censorship has been exercised over the Lectures. Each author is responsible for his own Lecture, and for that alone.

OFFICES, 2, DUKE STREET,
ADELPHI, W.C.,
June, 1873.