

A Hustling District

THE settler coming into this district will find a progressive, get-together district where everyone hustles to promote the welfare of all.

It is a tip-top place for progressive farmers to settle.

Proofs of Progress

Agricultural implement men report sales for the last year at Zealandia the best at any point in South Saskatchewan.

Over 500,000 bushels of wheat were sold in Zealandia from last crop.

In March, 1910, the Zealandia Post Office business was $5000.

In March, 1910, the bank clearings in Zealandia were nearly $100,000.

The Moose Jaw—Lacombe branch of the C.P.R., part of which will be in operation this Fall, will come either in or near Zealandia.

Farmers' Letters

So favorable are conditions for farming that anyone who tries at all succeeds abundantly. Ask any of the the residents of the district, and here is what they say—

On many farms in the district the wheat crop of 1909 equalled the price paid for the Land.
