

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 29a

G. B. Faribault to Neilson. (In French). Sending to him two letters, which Mr. Faribault desires to have re-addressed, when Neilson reaches England. Some commissions, and good wishes for his journey. Quebec, 31st March, 1835.

W. Walker to Neilson. Discussing preparations for their joint visit to England. Montreal, 1st April, 1835.

J. Strang to Hugh Robertson of Gartloch. A letter of introduction in favour of Neilson. Quebec, 2nd April, 1835.

R. P. Ross to S. Neilson. Enclosing letters of introduction for John Neilson, to Mr. Parlam and Mr. Gibb, of Liverpool. Quebec, 2nd April, 1835.

R. H. Gairdner to Neilson. Enclosing the instructions prepared by the Committee of the Constitutional Association of Quebec. Many of the petitions being signed not yet returned. Quebec, 2nd April, 1835.

R. H. Gairdner to Neilson. Enclosing resolutions of a general meeting of the Constitutional Association, nominating Neilson as their agent. Quebec, 3rd April, 1835.

T. A. Stayner—Enclosing copy of petition for increased mail service on the route between Quebec and the Forks of the Kennebec Road; and stating that his reasons for refusing to meet this request were contained in his letter of the 18th March. General Post Office, Quebec, 3rd April, 1835.

Quiblier to Neilson. (In French). Asking his assistance in safeguarding the interests of the Institution. Mr. Larkin will probably go to England, for the same purpose. Séminaire de Montreal, 8th April, 1835.

J. Neilson to R. H. Gairdner, Quebec—(Draft). To sail the following day. Observes from proceedings in Parliament that British Government are sending a High Commissioner to proceed to Canada on the subject of the disputes in the Legislature. This decision may render the visit of the agents to England fruitless, but they will nevertheless sail for England. Asks to be informed of proceedings in Canada, during his absence. New York, 15th April, 1835.

W. L. Stone to Henry Dunn. Introducing Mr. Neilson. New York, 15th April, 1835.

G. W. Long to Henry McFarlane, London. Introducing Mr. Neilson. New York, 15th April, 1835.

Thomas Ryan to Maurice O'Connell M.P. Introducing Neilson. Asks him to obtain an interview for Neilson with Mr. O'Connell's father, who, Ryan thinks, might see reason to modify his views on the Irish Canadians. Quebec, 11th May, 1835.

Draft of a letter to Lord Glenelg, in Neilson's handwriting, informing him of the arrival of the Lower Canadian delegates in London. London, 11th May, 1835.

J. S. Martin, Private Secretary to Lord Glenelg, to J. Neilson and W. C. Walker. Acknowledging their letter, and stating that His Lordship would see them next day. Colonial Office, 11th May, 1835.

Sir George Grey to Neilson. Respecting the passing of the public documents from Lower Canada, without examination. (In a draft letter, Neilson says that to avoid delay he has paid the charges, and obtained the documents, and asks when he may lay them before Lord Glenelg.) Downing St., 13th May, 1835.

Draft of a letter from Neilson, reporting the progress made by himself and Mr. Walker. His first interview with Lord Glenelg, in which he explained the situation in the province. Account of an extraordinary meeting of the North American Colonial Association, at which the chairman Mr. Gillespie was appointed to act with them. London, 14th May, 1835.

Daniel Wilkie to Neilson. Respecting the selection of a minister for St. Andrews Church. Quebec, 15th May, 1835.