CONDITION POWDERS.

Condition powders are dead. Herbageum killed them. The stockman or horseman who uses Herbageum regularly needs no condition powders, and yet in one of our leading farm papers, in the Veterinary Columns, we find the following question: "What is the best condition powder?" and the V. S. in charge recommends the usual V. S. compound, in which antimony, sulphate of iron, etc., take equal parts.

These are drugs that act directly on the system and are, therefore, injurious, and any apparent benefit obtained by their use is not permanent.

Herbageum is intended for regular use, and where it is used regularly condition powders are not needed.

Herbageum contains no antimony, arsenic, copperas, saltpetre, resin, sulphate of iron, or any substance that cannot be safely fed regularly every day, and yet it will put a horse or other animal in condition and the benefit will be permanent.

This is neither guesswork nor vain boasting. It is a fact disputed only by those who have not and will not test the matter. The following letter is a sample of the opinion of those who are not prejudiced:

"I have a horse that, from bad care last fall, became hidebound and generally in a bad condition. I used Herbageum, and after a month's use of it his hide loosened, and now he is in a fine condition again—full of life. I find it beneficial also for my cow, she giving more milk this season than ever before."

Progress

That there is progress in Manitoba and the rest of the West is an intelligent view of the extent of that progress which it is those who are in the West who are in the West.

Though the change is almost imperceptible with a steadiness of observant mind, evolution. Stock more plentiful and ways increasing. Outside, and new well-managed herds for the every-day attention used to and little else, is like stock. In the list of farmers who published. Large but the number of three or four animals be guessed at. The to a farm has a cattle bred and diffusing of new farmer awakens to introducing pedigree the matter of buying he recognizes that which it behooves the better care he it bring him. He which his neighborally, strives to admiration by improvement. The result is that and better cared for good for the pure for the grades, with the double influence attention bearing does the matter on the improvement of regarding what "scrubs" as necessary for producing milk and their animals manufactured into this may be regarded it is not so. Study and observation in Manitoba are recognizing land at a high state of live stock on it, best condition. It only in its poverty that with profit is them well.

Grain shippers action of the Canadian rates as unwise as it must not be for as usual, considering order that the usual way, they have increased to reduce the carrying. This has been a increased amount of going to the seaboard St. Lawrence route.
