

Excellency will be pleased to recommend Mr. Cambridge, to His Majesty's Ministers, as an Object deserving His Majesty's Gracious consideration for a Reduction of the Quit-Rents on Lots or Townships, 63 and 64 and that in respect to the arrears the said Lots may be placed in the first Class according to the scale of Composition.

" ROBERT HODGSON, Speaker:

" Assembly Room, December 18, 1806."

The Bill entitled "An Act for continuing Sundry Laws that are near expiring," having received a third reading was passed and sent up to His Majesty's Council for their concurrence, and after a short time returned with proposed amendments.

On Motion, Ordered, That the House do take the said Bill with the proposed amendments into consideration.

Ordered, That the same with such amendments as have been agreed to be sent up to His Majesty's Council.

The Committee appointed to wait on His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor respecting the Petition of Mr. James Robertson, reported, That His Excellency was pleased to say he would duly attend to the same.

The Committee appointed to wait on His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying he would conjointly with the President of the Council, and the Speaker of the House of Assembly appoint a Colony Agent, Report, That His Excellency will comply with their wish: and also, with the request of the House, signified yesterday by their Committee for making a representation to His Majesty's Ministers, and soliciting a sufficient Force to be sent to this Island.

A Message from His Majesty's Council with the Bill, entitled "An Act for continuing sundry Laws that are near expiring," informing this House, That they had adhered to their former amendments.

On Motion, That the same be rejected, was carried unanimously.

The House took into consideration the services of the following persons, and allowed as follows, viz.

|                                                                         |             |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| To the Revd. THEO. DESBRISAY, Chaplain.                                 | £10: 00: 00 |
| To JAMES ROBERTSON, Clerk                                               | 26: 12: 07  |
| To THOMAS ALEXANDER, Serjeant at Arms, for attendance and disbursements | 10: 14: 00  |
| To GEORGE MAYBE, Messenger, for attendance and disbursements            | 5: 11: 9    |

The Committee appointed to wait upon the Lieutenant Governor with the Address of this House, respecting the Petition of Mr. John Cambridge, Reported, That His Excellency was pleased to say he would comply with their desire.

A Message from His Majesty's Council by their President, requesting this House to wait on the Lieutenant Governor in the Council Cham-