FRENCH OFFICIAL

By Special Wire to the Courier. Paris, Oct. 4, 2.28 p.m.—French troops have continued to make progress to the north of Arras, according to the announcement given out by the French War Office this afternoon.

There has been almost continuous fighting between the trenches accompanied by artillery exchanges, in the vicinity of Nouvron and Quenneviers.

There has also been artillery fighting in the Champagne district. A squadron of French aeroplanes has thrown down some forty shells of heavy calibre on the railroad station at Metzle.

The text of the communication follows: "We have continued to make progress to the north of Arras in the forest of Givenchy and Hill No. 119. Here we occupied the cross roads of five highways.

"There has been almost continuous fighting with hand grenades and bombs accompanied by artillery fighting from each side, in the vicinity of Quenneviers and of Nouvron.

"In the Champagne district there has been artillery fighting in the vicinity of Metzle. Yesterday evening two counter-attacks on the part of the enemy to the north of Meziil were repulsed. The night passed quietly on the remainder of the front.

"One of our air squadrons had thrown down on the Sablonis railroad station at Metz no fewer than forty shells of heavy calibre. Other French aeroplanes have continued to bombard the enemy from the air of the railroad lines, junction points, and railroad stations behind the German front."

Golf Notes

Mr. Charles Sheppard won the October cup, presented by Mr. W. B. Preston, Saturday afternoon, with a respectable score of 80. Mr. W. F. Paterson and Mr. A. S. Towers tied for second place, with 85.

The following players qualified to play off (match play) for the Webby medal, and are drawn as follows: N. D. Neill and Schell; Fitton and Sheppard; Towers and Martin.

A team of about twenty players will motor to Galt on Thursday, weather permitting, to play the return match with the Galt and Waterloo Country Club.

An interesting situation is developing in the Cookstown district in connection with the scutching of flax. The workmen are becoming scarce, as the remuneration, which is all "piece work," is no more now than fifty years ago, and young men will not learn the trade in consequence. A couple of years ago the scutchers attempted to improve their position and held meetings for this purpose, but for lack of combination they were unsuccessful. The high price of flax last winter and the increased acreage this year has led to a renewal of the movement. This time the initiative has been taken by the mill-owners, who are all farmers, with water-power on their farms, and employing the families of scutchers on the land, as well as providing laborers' cottages as a rule. At present the men who were inadequately paid, and added their own grievances in having to pay what is popularly known as "the two insurances"—the contribution to the National Health Insurance, and the insurance which is invariably taken to cover the liability under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Which describes his personality, Gentleman; scholar; sport; popularity despising, but popular in spite of it; such is Warwick.

He's just as nice off the screen as on it. Married? He can pick and choose. Cleared for his mail is crowded with letters from adoring admirers of the other sex. But Warwick knows his own mind and nobody else does. He loves his work and doesn't shrink at the sight of the part of the convict who wanted to reform. EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "Fruit Laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, mother! A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a fifty cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the wrapper. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

The mail train from Ennis, Ireland, the other night, while travelling between Ennis and Castleblayney, was about four miles from Ennis, ran into a number of cattle on the permanent way with the result that three bullocks were killed. The train went on to Ennis, and it was then found that the guard's van at the rear was missing. The train was steamed back the line for about a mile, when the van was found on the rails still in charge of the crew.

ROBERT WARWICK

In "The Man Who Found Himself." Music was the first art which attracted Robert Warwick. He studied singing in Europe, but his voice "went back" on him and he turned to the stage and made a success under David Belasco and other great impresarios.

Robert Warwick is a product of the West and dared much when he went East to make good on the New York Stage. This is one of his characteristics; determination. It has carried him through many hazardous enterprises. For "Bob" as he is known to his few intimates, is a man of many parts and activities.

When the World Film offered him the position of star, and the play selected for his film debut was George Broadhurst's "Man of the Hour" with which William A. Brady had made a striking success, Robert Warwick's life chance had come. Under Maurice Tourneur's mastery direction, Mr. Warwick gave a delineation of the leading role which instantly established him as the best graded actor on the motion picture screen, certainly in the United States, probably in the World.

In "The Dollar Mark," Warwick has to evince some strenuous athleticism: He risked his life in the bursting of a mill dam. For the famous picture "Alias Jimmy Valentine" he went and lived at Sing Sing in order to get into the skin of the part of the convict who wanted to reform. The same is true with "The Man Who Found Himself" the photoplay which he has assumed next.

A sincere, humor, more polished actor you cannot see on the screen: "Matinee idol" don't describe Warwick; he's a man and a mighty good one, at that.

CANADIANS HELPED IN GREAT BATTLE

Report from Sir Max Aitken Shows Canadian Artillery Active.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Major-General Sir Sam Hughes to-day received the following cable from Sir Max Aitken, general representative of the Minister of Militia in France.

"Canadian headquarters in France, October 3.—During the latter part of the period, September 20-30, a combined British and French offensive has been steadily developing. Fierce fighting has taken place at various points along the allied line in weather alternating brilliant sunshine and torrential rains.

"Progress has been made on our front. Hostile fire has been somewhat heavier than usual, and the enemy's artillery has been more aggressive, but with little net results. The enemy's aeroplanes and snipers have been particularly active."

"On the morning of Saturday, September 25, a demonstration was carried out by our divisions. The German trenches were heavily manned, and our artillery, machine gun and rifle fire are believed to have caused numerous casualties. The enemy's official communique stated that an attack had been made by us and had been repulsed with heavy loss. This, of course, is false.

"Reports indicate considerable movement of troops in the rear of the enemy's lines opposite our front. Our working parties have repaired the slight damage to our wire and parapets caused by the enemy's shell fire, and have been continuously employed improving our lines. Our patrols continue to be very active at night.

"Major H. H. Matthews has assumed command of the 8th Infantry Battalion."
