Demby, D. B. Master; Rev. W. Moore, D. Chaplin; A. Moulton, D. Rec. Sec., J. Bryant, D. Fin Sec. W. Hollister, D. Treasurer: Don't stop my paper, printer. Don't strike my name off, yet; You know the times are stringent. And the dollars hard to get; But I will save the money. That's what I mean to do. And scrape the cents together, Enough for me and you.

Enough for me and you. I can't afford to stop it; I find it doesn't pay To do without a paper. However others may. I hate to ask my neighbors To give me their's on loan; They don't just say, but mean it. "Why don't you have your own."

You can't tell how we miss it, If it, by any fate, Should happen not to reach us, Or come a little late; Then all is in a hubbub, And, printer, if you're, amarried You know the reason why.

You know the reason why. I cannot do without it, It is no use to try, For other people takes it. It soo, must keep me posted. And know what's going on. Or feel, and he accounted A foggy simpleton. Then, take it kindly, printer, If pay he somewhat slow For cash is not so plenty. And wants not few, you know. But I must have your paper, It brings the news to me I'd rather dock my sugar, And take less in my tes. And take iess in my text. So, printer, don't you stop it. Unless you want my frown For here's the year's subscrip And oredit it right down, And regularly on, And regularly on, And let it bring us weekly Its welcomed benison.
