

13,000 WORD QUERY FOR MEDICAL MEN.

Senator Brown Declared That His Wife Had Been a Curse to Him.

Washington, Nov. 25.—The trial of Mrs. Bradley was resumed to-day at 10.10 a. m. Albert A. Barnes, Assistant Attorney-General of Utah, who was on the stand yesterday for the defense, continued his testimony. Judge Powers, counsel for Mrs. Bradley, stated soon after the trial commenced that the expert testimony probably would not be begun until Monday. The hypothetical question that will be propounded to the medical men has been completed. It embraces 13,000 words. It is expected that the examination of all the other witnesses for the defense will be concluded to-day, and that an adjournment will then be taken until Monday.

Barnes said he had told Mrs. Bradley, after a conversation with Senator Brown, that it was his opinion that Brown did not intend to marry her. Mrs. Bradley was much agitated and depressed.

Judge H. P. Henderson, formerly law partner of Senator Brown, testified to several interviews with Mrs. Bradley, in one of which he had warned her to stay away from his office. He also told of an effort by both Mrs. Bradley and Mr. Brown to get the Senator sign a statement in order that a divorce might be procured.

Judge Henderson, referring to the relations between Senator Brown and his wife, declared that Brown had said to his wife, in the presence of himself and Mrs. Bradley, that Mrs. Brown had been a curse to him, and that he would not resume relations with her.

Judge Henderson also testified that Mrs. Bradley had said to him she would be blamed for everything that Mrs. Brown would do. She declared that she trusted Brown just as the whole people of Utah had done, while giving him the highest office he had.

Access at 12.30 o'clock was taken, with Lyman H. Shrewsbury, an uncle of Mrs. Bradley, on the stand. His testimony showed insanity in Mrs. Bradley's family.

HENDRY IS BLAMED.

DEAD ENGINEER CAUSED THE MOORLAKE COLLISION.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury at Pembroke—No. 8 Was Running on Schedule Time and Had the Right of Way—C. P. R. Settling Claims.

A Pembroke despatch: To-night at the Town Hall Crown Attorney Metcalf and Coroner Josephs opened an inquest into the death of one of the victims of the Moorlake tragedy on the C. P. R. a few days ago, by which seven lives were lost.

Conductor Wright, of Ottawa, who has been through six wrecks, had escaped injury in every case, gave evidence relative to the running of his train, the "Soo" passenger, that had the right of way. He said that the rules had been rigidly observed by himself and the train crew, and said: "I had the right to run on schedule time, and was doing it. We were on regular time, had the right to go ahead, and inferior trains had the right to look out for us. I cannot recall anything about the accident, but there was no evasion of regulations on our part."

The passenger train brakeman, Kent, of Ottawa, who went into the seething cauldron of fire the baggage car presented to try and rescue Irvine, the dead Ottawa baggage man, was heard, and corroborated what Wright had said. He, W. C. Newman, a North Bay despatcher, and Clifford Pierce, the operator at Chalk River, went into details as to how the "Soo" train had the right of way.

The Crown Attorney, to Newman—I have heard and understood there is a feeling on the part of the company against trainmen who are late, those who report themselves running late often, and that as a result there is a sort of code among the men to take chances, squeeze through and make up for lost time. What about that?"

"I never heard of it," said Newman.

The jurors were only out fifteen minutes, and rendered the following verdict, which apparently places the responsibility on Hendry, the engineer who was in charge of the light engine:

"That John Sadleir's death was due to the recklessness of Engineer Hendry in running past Bass Lake siding, and trying to make Moorlake siding, thereby running on the time of No. 8 in collision with and meeting No. 8 in the passenger one and three-quarter miles east of Moorlake station."

It was learned here to-night that C. P. R. had settled practically all the claims for damages for baggage, most of those for injuries, which were for small amounts, and that the death claims are also likely to be settled without litigation.

According to the statute, any officials of the company killed would be entitled to an amount equivalent to three years' pay.

NOT MURDERED.

Sensation Exploded, and Arrested Man Threatens Legal Action.

Calgary, Alta., Nov. 25.—The great mystery surrounding the disappearance of Jacob Schneider, the Crossfield farmer, has been cleared up, and Leonard Schan, the man held in custody six days on suspicion, has been liberated. It transpires that the murder theories were all so much nonsense. Schneider has gone to his old home in North Dakota to get married.

Schan was arrested because he was the last man seen in Schneider's company. He is now threatening all sorts of legal action.

IRISH ATTACK HUNTERS.

Mob Beat Dogs With Sticks and Scatter Horses in All Directions.

Delbin, Nov. 25.—A violent scene took place in Boreas, county Tipperary, yesterday. When the Ormond Hunt attempted to hold its meeting, arranged for that place, the United Irish League from Shinrose turned up in force and demanded that Messrs. Kenny should be prevented from following the hunt. This was refused, and Mr. Craddock, the master, made for the nearest covert.

The crowd lost its temper and the horses were beaten with sticks and the dogs were scattered in all directions. The hunt followers proceeded to Madresay, the residence of Mr. George Whitefield, where they took refuge.

The mob followed, and matters looked threatening for a time, but there was no further violence.

GET-AWAY DAY.

RUSH OF FOREIGN LABORERS FOR EUROPE.

The Steamship Companies Unable to Accommodate the Crowds That Want to Go—The Money Stringency Driving Them Home.

New York, Nov. 22.—The exodus of foreign laborers returning to Europe owing to the shutting down of industries since the financial stringency has reached such proportion that the steamship companies are hard pressed to furnish accommodation for them. Hundreds of foreigners have been obliged to wait until next week because berths could not be found for them. This week all the big trans-Atlantic lines raised the steerage rate from $21 to $32, but still the demand for tickets has increased.

A representative of the Hamburg-American line said that from New York alone the number of foreigners departing weekly was 25,000, and that $5,000 was being taken away weekly by these returning immigrants either in cash or in drafts on foreign countries.

Outgoing steamers are carrying thousands of steerage passengers, and the President Grant, which will sail for Hamburg next Wednesday, will have largely Russian, Polish and Hungarians. The Pennsylvania, Erie, Lehigh, B. & O., and New Jersey Central roads are using special trains to bring the homegoers to this port.

DEAD IN HIS HUT.

BODY OF EDWARD GEEN FOUND IN MIDST OF FILTH AND DIRT.

Rodents Were at Remains When Discovery Was Made by Neighbors—Old Man Preferred to Live Alone—House Showed Lack of Care.

An Aylmer despatch: In a room strewn with decaying vegetables and other filth, Edwin Geen, an old man, who had lived alone, was found dead by neighbors. The old man lived in the township of Malahide in a little shack and when discovered the body had been gnawed by rodents. The remains were brought here to Mr. W. Young's undertaking rooms, pending the investigation by Coroner Sinclair. The man was one of the most eccentric characters in this section, having always repelled any offers of assistance or advice from neighbors.

He owned about eighty acres of land and did all the work himself by all the old-fashioned methods. His horse, which he used on the premises, had the appearance of being none too well fed. His manner of living was repulsive to the neighbors. He had a small pantry strewn with straw, where he crawled in at nights with his clothes on.

The condition of his home cannot be attributed to poverty, for there is still a lot of valuable timber standing on the property. The old man was married three times, and leaves a son in British Columbia and a daughter near Vienna, Ont.

DESTROYED CZAR'S PICNUPE.

Three Men Shot for This Terrible Crime at Odessa.

Odessa, Nov. 25.—The trial by a special military court of twenty-seven men of the 11th Nicholas I. Regiment, on charges of mutiny and insubordination, came to an end yesterday.

Two sergeants and one private, who had destroyed a picture of Emperor Nicholas, were sentenced to death and at once shot; nine other men were sent to the mines for life, twelve were sent to the mines for ten years, and the others were acquitted.

CARRIED OFF CHILD.

A Peculiar Case of Kidnaping at Lindsay.

A Lindsay despatch: This morning about 11 o'clock a well-dressed woman drove up in a hack to one of the ward Public Schools, and enquired for Dorothy Marion. After a short time the child appeared, and was accosted by the woman, who declared she was the child's mother. After a good deal of persuasion the child got into the cab and was driven rapidly to the G.

AN EX-HANGMAN.

BERRY, AN EX-HANGMAN, OFFERS DEATH PENALTY.

Former Common Hangman of England Has a Scheme of Prison Reform instead of Capital Punishment—Thinks He Hanged Jack the Ripper—Madness on Scaffold.

On learning this, Mrs. Marion, who had adopted the child, started for Peterboro' on the 8.05 train, and the chief of police at Peterboro' was instructed to arrest the woman and the child should they wait over at that station to catch the midnight train for Montreal. The affair has caused great excitement in town, and the denouement is awaited with interest.

KEPT QUIET.

English Actress' Statement in Gould Case is Taken.

New York, Nov. 25.—Helen Mer, an English actress, appeared before Referee McClure to-day to give testimony in the suit for separation instituted by Mrs. Catharine Clemmons Gould against her husband, Howard Gould. Miss Mer's appearance was the result of a decision rendered by Justice O'Gorman in the Supreme Court a few days ago that her testimony be taken before the actual opening of the trial as she is about to sail for England. It is alleged by Mr. Gould in an affidavit which has been filed in court, that he believes Mrs. Gould made Miss Mer her confidant concerning her relations prior to her marriage to Mr. Gould with Colonel W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill). The affidavit further declares that Mr. Gould believes that these relations were meretricious, although he says Miss Clemmons, before her marriage, assured him they were purely of a business nature. Miss Mer's testimony was given behind closed doors in the presence of the referee and counsel for both sides.

TRIBUTE TO STRATTON.

Canadians Present Him With Handsome Piece of Silver.

London, Nov. 25.—Canadians and persons connected with Canada resident in England to-day presented Lord Stratthorn with a handsome piece of silver symbolical of his connection with Canada. The Duke of Argyll, who was accompanied by Princess Louise, made the presentation with warm words of eulogy. Lord Stratthorn, replying, declared the opinion that his greatest service to Canada was in connection with the Riel rebellion. Referring to the high commissionership, he said he hoped the time would soon come when he would hand it over to another and perhaps able hands. Still, there was one thing remaining, which he would like to see accomplished—the establishment of the all-red route. Mr. Clifford Sifton hoped to work out a method whereby this could be carried out. They should not rest content until the project was consummated.

A distinguished gathering was present at the presentation.

MONTREAL MEN ASPHYXIATED.

Smothered by Gas as they Slept in Room in New York.

Montreal despatch: Two old Montreal boys, Walter Stewart Leishman and Arthur Alexander Leishman, were accidentally killed by gas suffocation at New York of Monday last. The two brothers had lived in New York for the past seven years and boarded together at West Twenty-third street. They had a small gas stove in their room and had evidently been using it on Sunday night before going to bed. The two Leishmans were brought back to Montreal yesterday morning, and were buried in the afternoon. They were sons of the late James Leishman, who twenty years ago was a well-known Montreal business man, and were connected in Montreal and Toronto, amongst their brothers being John H. and William H. Leishman, of Toronto, both of whom attended the funeral.

WILL HAVE GOWNED CHOIR.

First Presbyterian Church in Toronto to Introduce Innovation.

Toronto, Nov. 25.—The first Presbyterian church in Toronto to introduce a gowned choir will be St. Andrew's, King street. When the edifice re-opens, the first Sunday in December, the choir, which will render music, will be stationed in the chancel, and all will wear uniform gowns, their heads will be worn black velvet caps designed especially for their use, instead of the academic cap generally seen in churches. This departure is said to meet with favor by the church people as being a simple and dignified method of the varied display of military sense on the young ladies.

Other Presbyterian churches in the Dominion to introduce the gowned choir are St. Andrew's, Kingston, St. Andrew's, Ottawa, and St. Paul's, Montreal.

TO AVOID COLLISIONS.

Railway Engineers Will Be Required to Meet at Specific Points.

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—As a result of the investigation into the recent railway wreck at Moorlake, the Board of Railway Commissioners will probably issue an order requiring the railway companies to alter the present custom of allowing engineers in charge of locomotives running light to dodge from station to station, merely according to general orders, and to observe time sheets of regular trains. There have been at least two fatal collisions during the past two months on the Ottawa line, and the commissioners are of opinion that more stringent rules should be adopted.

It is likely that the railway companies will be ordered to require light engines to stop for specific orders at stations, in the same manner as regular trains are now required to do.

BABY ROASTS AS SHE CHATS.

Mother Shocked on Returning to Find Newborn Home No Child.

Altoona, Pa., Nov. 25.—While Mrs. Andy McAteer was chatting with a neighboring woman on her way to the town pump in the mining village of Baugherty's Mines, near here to-day, her little 18-month-old daughter was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the McAteer home.

The woman had left the infant in the cradle while she went after the day's water supply, a half-mile distant, and during her absence fire started from an unknown cause. Before assistance arrived the home was burned to the ground and the baby burned to a crisp.

PLUCKY POLICEMAN.

Murderer Tries Suicide in Buffalo Police Station Cell.

Buffalo, Nov. 25.—After having murdered a man and fought with a policeman to obtain liberty, Louis Gambacciaro, No. 112 Main street, tried to brain himself in a cell at the Pearl street station late yesterday afternoon. He was beating his head against the bars when discovered by Patrolman O'Grady, who was acting as turnkey, and in consequence of the act a constant watch is being had upon him.

Patrolman Conroy found the man almost unconscious and bleeding from the face. He had taken a shoe string and had wound it tightly around his neck in another effort at self-destruction. A doorway was placed at the door of the man's cell for an all-night vigil to prevent any further attempt on his life.

In the morning Patrolman John W. Casey, of the 11th police squad, in the hero of the Buffalo police department. He holds the man on the stage—for yesterday he captured a murderer, the first good catch that has been made by the police during the week. Gambacciaro has existed during the last few weeks.

As the Ritter Boiler Works in Mary street, near Indiana street, Gambacciaro climbed into the manhole of a marine boiler and tried to conceal himself. Casey was less than a hundred feet behind and crawled in also. Gambacciaro and the two struggled inside the boiler. Casey claims the man tried to strangle him and tried to get away. Gambacciaro was almost blue in the face when dragged him out.

INVADING HILLS COUNTRY.

C. P. R. Has Surveyors at Work in Washington State.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 25.—It was announced to-day that the Canadian Pacific Railway has large parties of surveyors in the field locating two lines for the invasion of territory now controlled by the Hill roads. One proposed line is from Spokane through Yakima Valley, across the Cascade mountains to Tacoma and Seattle. The other is a connecting north and south line from Sumas on the international boundary to Seattle and Tacoma. An important conference regarding extensions in this State was held yesterday at Winnipeg, between President Shaughnessy, President of the Canadian Pacific, and D. C. Corbin, of Spokane, President of the Spokane & International, which brings the Canadian Pacific into Spokane. Surveyors now have a coast line permanently located to Deming, forty miles south of Sumas.

President Shaughnessy has a deep opinion of two hundred acres of Tacoma ocean water terminals adjoining those of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. He is expected here within thirty days to exercise his option and meet the Chamber of Commerce. The Canadian Pacific now enters Tacoma and Seattle under trackage arrangements with the Northern Pacific, which expire next month.

SENT TO ASYLUM.

Mrs. Thomas, Who Cut Throats of Her Children Pronounced Insane.

Canandaigua, Nov. 25.—Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, of the town of Manchester, was declared insane by a jury of twelve, killing her four-months-old babe and seriously injuring her five-year-old daughter, Martha, was sent to Willard State Hospital for the insane this afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas was given a hearing before Coroner D. A. Eiselein, of Shortsville. She was exonerated of murder by Coroner Eiselein, whose finding is that she committed the deed while violently insane.

When questioned, Mrs. Thomas, who is a young woman of about 29 years of age, declared that she cannot remember anything about the awful tragedy. She does not know when, where or how she cut the throats of her two little ones. The relatives say she has been mentally unbalanced for some days, but had shown no symptoms of violence, and had not been closely watched.

SURROUNDED BY WOLVES.

G. Moren, a Fur Trader, Had an Eventful Trip Down.

Edmonton, Nov. 25.—G. Moren, an independent trader from Lesser Slave Lake, has arrived in the city with a pack of furs. His trip down was an eventful one.

"I came down all alone," he said, "and made the whole journey in a wagon over the new Government road. I followed the north side of the river all the way, and the second day noticed signs of wolves. On a narrow trail I heard them, and immediately built a great fire to keep them away. It was only a short while till I heard their growls and from the restlessness of my horse, knew they were near at hand. The horse I had tied with a strong piece of rope, but it was not strong enough to hold the animal, for he snapped it as if it were a shooting, and immediately I saw that I did not secure him. I would be minus a horse, so I put a chain around his neck and chained him to a tree."

"Sitting within the freight and gazing around in the bushes, I counted nine different pairs of eyes that glowed like jewels, as there must have been nearly a dozen wolves. The scarcity of small game this summer has made them ravenous and they are very brave."

SHOT SWELLS HIS BODY UP.

Man's Size Almost Doubled by Being Riddled With Lead.

Bangor, Pa., Nov. 25.—With his right leg riddled with shot, some of which penetrated a distance of five inches into the flesh, Ed. Stone, a 19-year-old farm-hand employed by Floyd Ott, of Richmond, near here, lies at the point of death, and his body is swollen to twice its normal size.

Stone was accidentally shot by his fellow-farmhand, Elmer O. Butz, of Bangor, while the latter was walking through the fields but eight feet away.

SINGER'S VANITY SAVES PASTOR.

Delays Service Just Long Enough to Escape Fall of Plaster.

Vineland, N. J., Nov. 25.—Because a choir girl stopped to adjust her curls and take one last look in the mirror the life of Rev. Father Thomas Rudden, of the Sacred Heart Church, was saved. The girl was late for service, and the priest delayed appearing at the altar a few minutes after the appointed time.

During those few minutes the plastering over the altar came down with a crash, started the audience and filled the house with dust and confusion. A piece of plaster sufficient to kill a man instantly fell where Father Rudden would undoubtedly have been standing had the services begun on time.

SIXTY DOGS BURNED.

Brookside Kennels at Rye, N. Y., Destroyed by Fire.

Rye, N. Y., Nov. 25.—The Brookside Kennels, owned by George Greer, were destroyed by fire early to-day at a loss of over $25,000. Of the hundred valuable dogs in the kennel, sixty, mostly prize-winners, were burned to death, and many others will die. Among those killed were the world's champion cocker spaniel, Fritz and Brookside, valued at $1,300 each.

QUEBEC DISASTER.

Phoenix Company Officials Throw Responsibility on Engineer.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 25.—The collapse of the great cantilever bridge over the St. Lawrence River at Quebec on Aug. 29, with the incidental heavy loss of life, was put squarely due to modifications in the original design of the bridge made by the consulting engineer, Theodore Cooper, in the testimony of the principal officers and engineers of the Phoenix Bridge Company, made public here to-day by the Canadian Royal Commission, after four weeks of careful examination of the records and works of the Phoenixville Company. In effect their testimony was unanimous that the fall of the bridge could be directly traced to changes in the original plan made by Mr. Cooper, who, a short time before the actual construction began, changed the length of the principal span from 1,600 to 1,800 feet without making adequate changes in the supports to the main span to compensate for the increased length.

NEARLY THOUSAND GUESTS ENTERTAINED BY DUKE OF PORTLAND.

London, Nov. 25.—Nearly a thousand guests occupied the Duke of Portland's underground ballroom to-night at the ball given in honor of the King and Queen of Spain.

The room, which is 150 feet long and 60 feet wide, was gorgeously decorated with flowers and the Spanish colors. Dancing began at 10 o'clock. The costumes and uniforms blazed under the light of thousands of electric lamps. The mile-long tunnel carriageway, extending from the town of Worksop, was not used. It is supposed that this was due to the extreme precautions taken for the safety of King Alfonso.

EMIGRANTS WARNED.

Men of Family Without Trade Advised to Avoid Canada.

London, Nov. 25.—The Emigrants' Information Office has issued to emigration organizations a memorandum wherein it is stated that emigration to Canada of the man with no particular trade and a wife and small children should be discouraged in the highest degree. The Times questions the wisdom of the advice, and thinks no high Canadian official would thank the Emigration Office as arrangements are easily made in the Dominion for such.

FISHERY STEAMER LOST.

The Query Missing With Eighty-four on Board.

Dunkirk, Nov. 25.—A telegram states that it is feared in Newfoundland that the fishing steamer Query, with the schooner belonging to her, has been lost with all hands and seventy passengers with which she left St. Pierre and Miquelon on Oct. 14. A torpedo boat has been sent from Brest in an attempt to find her.
