It has continued to improve until now I can work at almost all kinds of house-work. I had scarcely any appetite, but it is all right now. Have gained several pounds in weight. I would advise all who suffer from chronic diseases to write to Dr. Pierce."

The Lyceum Course to-night, by which Mr. J. Williams Macy gives program of humor, song and story

The Boston Lyric Grand English Opera Company Saturday evening, March 22nd, under the direction of Col. Wm. A. Thompson, is the largest and most complete English Lyric organization in the country, numbering nearly 50 people, artists and chorus. The tour will embrace all the large cities and many towns where English Opera, on a grand scale is seldom if ever given.

Canadians are decidedly a musical people, and it is the intention of the management to give the public thoroughly good, Grand Opera at popular prices, thus encouraging not only young beginners, but satisfying all lovers of this fascinating style

Grand Opera as sung by the Boston Lyric Opera Company, is a novelty to most people and promises a treat to all. In the company, which it is said numbers nearly 50, is what is known as a double set of principals, together with a large and strong singing chorus.

The opera will be given in its entirety, the company carrying its own ccessories. This is the first season in Canada of the Boston Lyric Opera Company, and its success is said to have been remarkable. Mr. John H. Garrison, the business manager of the organization, was in town last week, and in conversation, said that with his experience of over 20 years in the Grand Opera field he has never seen such enthusiastic andiences for any such enthusiastic audiences for any musical organization as witnessed during the past few weeks in the leading cities of the United States and Canada. WARNING GIVEN

"I wish you would make a note in your paper," said Arthur Green, caretaker of Victoria Park, to The Planet this morning, "that I intend to pro-secute the next person I find driv-ing on the race course in the park, in muddy weather.

"A man came in there the other day when the gates were closed, and the track was muddy, and drove around two or three times, cutting up the course and leaving it in a terrible condition. I mean to have come in from the country. Some of these young farmers who come in, think they can do almost anything because they are not known, but as soon as I find out who these men are,

I will promptly prosecute them. HIS GOOD LOOKS

It is so long since Chief of Police Hoimes were black clothes that he doesn't feel comfortable in his new uniform. He is wearing the regulation blue pants and vest and his civil-ian's coat. "You didn't go to Sarnia yesterday in that attire?" queried Judge Hous-ton this morning in rather a condemnatory tone.

"You can just bet I did," replied the new head of the Chatham force.

"Why, you will disgrace the Chat-ham force," responded the Judge with "Well, I looked a great deal better than most of those I saw while I was away," was the good-natured response of the big chief.

Just fits the hand.
