Ms. EDITOR:—Permit me to mention through your paper the way the parish efficers have been appointed in Sackville for 20 years past. The important ones, such as overseers of the poor, commissioners of highways, revisors and assessors, 12 in all each year, for 20 years—240 in all—and a little ring of 15 have filled these shifting about to suit their purposes. There are large numbers of Bowsers, of Dixons, of Bulmers, of Estabrooks, of Tingleys, of Wards, of Wrys, of Thompson, of Georges, and many others. You never see them in an office, unless it is hogreeve. These men are capable of filling the best offices as well, or better than the little ring who have filled them, and it is time they had a turn. They will not take 15 cays of statute labor and put them in a barn-yard as has been done when the roads were suffering for repairs.
