A Revelation

The colossal size of our UNDERWEAR and GLOVE STOCKS are a revelation to every man who comes to either of our two stores, and no store in CANADA ever took so much trouble to have only what is good and worth.

There isn't a suggestion of extravagance in any of our prices, yet we always sell only reliable goods.

See our window! Compare our goods! Compare our prices! UNDERWEAR—49 different quantities, 50c to $2.
GLOVES—Dent's silk lined or superior walking; regular $1.25 for $1. COPS—1,200 purchase, fur bands, $1.60 for 75c.
Sweaters—a large purchase, a manufacturer's stock, made to sell at $2.25 and $2.50, for $1.75.

Auction Sale of Valuable Central Commodious Brick Cottage with Large Lot

Under power of sale contained in a certain mortgage, which will be produced at the time of sale, there will be sold by public auction by John Hunt, auctioneer, at his auction room, No. 63 James street south, in the City of Hamilton, on Saturday, the eleventh day of January, 1908, at twelve o'clock noon, the west half of lot No. 2, in block No. 7, between James, Ferris, MacNab and Pictou streets, in Sir Allan MacNab's survey of lots in the said city.

On this property, which has a frontage of sixty feet on the north side of Ferris street, just west of James street, there is erected a large brick cottage with a frame addition known as No. 10 Ferris street west.

Terms of sale.—10% of the purchase money is to be paid to the vendor's solicitor on the day of sale, sufficient to make up one-half thereof in ten days thereafter and the balance may remain on mortgage at 6% per annum or be paid in cash at the purchaser's option.

The property will be sold subject to a reserve bid and the existing monthly tenancies. For further particulars and conditions of sale apply to
