laid Good-Bye to Canadian Friends This Morning.

Will Remain at Eagle Bay, His Summer Home, Some Days.

Vanceboro, Me., Sept. 23 .- Maine made its welcome to her foster son, Commander Robt. E. Peary, to-day, and all along the route of his journey through the State friendly greetings of the people was a pleasing recognition of his achievement in finding the north pole. Commander Peary and his family expected late to-day at Portland, where they, will probably remain overnight and go to their home at Eagle Bay the

The Peary party passed through St. John, N. B., early to-day and in the few minutes between trains several people gathered about the explorer and congratulated him upon his success. The commander said he did not know what the plans are for his reception at Bangor. It is understood that while he is relad to meet the people he desires to the plans are for his reception at Bangor. It is understood that while he is glad to meet the people he desires to refrain from making any speeches.

Commander Peary is keeping his own counsel with regard to the information he has obtained on the main question, "Has Cook found the pole?" but intimations are not wanting to-day that the time is near at hand when this will be made known. The explorer will probably remain at Eagle Bay several days, and during that time will assemble the records he has made on the trip to the pole, and, at the same time, keep himself advised of the developments in the Cook controversy.

600D-BYE TO CANADA.

St. John, N. B., Sept. 23.—Commander Robert E. Peary, accompanied by his family and a small army of newspaper correspondents, arrived here at 6.35 a. m. to-day from Sydney, N. S. Fifteen minutes later the party left on he Provincial express for Portland, sine, from which point Commander Commander to the sydney of Caree of Portland, alayer at the wouth of Caree of Portland, alayer at the worth of Caree of Portland, alayer at the province of Portland, alayer at the portland of Portland on Eagle Island, at the mouth of Canso on Eagle Island, at the mouth of Canso Bay.

The brief quarter hour that the explorer remained in St. John was spent in granting interviews to the local newspaper men and in hastily glancing at the morning papers. Commander Peary, at the request of the newspaper men, posed on the rear platform of the train for his picture, while several amateur thotographers took advantage of the opportunity for some snapshots. Owing to the early hour, but a small crowd was at the station to greet the explorer and his wife.

DUCKING FOR HENSON. Sydney, N. S., Sept. 23.—Shortly be-fore the Roosevelt pulled out Matthew Henson, Commander Peary's colored bodyguard, leaned over the side of the bodyguard, leaned over the side of the Roosevelt to shake hands in farewell with Chief Engineer Swicker, of the Tyrian, who was standing on the deck of a launch. Swicker has a grip like a vice and held fast to Henson's hand as the Roosevelt swung away. Henson could not release his hold, and he was drawn over the side of the Roosevelt and fell into the water. He was promptly fished out, however, by Swicker, and half an hour later the Roosevelt was out of sight.

GOV. JOHNSON'S FUNERAL.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 23.—To the accompaniment of tolling bells and in keeping with the dignity of the office he once filled as Governor of Minnesota, the body of John A. Johnson was escorted from the rotunda of the State Capitol to-day with military pomp to the train which was to carry it to St. Peter, Minn., and its last resting piace. While the procession was passing through the streets business was practically suspended.

BARTON PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The harvest home supper of Barton Presbyterian Church, which was held at the home of Mr. S. Hannon, Glanford, was a complete success. The warm clear evening brought out a large crowd who thoroughly enjoyed themselves. An excellent supper was served in a large drive shed which was beautifully and appropriately decorated with fruits, grains and vegetables. Rev. Mr. Harris, the pastor, and Mr. Alex. Inch sang solos. Rev. A. E. Mitchell, of Hamilton, gave a bright address which all enjoyed. The many selections rendered by the Salvation Army band, together with music and readings from its individual members are deserving of the highest praise. The evening proved to be a financial success to the Ladies' Aid, under whose auspices it was held. Do You Need a Besutiful and Decoming Winter Hat?
