The deceased was a native of Queen's County, Ire-land, and emigrated, with her parents, to this Island, in 1818, where she has since remained. By her exem-plary piety, urbanity and benignity of disposition, she secured the esteem, confidence and sincere love of all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She depart-ed this life with a firm hope, that, through the potent intercession of the Biessed Virgin Mary, to whose pro-tection she had early committed herself, and the infin-ite clemancy of Almighty God, she would be admitted to become a participator in those Heavenly joys, which the eye hath not seen, the ear hath not heard, nor hath it enforced into the mind of man, what God hath pre-pared for these who love and serve him faithfully.
