RELIGIOUS STATE OF EUROPE.

Europe, though the smallest of the great divisions of the globe, is yet the principal seat of Christianity. Having acquired the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus, it has retained its possession of that inestimable treasure...

Beginning with Italy, whose capital was once the mistress of the world, what is the religious condition in Turkey, an advanced empire regarding the religion of the Bible, continues to increase, and evangelical Christians are forming themselves into congregations...

Austria presents a scene of intolerance and oppression. Despotism and bigotry reign; while innocuous and evangelical religion suffer. The Austrian Government has lately been proscribing the rules and regulations to the Protestant Hungarian Church...

In Germany, the ravages of rationalism are gradually being repaired by means of a true Christianology. Bible Christianity has been greatly revived. The good news of the revival in the United States and in Great Britain and Ireland, has been received in many circles in Germany with hope and gratitude...

The influence of the Bible being so salutary upon individuals and nations, it is gratifying to learn that the progress of its circulation is becoming increasingly apparent. From the Bible, translated through its agency into the various languages of the world, much benefit has been derived...

The only point to which we would draw your attention is our financial position. We are at present in a very happy position. Our accounts are in a very satisfactory state...

REV. MR. GUINNESS.

The death of the late distinguished statesman which is given below in a notice from the Dublin of the Times, the organ of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, published in Philadelphia:

Henry Guineas was born near Dublin, in August, 1825. He is the descendant of an old and respectable Irish family, called sometimes Guinness and Guineas, as well as Guinness. His father, John Guineas, was a member of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in Dublin, from which he was obliged to retire on account of ill health...

His parents having removed from Dublin to Edinburgh, he attended school at that city, and then at the Glasgow Academy. He was a member of the Independent Church in Dublin, under the pastoral care of the Rev. Dr. Urwick. His own early education was in the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and he was a member of that denomination...

Russia and Austria entered into an alliance on the 20th of March. The alliance was signed at Vienna, and it is believed that it will have a great influence on the peace of Europe. The alliance is a result of the recent events in the East, and it is hoped that it will bring about a permanent peace in the world.
