

dually influenced men's ideals, and we are able to see that true greatness may often deliberately choose such lowly and painful things as are typified by the manger and the Cross Count Tel.

choose such lowly and painful things as are typified by the manger and the Cross. Count Tolstoy gave up his riches and choose the life of a peasant and his name stands high on earth's roll of honor, even though his own country denied his body burial according to the custom of the Russian Church. He may have been umbalanced in some matters, but he was far "greater" in his peasant's hut than if he had been willing to live in a palace while his people were suffering terrible privations and hardships in order to supply him with luxuries.

Why does the world admire the King of the Belgians I is it not because he stands with his people, sharing their danger and their sorrow!

So the "sign" was well chosen, after all I Men are learning to approve God's choice, and to acknowledge that it was the right one.

"As He can unders stary were I had and able to recognize the glory in patch there are infinitesimal amount of danger compared with them, because the recognize the glory is not outward show, but love and fellow-show, but love and fellow-ship, can you understand that spring to Bishop Ingram: "Isn't it lovely, Bishop, to be the near-est to the firing line, right under the guns! It is not often one is allowed so near!" We are very apt to shrink away from danger and hardships, but some moble souls are so filled with the Christ-spirit that they consider it a privilege to be allowed "nearest to the firing line." We may be thanking God because the ocean protects us from bomb-throwing Zeppelins, but the Bishop of London told his people to be glad that they shared, to some extent, the danger of their dear ones at the front. These were his imapiring words: "Why should the boys as the trenches have a little danger? It is a good thing that we share an infinitesimal amount of danger compared with then, because the property of the guns of the recommendation of the spring to the first of the nurse who said last spring to the guns danger compared with them, because it puts us on our mettle, to when it, was bear what danger there is, with I of apparent absolutely unmoved nerves. Un-

Divine glory is not a palace purple and fine lines but low-loving service at real cost to l'ed visibly on earth, the inner

Before

Build

PARMED CAN DO VITE CONCRETE

Get This Free Boo

erior.

N. B.—Unauthorised publication of this advertisement will not be paid the same and the s

Here is another instance of satisfaction mail order customer of The Advocate Job Departure of the Advocate Job Departure of the success of the Advocate's Job Departure of the following letter, as a voucher, that even in "rush" orders careful attention is eliminated. This letter was received from a Torgentleman, and was written from Windsor, Novatia. We have since been advised by the writer than the success of the circular in question been received very shortly after its circulation. lowing is the letter:

Windsor, Nova Scotia.

Miramichi Publishing Co., Limited. Newcastle, N. B.

Dear Sirs:

Dear Sirs:

I wish to express my appreciation of the manuer in which you filled my last order for printing. As this was "rush" order, I was prepared to make allowances for imperfections in the job, but I must say that if days instead of only a few hours had been devoted to the job, it could not have been executed in a more pleasing and satisfying style. In my opinion the circular alluded to is a well-nigh—if, indeed it is not altogether—a perfect piece of printing. Anyway it suits me perfectly. An office that can turn out such excellent printing as I consider this circular to be should be able to please anybody.

Yours very truly

Yours very truly.

(Name withheld.)

The writer of the above letter, who has done con siderable business in the lower provinces, has had several pieces of work done by The Advocate, and has several pieces of work done by the large land, and been given entire satisfaction in all cases. It can, and will, do the same for you. You may be satisfied u the work you are receiving now, but you may be better satisfied after you have seen the class of work turned out by The Advocate. Samples of stock and prices printed will be mailed upon request. Write today.

THE UNION ADVOCATE

DON'T PAY

Some merchants who do not advertise will tell you. They place their opinion above the opinion of the many thousands who do advertise because they KNOW that it pays. The trouble is those merchants do not know how to advertise RIGHT. They do not give their advts, the proper attention—they do not change often enough, and hardly know what to write when they do change them, and then blame the paper because their business does not increase. An infant will not thrive on ten bottles of poor milk in a year, Some merchants who do not advertise will nor will an advertisement increase a man's bi with only ten changes in a year.

START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT

Look at the matter as a Business Proposition Figure up what your business will allow you to spend, and then find out, AND MAKE CERTAIN, where you can get the best results for the amount you spend. Give your advt. the same careful attention you give to buying and there will be a pleasant surprise in store for you at the end of the year.

So far as circulation is concerned, The Advocate is in the lead. There is not a corner in Northumberland County in which The Advocate does not circulate. As a matter of news—it leads, others follow. It gives the biggest dollar's worth of news of any other paper in the county. It gives the news first, while it is fresh. We receive weekly, letters, kind, thoughtful letters, commending us upon our work. Hundreds of new names have been added to our lists within the past few months. We expect these new subscribed will bring many more new ones.

Just think, Mr. Advertiser, what this engrand increase in our circulation means to you! You are not in business for your health—you are spendly money in advertising for the purpose of getting creased business. As a business proposition, it is to you to see the paper with the largest bone idds on up subscription list, and that paper in Northumbeland County is THE UNION ADVOCATE.

Get in Touch With 1