

HERE AND THERE IN SPORT

By J. C. L.

The Veterans Football team are taking on the fast Willard eleven at the Lassess grounds this afternoon and no doubt will make them hustle to the best of their ability.

The Canadian owned "Billy Kelly" will go to the post a slight favorite in today's historic event, "The Kentucky Derby."

Billy Kelly had a great year as a two year old and has won both his starts this year so his chance of bringing home the honors for Commander J. K. L. Ross of Montreal is more than good.

Merritt has made big plans for a monster field day on the 24th and visitors are expected from many outside points. The event will serve as a fitting windup to the memorial fund campaign and St. Catharines sport lovers are assured of a good time on Victoria Day if they will attend the Merritt games.

The thoroughbred horse market goes up and down the same as the stock market. Years ago a prominent American owner paid $22,000 for a two year old named Canvas who was more or less of a failure the following year and he gradually drifted into other hands until three years later Geo. P. Sherman of Baltimore purchased him at auction in the paddock at Pimlico for $46. Canvas won the cross country event two days later for his new owner and repeated the trick ten days later at Woodbine Park Toronto when he showed a clean pair of heels to Picktime, Pagan Bay and three other good jumpers. This was his last time to win first brackets for after a summer of ill-luck he broke a leg at the Club House bank at Toronto in the fall and was destroyed.

AUSTRALIAN BOXERS COMING TO AMERICA

Johnny Kilbane is one champion who is beset with challenges not only from boxers in this country, but from overseas. Denny Valger and Joe Lynch are hurling darts at Kilbane, and now two menaces are headed this way from Australia. One is Johnny Hill, the bantamweight champion of the Antipodes, and the other is Heel or Melville, a leading featherweight.

Melville landed in San Francisco Tuesday and immediately boarded a train for New York. Charley Harvey, who makes a specialty of developing and bringing out foreign boxers, and who brought Ted Lewis to America from Australia, will handle Melville's affairs in this country, and already has camped on Kilbane's trail.
