Two Ways of Traveling.

Mrs. Blair.

BY RUTH CAMERON.
 "Prepare to live by all means, but by Heaven's sake do not forget to live." — Arnold Bennett.
 Once upon a time I was driven through a very beautiful country in a splendid motor car. All along the way were lovely roadside flowers which I longed to gather, and wonderful vistas that I wanted to have time to fix upon "that inward eye." But my hostesses were not kind of people to stop and gather roadside flowers or look long at beautiful vistas. They were "get there" people, and so we whirled along to the journey's end, and when we reached it they heaved sighs of content as if at last they were happy! All of which seemed very strange to me, for theoretically we had come for the pleasure of the journey.
 Once again I traveled that same road, this time in an unpretentious conveyance drawn by an unpretentious steed. And because this time my host and hostess were the kind of people who knew how to enjoy a journey and not keep their minds only on the journey's end, we stopped and gathered flowers, and drank at a little brook, and passed the time of day with some fellow travellers, and invited our souls before the wonderful vistas that I had only glimpsed before.
 Now which journey do you think I enjoyed the most?
 Which would you have enjoyed most?
 Do you belong to the "get there" folk or to those who think that every moment of the journey should be enjoyed?
 And I don't mean only as regards actual traveling, but as regards life itself.
 A young girl who had embroidered a beautiful centre piece for her mother was complaining because her mother never used the gift. "It's just like all the lovely things mother has," she lamented, "she just puts them away to use sometime. I want her to use them now."
 There are many men and women like that mother who are always saving their blessings for sometime. Sometime they will use their beautiful things; sometime they will take time to enjoy their children; sometime they will take advantage of all the opportunities for education and enjoyment that surround them; sometime they will be happy.
 Ah! my friends, there is no time for happiness half so good as now. Don't dream of a short day when you can be happy, but be happy right now.
 "You will never have a better chance for happiness," says a great essayist, "than you have at present. You may think you will have, but you are mistaken."
 So get out and gather flowers along the roadside. Only so will you get the most out of the journey of life.

The Agile Tiger.

He is "Shod with Silence" and is as Quick as Lightning.
 Most wild animals are specialists—that is to say, they are highly developed in one particular direction. The tiger is great as a stalker. His feet seem to be "shod with silence." R. H. Elliott, for many years a resident of India, cited an experience of one of his neighbors illustrative of this point.
 He had been much annoyed by tigers and at last tied a bullock out in a clearing and took up his own position in a tree to wait till the tiger should come after the bait. The ground was covered with dried leaves, which in hot weather are so brittle that even the walking of a bird over them can be heard for a good distance. In no very long time a large tiger slipped out of the forest and slowly edged toward the bullock. His method was so elaborate and careful that the man who saw it used to declare that it would have been worth 1,000 rupees to any young sportsman to have witnessed it.
 So carefully did he put down each paw and so gradually did he crush the leaves under it that not a sound was to be heard. Between him and the bullock was a stump about four feet high, with long projecting surface roots. This, plainly, the tiger looked upon as a godsend.
 He got upon one of the roots, balanced himself carefully and so was able to walk quickly and silently as far as the stump. He approached so gradually and noiselessly and his color against the brown leaves was so invisible that he was close upon the bullock before he was perceived. Then instantly the bullock charged. The tiger eluded him and in a moment more had his paws on the bullock's neck ready to drag him down. Then, like a flash, he caught sight of the rope by which the bullock was tied and turned and sprang into the forest all so quickly that the man in the tree had no opportunity to fire.

Are You Blue and Worried?

Nervous? Some of the time really ill? Catch cold easily and frequently suffer from biliousness or headache? The reason is that your system does not rid itself of the poisons in the blood; just as impossible as it is for the grate of a stove to rid itself of cinders. The waste does to us exactly what the cinders do to the stove; make the fires burn low until enough cinders have accumulated and then prevent its burning at all. Your liver is sluggish—you are dull and heavy—sleep does not rest, nor is food appetizing. In this condition illness develops. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery eradicates the poisons from the body—a glycoeric alternative extract made from bloodroot, golden seal and mandrake root, stone and queen's root, without the use of alcohol. No matter how strong the constitution the stomach is apt to be "out of kilter" at times; in consequence the blood is disordered, for the stomach is the laboratory for the constant manufacture of blood.
 Mrs. Blair, of Port Dover, Ont., Dec. 28, writes: "I have been a great sufferer for years from throat trouble, catarrh, indigestion, female troubles, bloating, constipation and nervousness—at times I would be in bed, unable to be up, and have been under many different doctors' care, and would get better for a little while, then I would go down with chronic inflammation. For almost three years I had this poison in my blood. After trying nearly everything I got worse. I read 'The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser' of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and have used five bottles of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. I am now able to do my work and walk with pleasure. I feel like a new woman. I enjoy everything around me and thank God for letting me live long enough to find something that made me well again."
 Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate liver and bowels.

Fads and Fashions.

On the big velvet hats already shown for fall, one sees Paradise plumes with cut ends to carry out the fashionable effect of flatness.
 For holiday wear, some women chose colored coats to go with their striped woolen silk skirts, the coats being the color of the stripes.
 Blouses for the half season and autumn days are made to harmonize with their skirts. The most attractive have long sleeves and ruffled cuffs.
 A peculiarity of some of the new charmeuse and velvet coats is that they are quite short in front and reach almost to the skirt in the back.
 Parisian women are wearing a great many smart, simple tailored suits of white rep cord, the short coats being fashioned in a loose sacque style.
 Brown and taupe are rivaling black and dark blue in popularity among the suit colors. Burgundy and dark wistaria will be seen among silks.
 White will top coats, three-quarter length, are now being made with buttonholes, cuffs and collars piped in some light color, with buttons to match.
 A great many satin gowns, both for afternoon and evening, have high circles of velvet. Sometimes they are finished with little straight sashes richly embroidered.
 The best summer dance frock for a young girl is unquestionably the lingerie frock, simple, but as fine as you please. Very charming ones have french hand work.
 Many suits of fancy-velour wool sponge cloth will be seen the coming season. Long-velour coats will be trimmed with fur, satin, moire, heavy lace or hand embroidery.
 One of the most becoming fashions to a large woman is the cutaway coat with the straightest possible lines and a very long back. With this, of course, the skirt also should have straight lines.
 Montreal, Aug. 6.—An increase in the price of boots and shoes is now assured, as a result of a decision reached by representatives of Canadian tanners, who yesterday unanimously adopted a resolution that an increase of at least 10 per cent. in the price of leather would have to be brought about, this being rendered necessary on account of the constantly increasing price of hides and tanning materials. It was not decided just on what date the increased price would become effective.

Man Mastered By His Business

When a man cannot forget his business when he lays his head on the pillow at night, it is time to consider the condition of his nervous system. Otherwise his business will wreck his future by undermining his health.
 For a time he may keep going on stimulants, but if health is to be restored and old-time vigor brought back the nerve cells must be revitalized by such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
 A few weeks' use of this great food cure will do wonders for any business man or woman whose nervous system has failed to stand the strain. Gradually and naturally the blood is enriched and vigor and energy are restored to mind and body. Appetite is sharpened, digestion improves, you sleep well and regain the strength which makes you master of yourself and of your business.
