PARENTS.

There has been considerable agitation of late in reference to the condition of the eyes of school children. We know that there is harm done in putting glasses on the growing boy or girl who does not absolutely need them. On the other hand, it is a serious mistake for parents to let this matter go unheeded when the need of glasses is actually indicated. The mission of proper fitted glasses is to correct the errors of the eye, and the time to do this, so as to effect permanent relief, is while the child is growing. There can then be some hope of later discarding them. When the children are studying their lessons tonight notice if his or her eyes are red or watery after they have finished their study. We have set aside Saturday morning for the examination of children's eyes and shall be pleased to make appointment with you in advance, at an hour to suit your convenience. We do not under any consideration advise the use of glasses unless positively needed. H. B. THOMSON, Optometrist. Oct. 14, 1921.
