

THE WORLD'S PRESS.

FANS OF THE CYCLES.

Springfield Republican: Bicycling is not merely difficult, it is impossible in the United States, as walking along main highways is neither pleasant nor safe. Probably English will not permit the automobile to secure the virtual monopoly that he enjoys in this country. In England there remains larger respect for the individual and greater tolerance of idiosyncrasies and aberrations. Surely bicycling is the most important form of mechanical transportation for the rider is at once a human spirit and part of his own machine.

THE FRENCH TREATY.

Canada: One of the alleged obstacles to the treaty is the fact that it is a list of articles which at the moment we are not exporting to France; but, as was aptly observed, the legislation for the future, not for the present, it is to develop our commerce in the direction that the treaty has been concluded. The Chamber approved the treaty by a large majority. The general public interested in the matter before the treaty went so far as they have done on the subject of this convention.

MONITORS OF STONE AGE.

London Chronicle: Considering Australia is the only part of the world where a race of the genuine Stone Age can be studied, it is impossible to help agreeing with Sir Baldwin Spencer, the first living authority on the aborigines, that it is a thousand pities the investigation was not made earlier. A great deal more has been learned of their customs and habits, as he told the members of the Australasian Association for the Advancement of Science at its recent meeting at Wellington, had Governments and savants, the general public interested in the matter before the treaty went so far as they have done on the subject of this convention.

A WINNING AMBASSADOR.

London Chronicle: For some fortunate reason their personality is half the battle when they champion a cause, and Robert Cecil is one of these. They believe that a man is honest and not self-seeking people to him gladly, and that is the impression which Lord Cecil has made upon his audiences. He has done much to make the cause of Nations understood and understood in its chief need in this country. For the fruit of the seed he sows must wait, but the trend of events since his visit began gives cause to wait with confidence.

WORKERS IN PUBLIC LIFE.

The Australian: The instinctive dislike of both sexes is, that the public life of the marketplace, of the social chamber, or of the forum is not for women. To put it quite plainly, their place is either the domestic circle of the home or the social circle of the community. The only two exceptions to this one instinctive feeling are education and nursing. In everything else women are treated as curiosities, and are not allowed to take a place of leadership or command. Women themselves do not trust woman in a position of great public responsibility. We must admit that we wonder whether there is any reason of the difficulty.

TWO BUSY FOR AMUSEMENT.

New York World: Max Reinhardt, leaving Chaplin's farewell performance at the Metropolitan, seemed to see so many people free to the opera on a Thursday evening. "If he had seen the crowd that gathered at the opening of the Yankee stadium the day before he might have been more astonished. Here was a theatrical equivalent of twenty city opera-house audiences of New Yorkers who found themselves to take an afternoon off to watch the game. The Berlin theatrical police indeed has only begun his survey of the proportions of New York amusement-leisure class, and only are matinee theatrical and musical performances thronged, but operatic performances as well, and the public ceremonies and parades of thousands of people occupied for hours. The tired business man is never too busy to put in an afternoon on the links.

How to Buy
Scotch Herring.

The Fishery Board for Scotland has just issued that the Russian Soviet Government intends to import during the next few months millions of herrings, which millions are to be purchased from Norway and the balance from Scotland. The quantity to be imported from Scotland represents 1,000,000 barrels.

Newfoundlanders in Boston.

ORGANIZE A KILBRIDE PARISH FUND.

It is gratifying to learn that our people who have made their homes in Boston always take a deep interest in affairs at home, and are ever ready to render assistance when the opportunity offers. In this connection it is pleasing to learn that an energetic committee has been recently formed in Boston to raise a fund to help defray the expense on the new Parish Church at Kilbride. The idea originated with Mr. Patrick Treacy, who visited here last summer after an absence of 28 years. The committee is made up of former residents of Kilbride and their many good friends from Newfoundland who are now residing in the different cities in the suburbs of Boston. Mr. Treacy when "home" last summer, noticing the vast improvement throughout the country, especially amongst the farmers with their up-to-date machinery performing the manual labor. When years ago it took the greater part of the busy season in doing the work that can now be done in a few days, told of the advances made, to his friends; who were all anxious to know about their dear homeland, their friends and relations. To him it was but a pleasure to tell in detail of all he saw during his two months' stay. It was during these reminiscences that the happy thought came of asking those friends far from home to help out the splendid work now going on at Kilbride. With the assistance of Messrs. Jas. Murphy, Stephen Puddister, John Dermody and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duggan the Kilbride Parish Fund was set in motion. With Mr. Treacy's knowledge of affairs in the homeland to him it was a delightful pleasure of speaking before the different Newfoundland Societies in Boston on the matter. After Mr. Treacy's address before the Newfoundland Charitable Society, of which he is a charter member, the Parish Committee was enlarged and President Jas. Wilcox was elected as Chairman. Recently the first of a series of what parties arranged by the Committee was held at the home of Mrs. J. Murphy, 26 Everett Street, Melrose. About 80 people took part and the affair was voted a great success. Splendid prizes were given the winners, who in order of merit were as follows: Miss Catherine Devereaux, Sylvester Keough, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. E. V. Cole, Michael O'Brien, John Kenney, Mrs. Bella Kelly, Richard Maher, Miss B. Finn, Mrs. May Vawn and Miss Annie Chafe. A beautifully ornamented cake donated by Mr. Patrick Treacy for Chances was won by Miss Catherine Devereaux. Coffee, cakes and sandwiches were served through the generosity of Mr. James Murphy, assisted by Miss Annie Brennan, Mrs. Katie Puddister, Mrs. Michael Williams and Mrs. Margaret Riley. Real home dances with music furnished by Peter Denamore and John Dermody made up a very enjoyable evening. Amongst the guests of the evening were Messrs. Michael Aylward and John Crowley, who reside in Buffalo, New York.

Concert and Lecture.

ENJOYABLE SMOKE AT MAJES.

TIG.

Owing to the very short notice given on the smoking concert held at the Majestic theatre on Saturday it was not as largely attended as it might otherwise have been. Those present were given a treat and the appreciation of the different items was marked by frequent applause. The programme consisted of songs by Messrs. R. Sullivan, Jack Hickey, C. J. Fox and A. Lawrence, recitations by T. H. O'Neill, a horn solo by Mr. Arthur Bulley and dances by Mr. Day. A feature of the evening was an address by Lt. Col. (Rev.) Nangle, C.F., on Mussolini and the Fascist movement in Italy. Padre Nangle gave a very vivid description of the Italian Leader which proved most interesting.

The Lighter Side.

Any man who itches for fame will have to do a lot of scratching before he gets there.

We heard a story the other day about a St. John's school teacher who sent home a little boy with a note to his mother suggesting that he be given a bath. The mother replied "Tommy ain't no rose. Learn him, not smell him."

WORKING!

Helen's in the kitchen,
Washing out the bottles;
Paul's in the pantry,
Taking off the labels;
Ruben's in the cellar,
Fixing up the hobs;
Johnny's on the front porch,
Watching for the cops.

HOW ARE YOU HOPEING HERE?
