The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo, which is pure and greaseless, and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsi-fied is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, remov-ing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy, wavy, and easy

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will supply months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the Shortis, has already appeared in your columns.) The funevery member of the family for eral was held on Monday, to the Methodist Church, and was very largely attended, Rev. W. Harris, officiated at the Church and graveside. Besides his wife, he leaves behind three daughters, Mrs. Ronald Martin, of St. John's, Mrs. George French and Mrs. Norman Munn, of this town, two sons, Arthur, residing in the U.S.A., and William, with whom he has spent the eventide of life. To the bereaved family we tender our sympathy.

The death of Mrs. Lemuel Simmons occurred at St. John's on 15th inst., after a short illness, in her eightieth year. She was formerly Miss Emma Snow, of Bay Roberts. Besides her husband, she leaves to nourn her loss three sons, James and Robert of St. John's and Lorenzo, S. . Officer, at Clarke's Beach, and one daughter, Mrs. William Cole, Carbonear. The late Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald of this town was also a daughter. The body was brought here by Tuesday night's train, accompanied by her two sons, Robert and Lorenzo, and the funeral was held on Wednesday from the residence of Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Holbrook Street. Interment was made in the Methodist Fraser River Canyon Cemetery, Rev. F. G. Willey, of Carbonear, performing the last sad rites.
