

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

HOW THE LOAN WOULD COME BACK.

LONDON, Oct. 27. Day's Lloyd George in a speech to-day made a sarcastic reference to the political sensation in connection with the letter from Zinovieff, President of the Legislative Council of the Communist Internationale to the Central Committee of the British Communist Party urging the "violent overthrow of existing institutions in Great Britain and the subversion of its Majesty's armed forces as a means to that end." "I am going to apologize to the 'Labour Party,'" Lloyd George said, "if that money (proposed Russian loan) was paid to the Russians that we would never see it again. I was wrong, for a good deal of it would come back in the form of money spent in propagating insurrection."

BODY OF LEO XIII EXTENDED.

ROME, Oct. 27. The body of Pope Leo XIII to-night rested in its final resting place. The ceremonies of entombment took place this morning in the Basilica of St. John Lateran and were carried out with solemnity but with the utmost simplicity.

WILL THOROUGHLY INVESTIGATE RUSSIAN PLOT.

LONDON, Oct. 27. The so-called Russian plot has produced a complete revolution in British campaign oratory and little else is now being talked of in election speeches and newspaper comment. From the present indications the Russian question will loom much greater in the contests to be decided on Wednesday than seemed likely a fortnight ago. Premier MacDonald's anxiously awaited speech at Cardiff to-day still leaves the affair of the Zinovieff letter in a certain air of mystery with many questions unanswered. The Premier, however, said he was determined to thoroughly investigate the matter, and especially to unravel the suspicious circumstances that a London daily paper and Conservative headquarters got copies of the alleged Soviet communication simultaneously with the Foreign Office. Mr. MacDonald guaranteed that immediately all facts were ascertained he would publish them. He referred to the whole affair as another "Guy Fawkes and gunpowder plot." The Premier also characterized as "lies" reports that the letter had been intercepted in the post and photographed, or that it came from the Cabinet. By inference he indicated that the Foreign Office had never had the original of the letter. In his speech to-day he was inviting the Daily Mail to inform him how it came into possession of the letter when a voice interposed: "They were the original." The Premier therefrom observed "well, they have had more than we have had."

SPANISH CONSUL LOSES APPEAL.

MONTREAL, Oct. 27. Miguel De Maluquer, former Spanish Consul to Montreal, lost his appeal this afternoon for a new trial and amendment of sentence pronounced upon him by Judge Decarie in the Court of Special Sessions and must serve six months in jail for conspiracy to defraud the Customs and the importation of narcotics by a judgment of the Court of Appeals before three judges to-day. The sentence of six months was confirmed unanimously.

DE VALERA HELD ON REMAND.

BELFAST, Oct. 27. Eamon De Valera, the Republican leader, will have no chance to participate further in the election campaign. After he had been arrested in Londonderry Sunday night and brought to Belfast he was charged with contravening the Ulster Restriction Act and formally remanded for a week pending his trial. He will not be tried as a political prisoner.

NICARAGUA SENDS HONDURAS A WARNING.

MAHAGUA, Nicaragua, Oct. 27. The Nicaraguan Government has informed Honduras that any further violation of Nicaraguan territory by the regular troops of Honduras will be considered an act of open hostility.

The "Weaker" Sex

London Daily Express: Those who are old enough to compare the state of womankind thirty or forty years ago with the present time are struck by the great difference between the girls of the Victorian era and our own. Then they were light-laced and starchy shod, they seldom walked and seldom danced. They did not play golf and their tennis was mere ball. They had charms, of course, in that they blushed prettily, there were no warty bags and no lip sticks, and they were wonderful housekeepers. The white faces and languid looks of the "chickies" had certain allurements, but they were not to be compared with the fine, sturdy, rosy-cheeked, strong-armed daughters of Anak who are one seen by the thousands in every alk of life.
