A SAFE PLACE FOR MEN TO BUY

and Furnishings

London

ESTABLISHED 1860

THIS OLD DEPENDABLE ESTABLISHMENT INVITES YOUR PATRONAGE

OUR BUSINESS IS DRY GOODS

IN ALL BRANCHES

Bartlet, Macdonald & Gow Limited

OUELLETTE AVE. and SANDWICH ST. WINDSOR, ONTARIO

Over Twenty Years in Business in this city, firmly established—every transaction through this office furnishes an absolute guarantee of service and satisfaction or your money refunded.

We handle the following lines:

REAL ESTATE

Buy, Sell, Exchange, Secure Loans on first mortgage, Rent or handle in any desired manner.

INSURANCE

Fire, Life, Accident and Sickness, Automobile, Wind, Burglary, Robbery, Hold Up, Plate Glass, Elevator, Boiler Engine and Fly Wheel. All kinds of Surety Bonds issued. Unexcelled policy contracts issued through the best companies.

Stocks, Bonds, Debentures Bought, Sold or exchanged.

High Grade Automobiles Special representative, Canadian Distributor.

Marmon, Roamer Lexington respectively in a class by itself.

Catalogues, full information or demonstration furnished on

Office centrally located, efficiently equipped to despatch business at short notice.

Phone 259 J

HARRY JUDAH of Chatham, Ont., one of Ontario's most successful merchants. Mr. Judah's patrons are divided equally among white and colored people.

Appointed Assistant

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Chicago, Ill., July-When Second speech he was delivering to Railway to the children of men." Alliance of Postal Employees, in the Appomattox Club last Sunday morning and without a single person in the room knowing what he planned doing, handed to John D. Gainey, a colored EXODUS OF NEGROES man, his appointment as Assistant Chief Clerk, bedlam almost broke loose as cheers and congratulations poured forth on the two. For the first time in the history of the railway mail service a colored man has been appointed to a supervisory position and clerks all over the country can take an added pride in their work because of the outlet for promotion

Mr. Gainey was ordered by General Henderson to proceed to Washington, D.C., where he will be stationed and likewise was commissioned to visit the next annual convention of the sepecially in the amount of public funds appropriated. The Negro peotox Club was crowded with railway sional needs of the race. The mail clerks and members of other branches of the service. General Henderson, who is the son-in-law of Congressman Martin B. Madden, had come tory for any great readjustment. meeting from the train and leaving it for the station to return. He paid away with the submission of photographs when taking the civil service examination. President Alonzo L. Glenn, of the Alliance, stationed at Atlanta, who was unable to attend the meeting but who sent a strong letter progress without harmful reaction." the photographs. It is said that practically no colored men have been appointed to the R.M.S. for several years due to discrimination on account of photographs. Among those who spoke were Mr. Gainey, who is well-known throughout the country, David B. Hawley, Vice-President, Appomattox Club, A. L. Weaver of Chicago P.O., John H. Passmore, Clerk Criminal Court, Major R. R. Jackson, and Josiah H. Jones, District President of the Alliance. All commended the new spirit exemplified by the appointment and expressed their appre-

VIRGINIA FARMERS AFTER KNOWLEDGE

By Wm. Anthony Aery

(For The Associated Negro Press) Hampton, Va., July—The annual Hampton Institute Farmers' conference brought together the colored farm and home demonstration agents, who are working in 31 counties of Virginia to improve rural life.

John B. Pierce, field agent U.S.S. Department of Agriculture, declared that these community leaders came to Hampton Institute to secure knowledge and inspiration.

Among the features arranged for the visitors was an inspection trip through the institute departments; a trip to Shellbanks Farm, the Institute stock farm; a hog-judging contest; a demonstration of "Inoculating Hogs" by Dr. George C. Faville; a talk on "Breeding Good Hogs" by J. A. Vohringer; a picnic supper; motion pic-ture programs of films dealing with the improvement of rural life; three poultry demonstrations by F. S. Gammack; a round-table discussion on "Local Leadership and Community Problems" by A. B. Doggett, Jr.; exhibits of poultry houses, good and poor laying hens, pure-bred cockerels, home-made water supply systems, Chief Railway Clerk labor-saving gas engines, tractors, farm machinery, sanitary toilets, wellselecte dseeds, home garden products, and materials of interest to women. The Rev. Laurence Fenninger, chaplain of Hampton Institute, opened the Assistant Postmaster General, Paul "The Sacredness of the Earth," based on the text, "The Earth hath He given

FROM THE SOUTH

(By The Associated Negro Press) Cambridge, Mass., July-The present migration of Negroes from the South is a natural progress which will result in good, James Hardy Dillard of Charlottesville, Va., said in an address at the Harvard alumni exercises. to-day.

"Advance in the work of Negro education," he said, " is remarkable, ees which convenes in Fort Worth, ple are showing each year remarkable July 11, as an official of the service growth in holding property, in undernd as his personal representative.

The assembly room of the Appomatplying from their ranks the profesern white people are more and more recognizing these facts.

all the way from Washington just to There must, of course, be ebbs and flows and now and then special movements. Just now, for example, we a high tribute to the 20,000 colored migration to the north and west. It are interested in the renewal of the employees in the postal service, and is a natural process that will result employees in the 800 in R.M.S. and in good and it will not change the pledged his support to the campaign fact the the great majority of those Negro people will continue to live in the South. And in the South, on the whole, I think the advance toward better understanding between the races in a new relation is as fast as it could well be in order to steady

ANTI KU KLUX BILL PASSES

(By The Associated Negro Press) Springfield, Ill., July-Representative Adelbert H. Roberts' Anti Ku Klux Bill has become a law of the It was signed by Governor Small last Wednesday and goes into effect immediately.

Representative Roberts hails, from the first Chicago district and is recognized as one of the able members ciation of General Henderson's part ator of note and he is a lawyel by

Dedicate

Vol. 1, No. 2.

(By The Assoc Boston, Mass., itionally fair in rights of humania does not propose step one iota in

Charles C. Dog well and yes, Col school student, w of the thousands ents in Boston t Declaration of In State Hoouse on . honors that could young American could surpass this patriotism is as fu

A group of three dividuals, addressi from Noorth Carol job of scoring May ing Dogan for the Mayor of Boston s iduals will go dow masterpiece of "b with the famous H Said the Mayor of E ed residents of Nor Dogan Selecte "I have seldom from any source so manners, so devoid destitute of all principals and pract ernment and so offen ly impertinent. It tion to know that t effusion was nont w tive Carolinian, for setts and Carolina foundly on the race q as one in recognition for practical politenes the connections of d correspondence and tions.

"You do not speak, for the town you live the State of North Ca must be acquitted or ill-bred and unwarran the affairs of Massacl ton exhibited in your "When men claiming mer residence in Bosto the gross discourtesy mitted, and its bad m phasized by betrayal o and an insult to the tra birthplace they become erving of scorn and co fuse to accept you as of the state and the c men who fought and d freedom at King's Mou

"Charles C. Dogan wa the honor conferred or cellent reasons; he has petence and capacity in rivalry of school life to worthy choice. He is as