AN EXHIBIT OF MERIT. On entering Agricultural Hall, the first exhibit which the visitor at once notices to be of more than ordinary importance is that of the well-known firm of David Maxwell & Sons, of St. Marys. Their implements are so well and favorably known as being second to no others manufactured in this or any country, that the firm's name carries everything, so far as merit goes. In binders they have the only righthand binder manufactured, the Little Maxwell not being manufactured after any other pattern, but being an entirely original Canadian invention, having many features not on other machines, prominent among these being the "right-hand. cut." -Pte.
