A Disgraceful Episode.

Saturday night's meeting in the East End Hall revealed the mayor in his true colors.

He would not have dared to resort to such desperate and cowardly tactics had it not been the last meeting of the campaign. He knew the public would not hear of this effort to throttle free speech until the polling was nearly over, as his morning organ could be relied upon to conceal the truth.

What do the people of London think of this boasted and boasting pretender to British fair play after his conduct on Saturday night? He lent himself to a deliberate conspiracy to stifle all opposition, and talked from 11 o'clock p.m. till Sunday morning in order to prevent Drs. Moorhouse and McCallum from laying their case before the audience. This disgraceful denial of justice was planned by the mayor and his confederates before the meeting began. Those who know Adam Beck best will be the least surprised at this. His pretense of being a public reformer and a champion of proletarian rights is a mask for the grossest self-seeking. He is a faroucer and a poseur toggled out as a tribune.

By the time this edition of The Advertiser is in the hands of its readers the municipal issues will have been decided. If Mr. George M. Reid is defeated it will be because a large portion of the electorate is still under the influence of the deception practiced by the mayor and Trustee Waterman at the last municipal election. They raised the poor man's cry, and tried to play on the sympathies of the workmen by representing that the public patients were under a medical tyranny, because they were exclusively treated by the hospital staff. They promised to overturn this arrangement and give each patient the privilege of being attended by his own physician. It was this cry that elected Mr. Waterman, Messrs. Beck and Waterman, however, found that the lady superintendent of the hospital, their own appointees, would not hear of the change they advocated, as it would disturb the discipline of the hospital. They were obliged to "eat crow" and adopt a regulation which practically excludes any but the staff physicians from the institution. These two trustees were attacked in a letter to the press by one of their own supporters, Dr. James D. Wilson, who had been denied access to a patient in the hospital. He denounced Messrs. Beck and Waterman for deceiving the public and swallowing their professions. But a great many people, we fear, are still under the delusion that the medical faculty desires to dominate the hospital, and that if it has its way, the students will menace the privacy of the patients. The organs of the mayor have tried to create this impression, thinking it a popular card to play. Under the circumstances, it would not be surprising if the campaign of falsehood, slander and misrepresentation should defeat Mr. Reid; but it would be a temporary triumph. The welfare of two great institutions like the Medical School and the hospital cannot be sacrificed to the selfish ends of a clique.

Wednesday's Bye-Elections.

The bye-elections on Wednesday will give a new turn to the political situation in Ontario. If the Government wins all three of them it will have a majority of five. If it wins two out of three it will have a majority of three. We should say that if the Government makes a clean sweep on Wednesday it will be firmly seated for four years, as it has little to fear from any other bye-elections that may ensue. It is to be hoped, therefore, that North Grey, North Perth and North Norfolk will be unanimous for the Administration, and thus put an end to the present unsettled conditions. The Ministers cannot give their undivided attention to the public business so long as they are harassed by political contests, and the tactics of an Opposition which is strong enough to obstruct, but too weak to overthrow the Government. It is in the interests of the Province that this state of things should be ended, and the members of the Government should be free to settle down to departmental duties.

A grant aid has been made about Hon. S. H. Blake's letter to Mr. Foy, which was expressly timed to do service in the bye-elections. It is to be regretted that Mr. Blake should have allowed a long-standing grudge against the Crown Lands Department to carry him to such an extreme. It appears that Mr. Blake was solicitor for an American company, which claimed to have located the Helen mine. This claim was disputed by Mr. Clergue. The director of mines, Mr. Blue, was sent to the district to investigate and take evidence on oath. His report was favorable to Mr. Clergue, and the Government, after hearing a full argument by counsel for the contending parties, affirmed Mr. Blue's recommendation. The Government not only considered that Mr. Clergue's title was based upon prior location, but favored it on grounds of public policy, as Mr. Clergue was prepared to develop, and at once succeeded to develop, the mineral sources of the district, whereas it was believed the object of the American company was to secure control of the iron deposits on the north shore of Lake Superior, in order to provide against the exhaustion of the deposits on the other side of the line. This company was not ready, as was Mr. Clergue, to begin development, and the latter would have been prevented, had his claim been disproved, from erecting his great steel and iron plant at Sault Ste. Marie. This case marks Mr. Blake's point of departure from the Ontario Government. There is something humorous in his apostrophizing of Mr. Foy and Mr. Whitney as the patron saints of electoral purity, when we consider the record of their party. Mr. Blake's letter, however, has been discounted by the disclosure of the circumstances which led to his rupture with the Government, and it is not likely to be a factor in Wednesday's contests. The Government should be sufficiently recruited to carry out its vigorous and progressive policy. There are large plans and schemes for promoting the settlement and development of the Province which are pressing for immediate and energetic attention, and the Ministers should not be further distracted by party turmoil.

Mr. J. S. Willison's newspaper venture in Toronto has caused quite an upheaval in Toronto journalism. Mr. Willison has taken a good deal of talent from some of the other papers. He has enlisted among others Mr. Hector Charlesworth, the brilliant musical and dramatic critic of the Mail and Empire. Mr. Charlesworth, who is best known by his pen-name, "Touchstone," has made a high position for himself as a critic and writer. He is one of the most gifted of the younger Canadian literary men, and will be a decided acquisition to the new paper.

THE PRETENDER BEING DESERTED

Haina Tribe Joins the Sultan—The Pretender Entered Fez, But Retired.

Madrid, Jan. 3. — According to information received by the Liberal pretender to the throne of Morocco has entered Fez and met with a good reception. Telegrams received here from Tangier agree that the situation is more serious. The postoffice refuses to be responsible for registered letters. One dispatch says that the Sultan's position is extremely critical, as the Jews, of whom there are ten thousand in Fez, smarting from injustice and cruelty, are inclined to support the pretender, and an outbreak in the city is apprehended. Tangier, Jan. 3. — A letter from the Sultan was read in the mosque today, acknowledging his recent refusal to promise to punish the rebels soon. PRETENDER BACKS OUT. Tangier, Morocco, Jan. 4.—According to official news received here from Fez, the pretender has retired from Fez, the object of depriving the pretender to the throne of his prestige, and the letter has retired discredited to Fez. He has been deserted by a number of local tribes, who dispersed to make sure of their booty. Buhamara, the pretender, having proclaimed the intention of entraining Muhi-Mohammed, his nephew, into Fez, he has made a solemn entry into Fez, accompanied by the populace. The Sultan has announced the appointment of his brother as Governor of the Province of Fez, thus disproving the rumors that Muhi-Mohammed aspired to the throne. When this had been done, according to the official authority for these statements, the tribes around Fez swore fidelity to the Sultan and denounced Buhamara as an impostor, whom they would prevent from coming to Fez. All immediate danger has disappeared. The route to Fez, the coast is open. It is said the Sultan is now preparing a large expedition with the intention of crushing the rebellion.

JOINED THE SULTAN'S FORCES. Advice received here from Fez under date of Dec. 29, is that the Haina tribe, who were fighting for the pretender, have declared their allegiance to the Sultan. Twenty thousand troops reached Fez from the Sultan's army. The Sultan has placed his brother, Muhi-Mohammed, in command of the expedition against Buhamara.

DEATH OF MRS. McPHEE

Greatest Woman Trotting Horse Owner and Campaigner in the World.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 5. — News of the sudden death near Vienna, Austria, of Mrs. Polly McPhee, the greatest woman trotting-horse owner and campaigner in the world, has reached here through a letter from John Spian, her American agent. Mrs. McPhee had imported into Austria over $100,000 worth of trotters, including Henrietta, 2:12½; Axmer, 2:13¾; Wig Wags, 2:16¼; bought only two weeks ago, and now en route. Arline, 2:24½; Dick Miller, Bravo, 2:12½; Col. Kuwer, 2-mile record of 4:28; Derago, 2:16½; Minnie Burwood, 2:13¾; Miss Sissy, 2:26, and others. She was the leading winner in Austria this season, and it is said she was instrumental in having the Government secure the American horse Prince of Wales, one of the greatest money-winning American horses, which left America a green trotter, and which, had only a slow motion in America, but was a slow motion in Europe. Mrs. McPhee was the wife of Clinton L. Ames, one of the editors of the Malone Palladium, died of pneumonia on Saturday.

BAD BABIES

Are often only hungry babies. They cry and fret because they are ill. They are not bad babies, but they have good babies; babies that coo and sleep and grow.

Mothers who use Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, are generally healthy and happy, and have healthy, happy children.

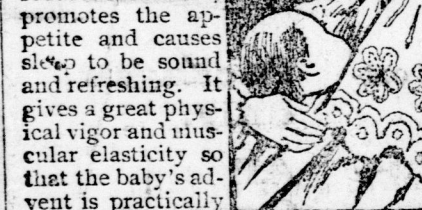

"Favorite Prescription" prevents nausea, soothes the nerves, and promotes the appetite and causes sleep to be sound and refreshing.

It gives a great physical vigor and muscular elasticity so that the baby's advent is practically painless. It is the best tonic for nursing mothers, restoring strength and promoting an abundant flow of nutritive secretions.

"Favorite Prescription" as one of the best medicines for women. I know it has no equal. I am the mother of five children, and I am well and healthy as can be. She is a healthy, happy mother, and her baby is a healthy, happy child. I have been a mother for many years, and I can tell you that I have never known a baby that was so healthy and so happy as my own. I have been a mother for many years, and I can tell you that I have never known a baby that was so healthy and so happy as my own.

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

KING GEORGE'S DAYS NUMBERED

Saxony's Sovereign Has Little Time to Live—Has Been Working Too Much.

London, Jan. 5.—A dispatch from Dresden to the Central News says the German specialists who were called to attend the King of Saxony held a consultation Saturday and issued a bulletin declaring his condition to be critical. It is believed at Dresden that there is little hope for the King's living more than a few days.

The attending physicians are stimulating his majesty with quinine. The King's heart action is feeble and his temperature fluctuates 82 degrees in half a day, falling to 92°.

His majesty's condition has grown worse through the insistence of the patient in discharging governmental business.

Windsor a Gretna Green.

Windsor, Ont., Jan. 5. — City Clerk Lusted has prepared his report of the vital statistics of Windsor for the last half of 1902.

Still holds the lead as a marriage center, the number for the last six months being 823. There appeared to be a preponderance of Methodists in the number married, as the Methodist minister in Windsor married the largest number. Next in point of numbers is Rev. D. H. Hind, rector of St. John's Church, Sandwich. He also tied innumerable knots for strangers who went to Windsor simply to be wedded. The remainder of the marriages were divided among the clergymen of the other denominations in the city. The births for the past six months were 130 and the deaths 101.
