Canadian League All-Stars From Different View-Points

Picking all-star aggregations out of the Canadian League is keeping the sport writers on many of our contemporaries lying awake nights. Each has his own separate opinion and no two guesses are alike. Personally, we decided to leave this thing absolutely alone, but after deep thought we have alone, but after deep thought we have come to the conclusion that the fol-lowing would make, a first-class Canadian League aggregation:

Pitchers, "Pop" Williams, of Berlin, and George O'Neil, of London; catchand George O'Neil, of London; catchers, Bobby Robinson, the famous fly-catcher, of Hamilton; first base. Tom Nelson, of Brantford; second base, C. O. Stanley, St. Thomas; shortstop. President Jimmy Fitzgerald; third base, W. H. Mahoney, of Guelph; left field, S. Stevely, London; centre field, John Burns, Hamilton; right field, Malcolm T. Brice, Ottawa. Umpire, J. Slats Davis, should be hired to manage this organization. age this organization.

Ottawa Free Press: Up in London they have started the all-star Canadian League stunt, one paper in that town publishing a team which is compared more than the company of t posed mostly of London players. As Ottawa fans have seen all the teams in action and know pretty well the ability of the various players of the league in their respective positions, the Free Press opens its columns suggestions of all-star teams and will publish any line-up submitted.

As a starter, the following is published as a likely-looking diamond aggregation.

Pitchers-McManus, Ottawa; Herbert, Ottawa: Hynes, London; Garlow, Hamilton. First base-Lane, Hamilton,

an all-star caste, are influenced to some extent by the fact that they have seen the home players in action a great deal more than the players on the other seven clubs, and often when they do see a visiting star he is enjoying one of those bad days which hit the best of them. However, just to mix things up and see how many hit the best of them. However, just to mix things up and see how many different opinions can be expressed, the local fans are granted permission to go to it and put their knowledge alongside that shown by the London and Ottawa blescherites.

The field and let 'em toss a coin to see which he mixes with an assortment of curve balls and show stuff that have made him unbeatable.

We think Knotty Lee should manth the chased John Gossett, the 26-year-old kid catcher, who is the best in the league, and the only backstop in the local fans are granted permission rules should be adopted to the like and let 'em toss a coin to see which he mixes with an assortment of curve balls and show stuff that have made him unbeatable.

Brantford Expositor: These all-star teams which Ottawa and London fans are picking out are a decided joke. We've got an opinion also on this allstar stuff and for a real all-star team cannot see anything but the following:

Pitchers—Rube Deneau (Berlin),
Knotty Lee (Hamilton), Dummy Erb.

COX HAD A BIG DAY AT PITTSBURG RACES

Won Three Out of Four Events on the Closing Afternoon of Meeting -The Results.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 9.—Walter R. Cox, the New Hampshire driver on the Grand Circuit, had a field day of it today, the closing day of the Pittsburg meeting, winning every race in which he drove, which was three out of four on the card. Cox won the 2:18 trot with Arona Mc-Kinney, the 2:15 pace with Baron A. and the 2:20 pace with Myrtle Baron, all in straight heats.

The free-for-all pacing championship, the only one in which Cox had no entry, brought out the best field of the week. Evelyn W., the horse that paced 2:03½ and 2:04¼ in Detroit on July 25; Independence Boy, showing 2:92¼ in the same race, and R. J. Mackenzie's Vernon McKinney and Don Densmore, all of whom met at Cleveland on Aug. 3 in the open pace, which Evelyn W. captured, and Sir R., who captured the 2:04 pace in Clevland on July 30, were starters in this race, which went to 19 on Densmore after Vernon McKinney had taken the first heat in 2:01½, the fastest time of any heat race, which went to Bon Densmore after Vernon McKinney had taken the first heat in 2:01½, the fastest time of any heat on any track this year. Densmore took the second heat in 2:02¼, making two of the fastest heats on any track this year and clipped off the third heat in 2:05¾ and cut up so badly that after the second heat he was ruled out. The finish of the last heat was so hot that when the judges announced that Don Densmore had won the heat over Evelyn W., the crowd hoofed and jeered the decision. But it was no easy race for Don Densmore, as Evelyn W. crowded him hard in both heats. Vernon McKinney in the first heat practically settled himself, for the best he could show afterwards was second and fourth. Summary:
