CITY MAY RESORT TO EXPROPRIATION ON LARGE SCALE WILL BE TAKEN BACK

It Is Said That Many of the Properties Are Being Held at Too High Prices.

The city council will meet this afternoon to close the option on the Mc-Cormick Company's property for $125,-000, and decide what action will be taken with regard to the other properties in the Federal Square block. Assessment Commissioner Grant and Ald. Moore, chairman of the finance committee, today went over the ground, fixed a valuation on various pieces of property, and will present the report to the council this afternoon. It was of a confidential nature. From present indications it is probable that arbitration proceedings will be taken in more than the cases instanced prior to the meeting of the finance committee his $30,000 bonds. last evening. It was certain then that be expropriated. It seems, however, that when Mr.

It seems to me that we cannot get any better price for the long term debentures than we have been getting. The financial concerns are bound Short-term 5 per cent debentures to discount them until they do bring are favored by Ald. Richter as a nearly 5 per cent, owing to the price of money at the present time. There will be cheaper money later, but not for some little time."

"That scheme would work out sat Spittal. "Half a billion dollars have been raised in the United States by corporations by means of loans, for short periods, rather than sell their debentures at the prevailing rates."

Ald. Moore, chairman of the finance committee, agreed with the proposal of Ald, Richter, and it is probable that I think we should issue short term, financing the city, selling the deben say 5 or 10-year debentures, at 5 per tures to citizens.

HUGGED HIS LADY FRIEND AND SHE WAS FINED $10

Dire Results Followed a Love Making Episode on Street

Car.

An Indian lister, whose name has been registered among the prohibitorles for about a month, and who has been arrested twice since that time for ingering and loitering about places in which liquor is dispensed, contrary to the provisions of the liquor license act, was again before Police Magistrate Judd this morning. Circumstances favored him, however, he was informed by the court, as the date on the information against him did not agree with that en which he was charged with breaking the law at the Morkin

May Board at Hotels. Indian listers have the right under the law to board at hotels, but are onsidered to be sailing pretty close to the line. The law states that prohibiories may not linger or loiter in any oom in which liquor is dispensed. The prisoner contended that he was in the insurance business, but the court appeared to be believe that he is
