

Everyone Is Welcome at Any of These Churches On the Sabbath Day

Believes It Good That People Should Sometimes See World at Its Worst

Taking his text from Ezekiel, 37th chapter, third verse, Rev. J. F. Reycraft preached a sermon on "The Valley of Dry Bones."

The preacher stressed the point that sometimes people thought they were in close communion with the Almighty when they enjoyed some outstanding spiritual experience. Sometimes it is much better for the people to be led into a place where they could see this old world at its worst.

The only thing that is of any value to humanity is a true understanding of the Word of God. God told Ezekiel to prophesy. He sometimes tells us to do things that appear ridiculous, but they are not so.

Mr. Reycraft declared that the world is the same today as it always has been. Humanity has always followed its own selfish instincts down through the centuries as it is doing at the present time. One is told to change one's methods to conform to that of the present age. "If Jesus walked this earth today would he change his methods to suit the age?" questioned the preacher. God does not tell us to change our methods to suit the age. Every man likes to be thought well of by the people he associates with, but if a man is going to be a prophet of the Almighty he must have and understand the Word of God.

GERMANS AGREE TO ALLIES' PLAN

Finance Ministry To Work in Close Touch With Powers.

PARIS, July 23.—The plan for the allied control of Germany's finance worked out by the committee on guarantees, official acceptance of which by the German government was announced yesterday, provides for the accrediting of the committee's representatives to practically all the departments of the German ministry of finance, over which they will exercise personal supervision.

Monthly reports of the receipts from customs, taxes, the postoffice, the telegraphs, and railroads, supplemented monthly by a report on the situation of the floating debt are further requirements which Germany has agreed to.

Ten Baby Fingers Win Big Share in Huge Barony of Amphill Fortune

LONDON, July 23.—The "ten baby fingers and ten baby toes" in the famous Russell divorce case are still likely to clutch the huge barony of Amphill fortune.

After five hours' deliberation last night, a jury held Mrs. Russell not guilty of improper relations with two named co-respondents, but failed to agree regarding the unidentified co-respondent whom Russell alleged was the father of his wife's nine-month-old son.

As was held in the Slingby baby case, which was the talk of two continents several years ago, that paternity could not be decided by similarity of features, so it was de-

RECEIVES 14 NEW CHURCH MEMBERS

In a short sermon at the Ridout Street Methodist Church yesterday morning which preceded the reception of 14 new members, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Agnew, spoke of the wonderful opportunity fellowship with Christ presents.

"The great opportunity," he said, "also presents a great responsibility. The world looks to you and to me and to all followers of Jesus Christ to exemplify His life. There is nothing finer in the world than a real Christian living the Christ life. It is up to you and to me to reproduce Christ in our lives, to uplift Him in all that we do that the world may see and learn to follow."

The evening service was conducted by Charles Deakins, a student of Belleville College.

Mr. Agnew leaves today on his holidays and the services will be conducted next Sunday by Rev. J. Holmes and on the following Sunday by "Gypsy" Simon Smith.

RUSSIAN FAMINE KILLED ONLY 500,000, HE SAYS

LONDON, July 23.—The total deaths from famine in Russia were only about 500,000, according to Walter Lyman Brown of the American administration, who sailed on the Aquitania for the United States today to confer with Herbert Hoover on the need of continuing Russian relief.

At the Russell trial, which closed two weeks ago, the center of interest among all classes of London was in naming up the president of the court tended to favor the wife, but warned the jury not to consider the baby's birth due to a "miracle." This referred to testimony given by experts in the medical ward.

The judge paid a high tribute to the parents of Russell, Lord and Lady Amphill, who, he said, came into court with the honest resolve to have the baby's paternity decided.

As the result of the verdict, the baby will inherit the wealth of Russell when the latter dies, unless the case is tried later.

The jury included two women.

DECLARES BOUT DISGRACE TO CITY

Rev. A. E. M. Thomson Scores Those Responsible for Dempsey Exhibition.

Declaring that the boxing exhibition presented at Port Stanley Friday was a disgrace to London, Rev. A. E. M. Thomson, in a prelude to his sermon at King Street Presbyterian Church Sunday evening, scored those responsible for staging the bouts at the lakeside.

Mr. Thomson, who is pastor of Centennial Methodist Church, and who was preaching at a union church service, pointed out that the promoters of this exhibition are unknown, because as he attributed it, they did not possess the courage to sign their names to advertisements.

"It was a disgrace to London," said Mr. Thomson, in his opening remarks on "London and Dempsey." He informed his congregation that a prominent Londoner had intimated to him that such matters as the Port Stanley affair should not be discussed in the pulpit, which should be reserved for preaching the Gospel.

Affects People's Welfare. On the ground that the Gospel relates to all activities of life, and of the things affecting the welfare of the people, the speaker explained that he was introducing his arraignment of Dempsey and those responsible for his appearance at Port Stanley.

"Items have appeared in the press in an attempt to assure us that Dempsey is not a brute," began Mr. Thomson, mentioning the fact that he had never accused the world's champion heavy-weight of being in this category. "Evidently somebody has been saying it, or they would not have found it incumbent to go to the length of telling the public what a fine young gentleman he is."

"Nobody was big enough to sign the advertisements of the exhibition and take the responsibility of the affair. Unless it is investigated, one will never know who was responsible for putting it on. I am glad that the London Railway Commission was sufficiently ashamed of the exhibition to keep its name off the advertising. However, there is no question as to who was responsible for the affair."

"They come along and tell us at great length that it is not a prize fight," continued Mr. Thomson. "I will agree with them to that extent, for what I have heard of the affair. I have no objection to good clean boxing, as such, but when it comes to a matter of exhibiting the champion bruiser of the world it is different."

"This was an exhibition of the man who knows how to deliver the knock-out quicker than anyone."

Mentioning the fact that, according to information furnished him, the exhibition did not prove a financial success, Mr. Thomson said: "Good, I hope that the London and Port Stanley Railway lost $5,000. They put on an exhibition there of champions of one kind and another that has been condemned practically over the whole of the continent. It was an exhibition in the same category as bull and cock fighting, put on under the auspices of the London and Port Stanley, which is under the auspices of London, and London means you and me as taxpayers."

Lauds Opposition.

"It is a strange thing in this city of ours when our own representatives make a business of exhibiting prize fighters on the playground of our women and children, which should be sacred to the citizens," declared the pastor, complimenting Chairman E. R. Seabrook and Ald. O. I. Cunningham, of the board of health, for the stand taken by them in opposition to the exhibition, at the last meeting of that body.

"It must be our business at the next elections to see that the men who were responsible have not the power to repeat the dose," he continued. "We have been informed that the affair did not amount to much. The idea of putting a fraud like that over on the public! Their advertisements said that this was a ten thousand dollar affair, put on under your auspices and mine. It was an incarnation of the spirit of Wilhelm the Kaiser and of the Middle Ages."

Mr. Thomson concluded his prelude by voicing his opinion that enormous salaries for movie stars and baseball players should be disapproved, and, while not opposed to baseball, he asserted that things are not as they should be when a young man demands $50,000 or more annually for his services in amusing the public during the short playing season.

SPEND FIVE HOURS ADRIFF ON STORM-LASHED LAKE

OTTAWA, July 23.—Adrift in Lake Deschambes in a flat-bottomed skiff for over five hours during the torrential rainstorms of Saturday night, with the surface of the lake lashed to a fury by a heavy wind, Dosithe Carrise and Albert Dufresne, both of Ottawa, made their way ashore early today one mile from Britannia village, or about seven miles from Southwark, where they had attempted to cross the lake on Saturday night.

Garbed in the lightest of summer clothing and with only one pair of oars, the experience of the young men was a most harrowing one, and both were in a state of exhaustion when they finally gained safety.

DECLARES CONGREGATIONS DISLIKE SUBJECT OF SIN

"Least of all does the modern congregation desire to have its placid self-complacency ruffled," declared Dean Tucker during the Sunday morning service at St. Paul's Cathedral, "and for that reason it is no longer customary or even considered good form to preach before a respectable, cultured and intelligent audience on the subject of sin. Modern congregations have eliminated from the Word of God all that is not pleasant or agreeable. Counting on God as a God of Love, they forget entirely that he is essentially a God of Justice and disregard completely his warning that the wages of sin is death, and that with the coming of the Day of Judgment many shall be cast into outer darkness, and there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

"Taking into consideration the world as we know it today," the dean asked,

ESTABLISH BOARD TO HEAR APPEALS

Government Appoint Body To Consider Pensioners' Protests Against D. S. C. R. Decisions.

OTTAWA, July 23.—The government has given effect to the recommendation contained in the report of the special parliamentary committee on soldiers' civil re-establishment to appoint a medical board before which pensioners may appeal from decisions of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment.

Hon. H. S. Bland, minister of D. S. C. R., has been provided with authority to create the board on either a temporary or permanent basis as he may deem advisable.

The pensioner may make appeals before this board when:

1. The D. S. C. R. gives a decision that a soldier is not entitled to treatment owing to a disability being not attributable to war service, and the applicant has produced a certificate from a doctor that the decision is at fault.

2. Where the physicians of the board of pension commissioners give a decision as to attributability or estimation of disability contrary to that of the district medical examiner, or

3. Where a disability pension has been suspended, reduced or cancelled by the board of pension commissioners, without or contrary to the opinion of the district medical examiner or traveling medical board, or similarly constituted medical board.

The appeal board will have practically all the power granted to commissioners under the inquiries act.

McRitchie, who conducted an investigation at the house, stated that an inquest was unnecessary, as death was due to an epileptic fit.

The deceased, who was only 39 years of age, arrived at the Dawson farm only Friday afternoon, and was given a job as a farm helper. He commenced work at 4 o'clock, and ate a good supper, retiring to bed at 9 o'clock. When the farmer went to call him at 5 o'clock this morning the hired man was dead.

Richardson is survived by his father and mother, two brothers and four sisters.

PASTOR RESIGNS BAPTIST PULPIT

Rev. N. S. McKechnie Accepts Call From Belleville Church.

Deep regret, on the part of the congregation, attends the resignation of Rev. N. S. McKechnie, B.A., B.Th., from the pastorate of the Wortley Road Baptist Church.

Mr. McKechnie, who is accepting a call from Victoria Avenue Baptist Church, Belleville, has been in London the comparatively brief space of three and a half years, yet during that time has made many close friends, who were loath to see the acceptance of his resignation following the service on Sunday morning.

He has been closely allied with the work of the Ministerial Alliance in the city, and at the recent election was made vice-president.

The congregation which he leaves pays the highest tributes to Mr. McKechnie's labors and personality, as well as the mastery manner in which he has taken hold of the pastorate and the splendid work he has accomplished there.

He will assume his new charge in September.

Urges Hearers Not to Listen to Voice Of So-Called Friends of Ireland

Edith Cavell Loyal Orange Ladies' Lodge, members of the Hackett Five and Drum Band, and a large representation of all the Orange lodges of the city attended divine service Sunday at Komoka Methodist Church, in conjunction with delegations from Adelaide, Mount Brydges and Strathroy lodges.

Among the London officers attending the church parade, which was the biggest one ever held in Komoka, were: J. W. Carson, county master of East Middlesex; A. Nevin and J. Murray, past county masters; C. W. Cross, district master, and H. Knight, county master of the Black Knights in Middlesex. Rev. A. E. Hooper addressed the gathering at the church.

The text of Mr. Hooper was from Exodus: "I am that I am." The speaker showed how God always raised up leaders when they were wanted, using the instance of the rise of Moses as an illustration and proof of this. He named William III., as one of the leaders God had raised up in time of need.

He strongly urged upon his hearers the need of all men developing the talents which they possessed, for though many men had great talents, few men developed them for the service of Christ.

The present age was one of progress and advancement, Mr. Hooper said, pointing out the invention of radio, whereby men thousands of miles apart could hear each other, as being typical of the progress of the times.

The people of Canada should not listen to the mere voice of politicians, Bolsheviks, and the so-called friends of Ireland, who sought to break down the ties of the British Empire, said the minister. The North of Ireland stood for what was right, and did not give in to the enemy, declared Mr. Hooper.

After the divine service a meeting was held for the purpose of organizing a ladies' lodge in Komoka.
