RESPONDS TO APPEAL FOR STARVING FISHERS

Moved by Editorial in Advertiser, Grenfell Mission Meets Friday.

A generous response to an appeal for help for the fishermen of Labrador has come to the local branch of the Grenfell Mission, through an editorial which appeared in The Advertiser, entitled "A Cry for Help." The fishermen of Labrador are facing starvation, because their harvest of the sea has been a failure this year, and they must have food to tide them over until the next fishing season.

"Starvation is staring us in the face. We ask you in God's Holy Name to help us and send us food for the winter," is the appeal which appeared in the editorial. And already a Goderich woman has sent in the clipping and with it a generous donation.

Miss Christine Fellows and Miss Mae Ferris, of Old Fort Bay, are looking after the distribution of food to the fishermen. Old Fort Bay is not far from Forteau, where the Labrador Mission Hospital is located, and thus has a special interest. Miss Fellows is an expert agriculturalist from the old country, and as soon as the spring comes will try to interest the fishermen of Labrador in agriculture, so that they may be able to produce food for themselves. Miss Ferris, who is helping her, is a Canadian trained nurse.

The annual meeting of the local branch of the Grenfell Mission will be held on Friday of this week. The members are delighted at the splendid contribution of nearly $500 from the citizens of London during Dr. Grenfell's recent visit here.

O. D. E., with Mrs. T. C. Duncan as convener. All in gypsy costume, the attendants of the stall will present a gay appearance. Mrs. Hunt has but recently taken charge of this booth, the original convener, Miss Eula White, having been taken ill and therefore unable to act. The booth is to be a gay green and white affair with a Christmas tree as part of the decorations. Here quaint jumping clowns and pierrottes will be used with delightful effect, the whole being brilliantly lighted. The members of the chapter will appear in pretty red and white costumes to sell their wares which will include all manner of articles suitable for Christmas gifts, including quantities of exquisite lingerie and hand-painted china.

Those who will assist in the booth are Mrs. Russell Crockett, Mrs. Charles Edwards, Mrs. Will MacDermott, Mrs. Jack Pope, Mrs. Norma Humphries, Miss Hilda Smith, Mrs. D. Silvester and Mrs. Gerald Pearson. Several handsome articles are to be raffled, among them a beautiful pillow and hand-painted tea service.

Subscriptions for a fashion magazine are also being taken here.

Old Book Shoppe

Ye Old Book Shoppe and the Old Curiosity Shop are two other interesting booths for which preparations are now well under way. The former is being looked after by the Hugh Niven Chapter, I. O. D. E., with Mrs. W. J. Anderson as convener. A special attraction will be the Story Hour for children—each afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock, conducted by Mrs. Richard Crouch. The ladies of the book shop, who are to appear in quaint, old-fashioned gowns, are Mrs. Emerson Nichols, regent of the chapter, Mrs. H. J. Sutherland, Mrs. Ernest Moore, Mrs. W. A. Martin, Mrs. Frank Ashplant, Mrs. A. B. Callahan, Mrs. J. Moffatt, Mrs. J. A. Jackson and Mrs. Walter Biggs.

The West London Societies will hold sway in the curiosity shop. Mrs. J. G. Guymer is the convener, while assisting her are Miss Amy Bartram, Miss Beatrice Bartram, Miss Louise Gahan, Mrs. Gordon Barr, Mrs. Sidney Sims, Mrs. R. A. Y. Stinchcombe, Miss Elsie Rowe and Miss Winifred Brown. They too, will be costumed in gowns of olden times.

The Apron Booth

Mrs. Thomas Carney is convener of the apron booth, for the members of the Trafalgar Chapter are to be in charge here, and the assistants Mrs. George Nightingale, Mrs. M. Logan, Mrs. L. Hutchinson and Mrs. W. Bibbings. The members of the Harriet Boomer Chapter will dispense candies and sweets. Miss Lillian Douglass is convener, assisted by Mrs. Pith Butler and all the members of the chapter.

Into the care of the Campbell Becher Chapter has been given the dance floor, which will be roped off, in the center of the Winter Gardens. During the day time the dance floor will afford seating space for those who have come to the story hour or to see the fashion show. Mrs. Bert Hookway is convener. It is expected that a band will be in attendance on Monday evening, and on Tuesday the Winter Gardens Orchestra.

The Oriental Booth

In the Oriental Booth, the members of the Overseas Chapter will have sway, with Mrs. Ella MacArthur as convener. The ladies are to appear in oriental costumes, of course, and in their stall will be wonderful array of wares from the East. Assisting Mrs. MacArthur will be Mrs. A. H. Clinger, regent; Mrs. George Wengle, Mrs. Harrison Link, Mrs. C. J. Wakeling, Mrs. (Dr.) Berry, Mrs. Hayward, Mrs. Tillson and Mrs. Davies.

Green and white is the color scheme for the Fish Pond, which is being looked after by the Janey Canuck Chapter, with Miss Ruby Anderson as convener. Here attractive prize packages will be concealed, and "fishing" will be the order of the day. The assistants in this booth are: Mrs. Walter Glassford, regent of the chapter; Mrs. M. E. Ashton, Miss Ena Arscott, Miss Widdon, Miss Smith, Miss Dexter, Miss Evans, Miss Raymond, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Egleton and Mrs. Elliott.

London Girl Best Shot In the Whole Dominion

Miss Clara Clark Wins Expert Medal—Only Girl Possessing It.

There is a girl in London who is a better shot than most boys and men who have had extensive rifle practice. She hits her bullseye every time and has won the much coveted "Expert Medal" for shooting. No other girl in the city holds such a record, and it is probable that she is the only girl in Canada in possession of the "Expert Medal" offered by the Winchester Junior Rifle Corps. Only eight London boys have won this distinction.

Clara Clark, for that is her name, resides with her grandmother at 138 Ann street. She is not more than 15 or 16 years of age, is fair-haired and very feminine in appearance. Saturday night, when the presentation of the medal was made at the Y. M. C. A. shooting alley by W. H. Spearman she appeared very young indeed. That she should have submitted the required 100 targets with 25 points in target, seemed hardly possible—2,600 shots at the bullseye without a miss!

Five Bullseyes.

Yet no sooner was the presentation made than she took her rifle, stretched her small body out on the floor and shot five times at a paper target 25 yards in front of her. When the spectators walked up the long length of the alley to see they found the bullseye had been pierced five times, and so closely together that but two perforations had been made. One shot must have gone through the central point of the target.

How did you happen to start rifle practice? she was asked.

This was the reply: "One day, two years ago, my brother came home. He told about it. He said he was going to join the rifle corps could join too. The next Saturday we started, and I have been practicing ever since and I love it."

Miss Clark is a member of a rifle corps, which is being trained under the direction of Ernest E. Murtagh of this city, who is one of the finest shots in the country. When she first joined, the corps practiced at the private ranges on Wm. Peake's farm on Park road north. When Mr. Murtagh was asked to take over the direction of the Winchester Rifle Corps at the Y. M. C. A., he made arrangements for girls could practice in the "Y" building, and there they are to be found each Saturday night in the long shooting alley located on the top floor at the "Y." All of them quite young but still eager to learn and progressing rapidly.

Other Medals Won.

The presentation of last Saturday night was a very special happening. Two other medals were also awarded: the Marksmanship Medal to Miss Ena Shawcross and the Sharpshooter to Miss Gertrude Johnson. Miss Clark, having won the Expert Medal, is now entitled to assist the instructor. When the girls first begin to shoot, metal swing targets are used. Then, when they are able to hit four in succession they are promoted to the ball target, and after that to paper targets. The paper targets are forwarded each week to the headquarters of the Winchester Junior Rifle Corps in New Haven, Conn., and from there reports are standing is judged. And London proudly shelters the only girl in Canada who has achieved the Expert Medal.

Paris, Nov. 26.—Feathers have quaint uses just now. Some women are wearing a bracelet of ostrich tips usually in black. Just below the shoulder on the sleeveless arm of an evening gown.

TOPCOATS BRIGHT COLORED. Paris, Nov. 26.—Topcoats, formerly sombre, today are becoming bright as the hues of the rainbow. Deep red, gorgeous yellow, stark green and purple, they are toned down a bit by very ample collars, cuffs and flouncings of fur.

NOTTINGHAM LACE. London, Nov. 26.—Nottingham lace has had a good deal of a revival since a member of the nobility wore it as a bridal veil. It is very much in vogue now for decorating, not only the veil, but also the bride's and bridesmaids' gowns.

COLLEGE GIRLS REBEL.

New York, Nov. 26.—College girls throughout the country are unanimous in their refusal to wear long skirts. Their campus dresses are shorter by three or four inches than even the sports clothes seen at the country club.

THE DUTIES OF A DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

One of the most important things for a Chinese girl to learn is the duties of a daughter-in-law. She must show absolute obedience to the word of the mother-in-law as soon as she becomes a wife. She must consider the comfort and pleasure of her husband and his mother above all things, obliterating herself entirely if needs be. It is possible that she is married to her husband when he is still a mere boy and in this case she must see that he obtains the necessary amount of schooling. In some parts of the country it is likely that he will take a second wife at some time, and the first must receive her like a sister and love the children of number two like her own.

New York city entertains about 100,000 visitors every day and has between 300,000 and 400,000 commuters.

The King As a Matchmaker. One of the jobs of His Royal Highness of England is to pass upon the desirability of certain proposed matrimonial unions of royalty. By a law in 1172 no descendant of George II. excepting princesses marrying into foreign families, can marry without royal consent, excepting that they have reached the age of 25 and have given 12 months' notice to the privy council. Where the conditions have been fulfilled, the marriage is valid unless both houses of parliament have expressed their disapproval.

China Was First to Issue Banknotes.

The oldest banknotes in the world were issued in China 2897 years before the Christian era. On the top of these curious notes was the following: "Produce all you can; spend with economy."

He Sleeps Like a Child

A good night's sleep is the finest medicine in the world.

No matter how tired, how worn out you may be after a hard day's work, if you can go to bed and sleep calmly and soundly for seven or eight hours, you will wake up in the morning alert and vigorous, your strength renewed, your whole body revitalized by the refreshing influence of peaceful slumber.

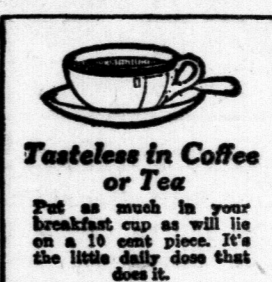

The healthy man always sleeps well. In other words, if you are not sleeping well, there is something wrong with your health.

If you find you are not sleeping as you should, you owe it to yourself to take your health in hand at once, before worse follows. Nine times out of ten there is something wrong with your internal system. Your work may tie you in too much—afford you little fresh air and exercise—may cause you to snatch hasty, unsuitable meals. Your food is not properly assimilated; indigestion and dyspepsia are marking you down for their prey.

All this is bound to tell upon you. What actually happens is that your liver and kidneys lose their vigour, impurities find their way into the blood stream, the tone of the entire system is lowered, and depression, tiredness, a thousand and one ill-follies, bringing troubled nights in their train.

Kruschen Salts will alter this.

Just enough to cover a 10 cent piece taken every morning in your breakfast cup of coffee or tea makes all the difference in the world. All impurities are removed from the body, the blood stream regains its richness and purity, the whole system responds to its tonic influence. You enjoy every moment of the day, whether at play or at work, and when night comes you seek your bed in the calm and happy state of mind and body that makes for sound, refreshing sleep.

Tasteless in Coffee or Tea. Put as much in your breakfast cup as will lie on a 10 cent piece. It's the little daily dose that does it.

Serves Every Need For Milk or Cream

CARNATION Milk is convenient because you can get it from your grocer—any time of the day—store it on your pantry shelves—keep a week's or a month's supply ahead if you want to—open a can when you need it.

It's doubly convenient because it serves your every need for milk or cream. For cereals or fruit, in tea or coffee use it as it comes in the can. For ordinary milk use dilute with water as desired.

This means economy too! There's no waste. Carnation Milk stays sweet in the can indefinitely and for several days when opened. It is simply "whole" fresh cows' milk from which about 60% of the natural water content has been removed by evaporation, then sealed in the can and sterilized. Order several tall (16 oz.) cans or a case of 48 cans from your grocer.

Try this recipe and write for the Carnation Cook Book containing 100 tested recipes. Beautifully illustrated. Write to-day.
