Presbyterian Women Also Hit Phases of C. G. I. T. Work.

Outstanding resolutions featured the sessions at New St. James' church yesterday afternoon, when the London Presbyterial held its first meeting since the definite breaking up of the W. M. S. The temperance question, the observing of Sunday, the Bible and shorter catechism, and C. G. I. T. work were all covered in the items to be sent to the provincial W. M. S.

They were as follows:

First. "That we regret the recent legislation regarding our liquor laws, and would impress upon all our members, both by their influence and vote, to exert their power in the cause of temperance."

Second. "That as members of the W. M. S. of the London Presbyterial. we deplore the lax observance of the Sabbath day, and would urge all our members to do all in their power to discourage Sunday visiting."

Third. "That we, as mothers, Sunday school teachers and all others are interested in the religious education of the young child, en-deavor to exalt the Bible as the steatest guide and the shorter catechism as expressing the great devotion of our church."

Too Much Play.

The resolution pertaining to the C. G. I. T. question was not definiteoutlined. It dealt, however, with the fact that too much play consti-tuted the present program, and, also, that the girls were not taught of their own missionary work, as the ornization was interdenominational.
Splendid reports were heard from the various secretaries. The district reports were particularly encourag-ing, and all showed an increase in membership since disbanding and reorganizing. The need was urged for co-operation that the work should for co-operation that the work should increase even more and that each auxiliary and group should aim at an increase in giving and membership.
