HE STOPPED SMOKING. Bill Nye's Resolution Against Tobacco,

have again renounced the pernicious terrible tobacco habit. Most every year I quit smoking and lead a different life for several weeks, and it is a pleasure that I would not forego. The joy of busting a long-established habit and asserting a manly independence of it, even for three weeks, is a good time.

MR. James More and wife, well known in Leamington, were both chronic sufferers from dyspepsia that the best medical aid failed to relieve. Three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured both husband and weeke, is a good time. Tobacco is a filthy weed—that is, it is a poisonous and venomous plant this week,

It will be so until further notice. I remem ber very well the struggle I had to break sickest and most sorrowful man in this of last winter. The doctor said I never city is Oleante Myson, a French Canadian would have flesh enough on my bones to stopping temporarily at No. 4 Carlisle catch a shrimp if I didn't stop the use of street. Three weeks ago he left London, down town. Guess we can fix it up for $5 or $6. I shall have to get a new coat, and perhaps a new nose. I cannot tell yet as to the nose. When the swelling goes down, so I can see over it better, I shall be better able to judge. At present it shuts out the landscape a good deal and gives me a stoister expression.

Jan 4.—Went out walking in the woods to-day. The air was crisp and frosty. I strolled over about where I threw my pipe along in the latter part of the year '83.

—Mrs. George Simpson, Toronto, says: "I have suffered severely with corns, and was unable to get relief from treatment of any kind until I was recommended to try Holloway's Corn Cure. After applying it for a few days I was enabled to remove the corn, root and branch—no pain whatever, and no inconvenience in using it. I can beartily recommend it to all suffering from corns."

"Base minion, I defy thee,' said the strolled over about where I threw my pipe along in the latter part of the year '83. I did not want the pipe, and yet, when I found it, after searching three or four hours, I telt a secret thrill of pleasure. I do not know why. I brought it home, thinking it might be convenient for some one who had no pipe, and who might still be a slave to the abominable habit. I have in mind a party who might thus be benefitted. He is a young man of great promise, and none know him but to love him, none name him but to praise. I will save the pipe for him. He will be pleased and gratified. He is my wife' first husband.

When I started out I announced in this volume that I would quit the use of to bacco and keep a diary. I she it continue to do so, making, however, so slight change in the arrangement, by which I shall keep the tobacco and quit the use of the library of the tobacco and quit the use of the library of the tobacco and quit the use of the library of the large of the cattiff. The Hebrews of the city are just now particularly jubilant. The cause of this is that Brounstein, the Jew, who gained so that Brounstein, the Jew, who gained so much notoriety a short while ago by being tarred and feathered by his fellow-countrymen, has skipped with his wife. It will be remembered that they were recently committed to stand their trial at the coming fall assizes on the charge of kidnapping a girl for the purposes of prostitution. They were admitted to bail, their solicitor going surety for their appearance to the extent of $100. The bail has been paid by Mr. Glass, the solicitor, who was not left in the lurch by the Hebrew as stated. Brounstein, gave him the bail money, together with counsel fee.

Mr. Isaac Brown of Bothwell, declares that he found one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters worth $500 to him. It cured him of Salt Rheum from which he had suffered years after other treatment had failed to relieve.

The National Game a National Danger.

From the Raleigh Biblical Record. Love for our country and best interest of the church of God and the rising generation must sooner or later arouse the christians everywhere to the danger which is imminent. In the interest of the wives and children dependent on men wasting time and talents on these games, in the interest of the business character of our young men, in the interest of good feeling between neighboring and distant town. between neighboring and distant towns and villages which is being torn by quar-

and villages which is being torn by quarrels, jealousy and ill will growing out of match games, and for the sake of the financial and religious interest of the whole country, north and south, let's check up a little on the baseball excitement.

I hear that in some sections in the country even the fields are being prepared as baseball grounds, which ought to be planted in corn and cotton, peas or potatoes. Farmers say they find it difficult to keep their boys and hor es at home when it is announced that a game of baseball is to be played near by. A friend tells us that he was unable to get a doctor's prethat he was unable to get a doctor's pre-scription filled in a neighboring town because the drug stores were closed that all might attend the game.

When a game is to be played here handbills are scattered and posted in all directions, gates opened on the grounds, admission fees collected amounting to from $25 to $60. Was the like ever known? Husband and Wife.

A New York despatch says : "The catch a shrimp if I didn't stop the use of tobacco, so I stopped. For weeks I was uncertain about whether I would renounce my pipe or not. It was a solace to me when I was lonely, it gave me much pleasure, and seemed to me, after a stormy and tempestuous career as postmaster, to be a mild sort of vice. But I wanted to get fat, so one day when I was over at Botjack camp, I threw my pipe over into the woods as far as the strength of a great resolution could send it.

I can still remember how it went hustling through the air, and how I went hustling through the air, the following week, on my hands and knees, hunting for it.

It was about those days that I rashly rerolved to keep a diary. It hardly shows the marks of use, but I will sell it at a reasonable price to anyone desiring an easy running diary, with a place to stick a percil when not in use. I quote a few entries from the same:

Jan 1 1884 — Have resolved to quit the strength of the same:

His idea in coming here was first to marry and embark in business. To-day he hasn't a cent. On Saturday he started out with all his money in his pocket to see the city. He met two young "ladies," Dora Meyers and May Johnson, and fell in love with them. They succeeded in getting him into a Bowery dive, and remained there several hours. During their stay Myson ordered fifteen bottles of wine and treated everybody. On leaving his fair companions he thanked them for their kindness in showing him the city; but later on discovered that he had been robbed. The girls were found and taken to the Tombs. They denied the charge, but were held.

Jan. 2.—How gloomy everything looks to-day. Made several New Year's calls yesterday, I am told. In an unguarded moment, perhaps, I did; but it was unintentional. I did not smoke, however, yesterday. I feel much better without to-bacco in any form. Think I am gaining fiesh. I do not notice it so much in my body, but my head and feet are certainly much larger than they were yesterday.

fiesh. I do not notice it so much in my body, but my head and feet are certainly much larger than they were yesterday. How much more happy and light-hearted we are when out from under the thraldom of an old vice that has clung to us for years like—like vice, as it were. Paid fifty cents for a pound of marshmallows to gladden the children's hearts, and, while in a seal-brown study on the way home, ate them all. When I quit the use of tobacco I notice that I want to eat everything I see. Came mear eating the infant class at the Sabbath acheol yesterday.

Jan. 3.—I am getting a little bit irritable I notice, and several of my friends have called my attention to it. A policeman last evening first mentioned it to me down town.
