Death of Miss Agnes Cameron.

The passing of Miss Agnes Cameron, of Grassmere, Man., to her last long rest, on Thursday, Dec. 29th, 1910, was one of unusual sadness, inasmuch as it occurred just a week after her marriage was to have taken place. Miss Cameron, who was the youngest daughter of Mrs. Paul Cameron, of Grassmere, and a native of Watford, was to have wed Mr. Hugh McMillan, of Stonewall, on Dec. 21st, but a severe attack of pleurisy prevented the marriage, and she grew steadily worse until the 29th, when she succumbed after a hard struggle. Mr. McMillan and her mother, brothers and sisters have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their great loss.

Rev. J. Philp, Essex, has been laid up for some time with a severe case of grip.

The big pig weighed 730 pounds, live weight, and Mr. Gerber received for it a check for $43.80. He did not receive the market price for the hog because it was rather fat for packing purposes. GOOD HEALTH FOR RUN DOWN MEN

If You Are Weak and Easily Tired Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Anaemia is a state into which one falls because of lack of blood, or because the blood is poor, weak and watery. The man or woman who has not enough blood is pale, languid, easily tired and easily depressed. As the trouble progresses other symptoms show themselves, and the life of the sufferer is one of misery. Anaemia opens the door to consumption, and gives victims to all the epidemic maladies, because the whole body is weakened and unable to resist the inroads of disease. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best remedy in the world for the cure of anaemia, and all its attendant miseries. They make the blood rich, red and pure, thus bringing health and strength to weak, despondent men and women. We do not know of a single case of anaemia where Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have failed to cure it, given a fair trial. Mr. John Hastings, Vent, Sask., was a victim of this trouble and found new health through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He says: "I was working on a railway driving a team and found myself gradually running down. I did not pay much attention to it at first, but soon I began to lose my appetite and it was a trial to get through my day's work. I got medicine from the doctor on the works, but it did not help me, and finally got so bad I told the foreman I would have to quit. He told me not to lose hope, that he would get some medicine that would soon make me all right. That night he went to town and bought me three boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had not taken more than two boxes when I began to feel better, and after I had used five boxes I was as well and strong as ever, and could do a day's work with any man on the job. I may just add that before I began taking the Pills I was so run down that I weighed only 122 pounds, and while taking them I gained 22 pounds. I cannot say too much in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and strongly recommend them to all run down men."

You can get these Pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Address and Presentation.

The members of the Bethesda choir, Broke, met on Tuesday evening, January 24th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sisson, to bid good-bye to their daughter Gertrude, previous to her departure for Saskatoon. After indulging in music &c., for a time, a dainty lunch was served, after which Miss Blanche Holbrook read the following address:—

To Miss Gertrude Sisson.
 We, the members of the Bethesda choir, have learned with regret of your intended departure from our midst and have assembled here to-night to spend a pleasant evening before bidding you farewell. We assure you that your kind disposition has won the affection of all and that, in future when we meet, your smiling countenance will be greatly missed among us. We feel that we cannot allow you to separate from us without showing some mark of our appreciation of your services rendered us. Therefore, we beg you to accept this locket and chain as a slight token of our esteem for you, and in the future, as you wear them, may you be reminded of the givers. We all join in wishing you every prosperity in your new undertaking, and when this life is ended may we meet, an unbroken choir, in the land above.

Signed on behalf of the choir,
 BLANCHE HOLBROOKE,
 CHAS. JANES.
 Miss Sisson made a suitable reply, after which "God be with you till we meet again" was sung, and all dispersed to their homes.

NAPIER.

Mrs. M. McNeil, Metcalf, is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. Miss Kadey returned Wednesday after spending a few days at her home in Watford.
 Rev. and Mrs. Kannawin, Strathroy, visited Rev. and Mrs. Stewart at the Mauser Wednesday and Thursday. Miss Maude Toohill, who has been under the doctor's care for the past few months, went to London Hospital, Tuesday.

Mr. H. Lowe received a telegram, Friday, stating that his son, W. Will Dowe, Detroit, passed away after a short illness. The remains were brought home for interment, the funeral being Monday at 1 p.m. from the G.T.R. station, at Strathroy.

The angel of death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Toohill, Metcalf, at 8 o'clock Saturday evening and bore their little daughter, Marjorie Christina, to her heavenly home, after a lingering attack of typhoid-pneumonia. The funeral left their home at one o'clock Tuesday for Strathroy.

On Wednesday evening last a sleigh-load of ladies of the Napier Ladies' Auxiliary drove over to Mr. Walker's, Navoo Road, for the purpose of organizing an auxiliary among the Chalmers' church congregation, Broke. About thirty-five ladies and eighteen gentlemen assembled in the spacious sitting room. The meeting was opened by Rev. Mr. Stewart reading a Bible chapter, following which Rev. Mr. Kannawin led in prayer. Mrs. Kannawin addressed the ladies in a well arranged discourse, showing the purpose of the organization. After the appointment of officers, Mrs. M. McIntyre, President of the Napier Auxiliary, in a neat speech explained how meetings were conducted every fourth Wednesday in Napier. Rev. Mr. Kannawin also gave a short address. A musical program followed consisting of recitations by Misses Walker, McIntyre and Houston, and vocal solos by Mrs. McGregor, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Bennett, a mouth organ selection by Mr. Smith, and several violin duets by Messrs. Walker and Lindsay were enjoyed by all, also a vocal duet by Rev. and Mrs. Stewart. The serving of a dainty lunch ended a very pleasant evening.
