FAITHFUL COMMONERS

Received by the Queen at Windsor Castle.

They Fared Sumptuously at Her Majesty's Expense—Their Wives and Daughters Accompanied Them—A Victory for the Press—Talk of an Alliance Between Great Britain and Japan—Power Agree on Conditions of Autonomy for Crete—General News by Cable.

London, July 3.—Four hundred and fifty members of the House of Commons, accompanied by their wives and daughters, making a total of a thousand persons, went to Windsor to-day to visit the Queen, in response to the invitation extended by Her Majesty after she had learned of the unceremonious treatment accorded the members when they attended the Speaker of the House to Buckingham Palace to present a Jubilee address to her. The party were conveyed in special trains at no cost to themselves, and were taken in carriages from the Windsor Station to the castle. Marquees had been erected on the lawn in which champagne, tea and strawberries were served to the visitors.

The Queen, attended by Princess Beatrice, both attired in black, drove slowly in a phaeton, drawn by two grey ponies, about the grounds where her guests were assembled. The leaders of both political parties, Mr. Balfour, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Sir William Vernon Harcourt and Mr. Herbert Asquith, accompanied Her Majesty on foot.

They summoned the individual members to the side of the carriage, where they made obeisance to the Queen.

Among those presented to Her Majesty were Messrs. Pickard and Abraham, the labor leaders. Sir Charles Dilke, the Radical leader, was also present.

The discourtesy in London was fully cancelled by the graciousness of to-day's reception at Windsor.

A Victory for the Press.

New York, July 4.—A London despatch to The Times says: "The manner in which the Queen conveyed her regrets to the House of Commons contained a startling innovation to British ears. Seldom, if ever, has a sovereign found it necessary to tell the Legislature that she heard for the first time through the newspapers of the events so directly concerning her, such as this palace episode. The English press is quite delighted and proud of the Jubilee casket and honor imparted to 'the fourth estate,' while many members of the House are chuckling with delight at the snub thereby administered to Mr. Balfour, who treated with such philosophic contempt the earliest complaints made to him on the subject. The legislators hint that the First Lord of the Treasury, ever prone to laziness when off the golf links, might save himself the trouble of his night letter report to the Queen, and substitute instead a special edition of some evening paper. This might be worked but for the difficulty of fixing the organ to be so distinguished."

STEAD'S EMBARRASSING QUESTION.

The Blind Chaplain of Congress Was Asked for an Assurance He Could Not Give.

London, July 4.—The celebration of Independence Day took the form in the Robert Browning Social settlement of a meeting in favor of arbitration. Mr. William T. Stead, editor of The Review of Reviews, presided. He embarrassed Rev. Dr. Milburn, chaplain of the United States Senate, who was present, by appealing to him to assure the meeting that the United States Senators who voted for the treaty represented a majority of the people and the bulk of the intelligence of the United States.

Dr. Milburn made no reply to this appeal, but in the course of his own address he said that the descendants of Englishmen in the United States were as loyal to many English traditions as Englishmen themselves, but that America rejoiced in her own independence. In the course of the evening representatives of the Women's Press League of Chicago presented portraits of Washington and Lincoln to the settlement.

SPITEFUL AT LAURIER.

French Chauvinist Papers Don't Like His Patriotic Speeches in London.

Paris, July 4.—The Chauvinist papers make spiteful remarks at the expense of Sir Wilfrid Laurier patriotic speeches in London. They say that as he is the son of a Frenchwoman, he ought to declare in favor of a French party and a separatist press in Canada, while they think Louis Riel worthy of canonization.

The Bishops at Canterbury.

London, July 4.—Two hundred of the bishops who are in attendance at the Lambeth Conference visited Canterbury to-day, and, after a short service in St. Martin's, the oldest parish church in England, attended an imposing ceremony in the cathedral, at which were present the officials of many of the Kentish towns, representatives from the regiments of the garrison and many American visitors. The colored bishops of the Niger and Zambesi districts attracted much notice.

Socialist Elected in Italy.

Rome, July 4.—Sig. Amilcar Cipriani, the Italian Socialist leader, has been elected a member of the Chamber of Deputies for Forli.

Welcomed at Liverpool.

Liverpool, July 3.—On their arrival at Liverpool the Canadian troops were met at the railway station by a guard of honor from the Lancashire Volunteer Artillery, accompanied by a band. They proceeded to the quay and embarked on the steamer Scotsman, which sailed amid a storm of cheers and the singing and playing of national airs.

SAGASTA WANTS POWER.

But He Believes Canovas Will Hang on Until the Game is Up.

Madrid, July 3.—An interview is published with Senor Sagasta, the Liberal leader, during which he is quoted as saying that he interpreted the delay in the arrival here of General Steward L. Woodford, the new United States Minister to Spain, as an unfavorable symptom. Senor Sagasta is also quoted as saying that General Woodford's stay in London and Paris is intended to prepare the way for negotiations with the view of justifying the attitude of the United States. The Liberal leader is said to have remarked that by the exaggerated statements of the situation in Cuba he considered the present moment the best for the Liberals to take office. But, he continued, he believed Senor Canovas del Castillo would not resign until the situation is so bad that it will be impossible to remedy it.

A CHRISTIAN GOVERNOR

To be Appointed for Crete—Greece Will Pay the Indemn ty Cash Down.

London, July 4.—A despatch from Athens to The Central News says: The powers have agreed upon these conditions of Cretan autonomy: A Christian Governor is to be appointed, and the annual tribute to be paid to Turkey is fixed at £30,000, commencing after five years.

The foreign troops will remain on the island, pending the formation of an indigenous militia under European officers. The Governor is to have the right to nominate and dismiss civil officers. The Constitutional Assembly is to be composed of an equal number of Christians and Mohammedans, and there is to be a gradual withdrawal of the Turkish troops.

A despatch to The Daily Mail from Athens says that the Government has already negotiated a loan, and that the moment the peace conditions are signed the indemnity will be paid cash down.

BRITAIN AND JAPAN.

Talk of an Alliance Between Them—Salisbury Fears "Understandings."

London, July 4.—One of the most important political incidents connected with the Jubilee concerns the relations between Great Britain and Japan. The latter country, since her war with China, has assumed all the dignity and prerogatives of a great power. Now, with proud humility, she confesses that she needs a European ally, preferably Great Britain. This Government has been repeatedly approached during the past year with a view to the conclusion of an Anglo-Japanese alliance. The matter was discussed at an interview of the Mikado's Jubilee envoy with Lord Salisbury on Monday last.

The British Premier does not favor alliances prior to war, but he is very fond of "understandings," and there is good reason to believe that he has arrived at an understanding with Japan which would be converted into an actual defensive and offensive alliance, should trouble occur between England and Russia, which might happen at any moment. It was, therefore, in accordance with the fitness of things that Japan made a brave show at the Jubilee naval review. She was represented by one of the finest battleships anchored at Spithead, and the officers and men of no foreign warship walked about Portsmouth with a finer swagger and in more gorgeous plumes than the little Japs.

ITALY WILL HAVE A SHOW.

A Naval Demonstration on a Large Scale to be Held at Palermo.

Rome, July 4.—King Humbert will pay a state visit to Sicily on July 15, accompanied by the Premier, Marquis di Rudini, and the Ministers of War, Marine and Public Works. His Majesty will hold a naval review at Palermo, to which the great European nations will send warships.

England will send her entire Mediterranean squadron, France and Austria will send naval divisions, Germany and Russia one battleship each, Spain two warships, and Italy will be represented by the Italian reserve squadron of twelve ironclads and cruisers and a flotilla of torpedo boats.

TROUBLE AT SIMLA.

Mob Tried to Seize a Mosque But the Troops and Police Opened Fire.

London, July 4.—A despatch to The Times from Simla says that a mob there tried to seize a mosque, but the police and troops opened fire and a serious conflict ensued. Finally the mob was repulsed with heavy loss. The principal ringleader was wounded and captured. He will be tried along with his chief followers.

ALL DROWNED BUT THREE.

British Vessel Sunk at the Mouth of the Ganges by a Collision.

Calcutta, July 4.—The British barque Overdale, Captain Roberts, bound for South America, came into collision with the steamer Pandua, off Hooghly Point, near the mouth of the westernmost branch of the Ganges, and sank almost immediately. All on board were drowned except the captain, the pilot and one seaman.

England Gets the Bulk.

London, July 4.—Of the 1656 square miles of territory in Manicaland, South Africa, the ownership of which has been disputed by England and Portugal, 1337 square miles have been awarded to England by the arbitrator, Signor Vigilant.

Mr. Woodford Explains.

Madrid, July 4.—It is officially said that Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, the newly appointed American Minister to Spain, has cabled to the Government here saying that he never authorized his name to appear in the list of the members of the Cuban Junta in New York, and that any speeches that he made in favor of the insurgents were made over 23 years ago.

Labby Will Censure Rhodes.

London, July 3.—It is understood that Mr. Henry Labouchere will make an individual report on the subject of the Transvaal raid, strongly censuring Mr. Cecil Rhodes, but admitting that the conduct of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, had been perfectly straightforward.

The Commoners Mollified.

London, July 3.—To soothe the historic susceptibilities which were immensely ruffled when the members of the House of Commons attended the Queen's reception at Buckingham Palace, upon which occasion many of the commoners were unable to enter at all and others arrived too late, Her Majesty to-day entertained them at a garden party at Windsor.

Col. Hays' Reception.

London, July 3.—The reception of the United States Ambassador, Col. John Hay, at his residence on Carlton House terrace to-day, was attended by 1600 people, American and British Regs predominated in the decorations, and a Hungarian band was stationed on the terrace, where the guests gathered.

Fourteen Bodies Recovered.

Paris, July 4.—Fourteen bodies have been recovered from the floods caused by the rising of the River Garonne, most of them being found near Auch, the capital of the Department of Gers, on the River Gers, west of Toulouse. It is feared that others have been drowned, as many houses have been swept away. The floods are now subsiding in the Department of Gers.

Mr. Astor Whacks Up.

London, July 4.—Mr. William Waldorf Astor has paid into the Bank of England the sum of $5000 for the Prince of Wales' hospital fund. He will annually subscribe the same amount to the fund.

Drowned in Long Pond.

Highland Falls, N.Y., July 4.—A party of West Pointers, consisting of Charles Mickel, his wife and daughters, Mrs. Holtz and Adam Mickell, were rowing in Long Pond to-day when the boat capsized and Mrs. Mickel and child were drowned. First Sergeant Anthony Brechbell, of Co. E, Battalion of Engineers, swam out to the rescue, and he, too, was drowned.

FLOOD IN MINNESOTA.

Hundreds of People Driven From Their Homes—Damage $100,000.

Carlton, Minn., July 3.—As the result of torrents of rain for 15 hours Otter Creek has broken its banks and flooded the town. Hundreds of people are fleeing to safer quarters. The St. Louis River has risen 20 feet. By the breaking of booms above millions of feet of logs are crashing down the channel. All railroad traffic is suspended and will not be resumed for five days. It is estimated the damage in Carlton alone will reach $100,000.

Plague at Constantinople.

London, July 4.—A despatch to The Central News from Sofia, Bulgaria, says that owing to an outbreak of plague at Constantinople the Bulgarian authorities have instituted a 15 days' quarantine against all travelers from Turkey. The quarantine went into effect to-day.

DUNDAS IS SCARED.

A Boy Bitten by a Dog Died, and the Scientists Have Discovered That It Was Hydrophobia.

Dundas, July 3.—Tale town, in common with several Western Ontario towns and cities, has a hydrophobia scare. About six weeks ago a young lad named McKenzie was bitten by a dog belonging to his father and died shortly afterwards. A post-mortem was made by the order of the Provincial Board of Health, and the medulla sent to Mr. McKenzie of Toronto, the head of the bacteriological department, for examination. The other day the provincial authorities sent Dr. Smith their finding in the case, stating it to be one of rabies. Some of the townspeople are alarmed and stringent measures will be adopted to prevent dogs running at large and to prevent the spread of the disease. James McKenzie, an elder brother of the deceased, who was also bitten, has gone to New York to receive special treatment.

SUNDAY BASEBALL.

Buffalo, July 4.—An immense crowd saw the game to-day, and enjoyed it, for there were plenty of long hits by both sides and home runs. In the last two innings the locals found Staley easy, but up to that time it was a fast, clean and even game. Score:

Toronto ..... 1 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 0—4

At Syracuse—By knocking their hits in the first inning and batting Wilkes out in the fifth inning, Rochester succeeded in whipping from Syracuse. Yerrick kept the hits of the home team well scattered, two of their runs being due to errors by Dooley and Yerrick. Score:

Umpire Hurst called Kelly out at first. Score:
