

ANNALS
OF
ST ANNE DE BEAUPRÉ

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.—THE DIRECTORS OF LEVIS COLLEGE.

CONTENTS.

Spiritual advantages.—Shrines dedicated to St. Anne: St. Anne's Chapel at St. Mary's, Beauce.—How St. Francis celebrated Christmas.—The Canticle of Anna of Elcana (Continued).—Rorate, Cali, desuper: A song of Christmas-tide.—The worship and patronage of St. Anne: (Continued) Homage paid to her by the Western World; the North of Europe.—St. Nicholas, archbishop of Myra.—Lez-Breiz (epic fragments) (Concluded).—The Virgin of Snow. A child cured by St. Anne.

Price of subscription: 35 cents; all correspondence to be directed to Rev. C. E. CARRIER, Levis College, Levis, P. Q.

SPIRITUAL ADVANTAGES.

1^o Two masses are offered up every week, one on Monday, and the second, on Saturday, for subscribers and their families; 2^o another mass is said, on the first Friday of every month, for deceased subscribers.

—00—

SHRINES DEDICATED TO ST. ANNE.

II

ST. ANNE'S CHAPEL AT ST. MARY'S, BEAUCE.

St. Mary's, in the County of Beauce, is one of the finest and oldest parishes of the arch-diocese of Quebec. Situated in a lovely valley, it is divided