COMPOUND CHAMOMILE CORDIAL.

THIS Cordial, as its name announces, is prepared scientifically by a Member of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, from the Flowers of Chamomile and other vegetable ingredients, imported expressly from England. Not only as a Tonic does it stand unrivalled, but its peculiar medicinal virtues have acquired a justly celebrated reputation, surpassing the famed Sarsaparilla, to which, in point of richness of taste and flavor, as well as in practical efficacy, it is incomparably superior.

These inestimable virtues, while fully preserved, are more delicately concentrated and developed in the Cordial, which from its transparency and golden colour, resembles Wine, and as such may be used at discretion. The flavor is fresh and fragrant, and the taste most grateful and unexciting, either to the lady, the Temperance advocate, or fastidious connoisseur.

TESTIMONIALS:

Toronto, June 29th, 1852.

Messrs. REXFORD & Co.,

GENTLEMEN.—We have tasted the Sample Bottle, with which you favored us, of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and find it as you describe, fragrant and agreeable to the palate, and consider it an excellent Preparation for the use of the valuable Tonic Properties of the Flowers of Chamomile.

We are, &c.,

GEORGE HERRICK, M.D.
JOHN KING, M.D.

GENTLEMEN.—I duly received and have tried the sample of Compound Chamomile Cordial, which you sent me.

Aware of the manner in which you prepare it, and of the nature and quality of the ingredients which you employ in its manufacture, I cannot object to express to you in my writing my opinion of it, which I should not hesitate to do under different circumstances.

I consider it a very elegant Pharmaceutical Preparation, susceptible of being made exceedingly useful in a dietetical as well as the therapeutic point of view. It will serve as an excellent substitute for much of the trash which is purchased as Wine for the use of Invalids; and will also prove an excellent medium for the agreeable conveyance of remedies which, without some auxiliaries, are often rebelled against and rejected by the stomach.

I am, Gentlemen,

Yours, &c.,

FRANCIS BADGLIN, M. D.

Messrs. REXFORD & Co.,

GENTLEMEN.—I duly received and have tried the sample of "Compound Chamomile Cordial" which you sent me. I consider it a very elegant Preparation, and useful in all cases where a mild Tonic is required, more especially in cases of Dyspepsia, and the weakness of the Stomach; it being very agreeable to taste, can be taken by any one.

I am, &c.,

THOMAS DUGAN,
Surgeon.

London, C. W., June 18th, 1852.

Messrs. REXFORD & Co.,

GENTLEMEN.—I have received the Sample Bottle of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and consider it a beautiful as well as highly palatable preparation. The quantity and peculiar bitter flavor, in which lies the essential medicinal qualities, appear to be largely infused and well preserved; and as this vegetable Tonic is highly beneficial in those forms of Dyspepsia, depending on acidity, or want of tone of the digestive organs, (the form most frequently met with on this continent,) your Cordial will, I doubt not, form an inestimable addition to our Pharmacopœia.

From the knowledge possessed by me of Mr. Rexford, and his very high reputation as a Pharmaceutical Chemist, I feel much pleasure in confidently recommending his preparation of this valuable Tonic to my Professional Brethren, and to the public, as a delightful and invigorating Cordial.

I am, Yours, &c.,

GEORGE HOLME,
Surgeon.

Messrs. REXFORD & Co. Toronto.

GENTLEMEN.—I have no hesitation in expressing to you my personal appreciation of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial." The Tonic properties of the Flowers of Chamomile, with which it is finely blended, are so universally acknowledged and the Medicinal qualities of that vegetable ingredient so fully admitted in Dyspeptic complaints, that I consider the idea of administering it in the pleasing form of a Cordial, most happy; and in the case of your preparation so successful, that it cannot fail to be a favorite with the public.

The Castilian Hair Invigorator.

THIS elegant Toilet Preparation is warranted to excel all others ever offered to the public, for Preserving and Restoring the hair; it prevents or cures baldness or gray hair; cures dandruff and ringworm; and what is of the highest importance, is, that it is unlike most other Toilet preparations, being perfectly harmless, yet successful for the purposes recommended. It gives the hair a beautifully soft, smooth and glossy appearance; in this it also differs from other preparations, all of which more or less harden and dry the hair. The Spanish Ladies so justly famed for beautiful and glossy hair, have used for centuries. It causes the hair to retain its original colour to the latest period of life, only making it assume a darker shade if originally very light. Discolored hair becomes and falls out or turns grey. The Invigorator removes such disease, and restores the skin and hair to a healthy condition.

The Castilian Hair Invigorator
